

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

ANOTHER VOICE FOR THE UNION

Speaking at Sanford's Station.

CHARLES E. HOPKINS, Esq., A. B. CHASE, Esq., and Col. ERNEST, will address the people of Fayette Township and vicinity at Sanford's Station, on the present state of the country.

On Saturday next, at 10 o'clock A. M. Let all who love the glorious old flag attend.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Col. H. W. Thompson and Hon. W. E. McLean.

Will address the citizens of Fayette township and vicinity, at PRAIRIETON, at two o'clock, on Saturday, July 20th.

All the people are invited to attend.

Union Club.—The friends of the Constitution and the Union, without distinction of party, are requested to meet at the Court House on Friday Evening, next, the 19th instant, at early evening, for the purpose of forming a Union Club. Speeches will be made by prominent citizens, and patriotic songs will be sung by a good choir. Come out, friends, and let us have a good meeting.

TERRE HAUTE, July 17, 1861.

ATTENTION, FARMERS.—You are hereby commanded to meet at the City Hall THIS (Friday) EVENING at 8 o'clock precisely, for the transaction of business of the utmost importance.

By order of CAPT. LONG.

C. L. SMITH, Orderly.

We did not say that Mrs. Beauregard had relatives living in this county. We only quoted what the Indianapolis Journal said.

The Journal seems exercised over that Hand Bill. The circulation of that "bad bill" already exceeds that of the "Evening Journal."

The Journal, of last evening, advised its friends in what manner they might convey information to the Southern Confederacy. We doubt not, much reasonable correspondence will be carried on between the sympathizers and compromisers North and South.

Senator Douglas, on his route home said repeatedly, that he did not doubt that if he had been elected President, we should have had the same state of affairs as under Mr. Lincoln. Whether Mr. Douglas was a sane Democrat or not, we leave men who love consistency to judge.

The blackberry crop is unprecedentedly large this season, consequently they are selling at very reduced prices, from two and a half to five cents per quart. We know of no fruit more desirable for family use than blackberries, and which is capable of being served up in so many styles, all of which are most delicious. It is also the most healthy fruit that can be used, and every thrifty housewife will, of course, lay in a large supply this season.

PERFECT.—We saw a handsome young lady last evening, wearing a very pretty silk apron, constructed of the national colors, Red, White and Blue. Besides being a neat manifestation of patriotism it has a very attractive appearance, and we hope it will be generally adopted by the patriotic young ladies of the city.

ATTENTION COMPANY.—Company A, Home Guard is notified to meet at the room lately occupied by J. C. Yates, North side square, at 8 o'clock this evening, to consider important business connected with the procurement of arms. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

It is a noticeable fact that after every success of the Federal arms, certain professed Union papers rage and foam furiously. But if a report reach them that the Federal troops have met a reverse, at once an extra is issued to herald the delectable (to them) news, and for the next twenty-four hours they wear the most complacent smiles. Curious, isn't it?

Capt. Miller Recovering.—The host of friends of Captain Miller, who for the last few days have watched the telegraphic news with intense interest to learn his condition—hoping to hear of his convalescence, but fearing the worst—received the joyful intelligence yesterday of his certain recovery, by the following dispatch to his wife: "I am all right, except a scratch on my side, home in a few days." A "scratch" in this connection would be considered a dangerous wound by most persons, but he is undoubtedly out of danger, and it will be a short time until our citizens have the pleasure of taking the gallant Captain by the hand.—Lafayette Journal, 17th.

We have no language to express our gratification upon reading the above. The world can not well spare such men as Chris. Miller, Col. Kelly, and other men who have displayed equal devotion to the Union.

Republican papers throughout the State are making great ado over what they designate secession resolutions adopted at a "County Convention" of the Democrats in this county. The meeting was not a convention, but merely an appointment of Hon. John G. Davis for a speech. Instead of resolutions being reported from a Committee, a series was presented by a gentleman on his own responsibility, and adopted by those who remained after the speaking was over. What over sentiments they may contain, the Democratic party of the county is in no way responsible for them.—Sullivan Democrat.

The editor of the Sullivan Democrat is right. The resolutions were prepared by a private party and passed after the meeting adjourned, not more than six or ten voting, yet in the published proceedings it is said that they were unanimously adopted, and as just preceding it had been said that some fifteen hundred or two thousand were present. Is it not natural that persons not present would reasonably conclude that the whole crowd endorsed the resolutions which the editor of the Democrat says endorse secession. Yet when any one hints that John G. Davis in the remotest degree sympathizes with secession, the cry of proscription is raised. The resolution were meant to "give aid and comfort to the enemy."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dispatches by the Western Union Line.

Noon Dispatches.

The Virginia Rebels—Continued.

Through Fairfax C. H.—The Rebels Grow Animated.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement has been received at the War Department. It does not differ from the other accounts published. It appears the Artillery and Cavalry moved through Fairfax at a gallop, in chase of the Confederate troops, following them for four miles, as far as Centerville. It is understood Centerville will be defended by the rebels.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Rebels' march at one o'clock, says all the enemies works in the neighborhood of Fairfax as far as Centerville, were attacked. Meeting with no response, the batteries were easily surrounded, and the rebels cleared of the trees which had been felled, delaying the advance but a few minutes.

At a step hill there were stationed two hundred rebel cavalry, who, without waiting to ascertain the position of the advancing force, fled at the first approach of our skirmishers.

They found a fortification about half a mile from the Court House, consisting of a simple entrenchment, the front of which was about four hundred yards on each side of the road. It was pierced for eight guns. This had been occupied for about three weeks by the 21st and 34th South Carolina Regiments, under Gen. Col. Maitland with four hundred men and Gen. Harris with a force estimated at one thousand. Six of the Federals were killed. Eight Confederates were killed and two hundred taken prisoners. The Rebels were completely routed from Fairfax station.

Later and more reliable accounts from Fairfax state that twelve of McDowell's force were wounded, including a Colonel's body servant. Mr. Nichols of Fairfax is known to have been killed on the part of the Rebels. Only the advance guard of the Federal forces were in the engagement and were fired on from an ambush. The Rebels then fled and some of them were seen afterwards quietly at work in their fields as though nothing had happened.

Gen. Harris was not in the fight but looking on at a safe distance.

LATER.—An official dispatch from Colonel McDowell states that he had not been completely routed. Our loss is twelve wounded. Harris' force is considerably diminished.

Later from the Virginia Rebels.—The F. F. V. make Excellent Time.

SANGERS STATION on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, eighteen miles from Alexandria, July 17.—We have been the enemy living before us but in consequence of the eagerness of the march and owing to the heavy guns that we have carried along, they have succeeded in making their escape without a fight.

We have now full possession of the Railroad as far as this Station.

FAIRFAX STATION.—We have taken Fairfax Station with eleven prisoners. A large number of infantry and some horsemen fled over towards the left and Franklin can intercept them.

We have a flag and a caisson.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this A. M.—She brings £110,000 in specie.

An influential deputation relative to the suppression of the African slave trade, had an interview with Lord John Russell and the Duke of Devonshire. Both concurred generally with the views of the deputation, and the latter said that, in consequence of this, British settlements in Africa have been instructed to encourage commerce and the growth of cotton &c. to the utmost.

It is again asserted that the Pope's health is very serious.

There is still a want of animation in the Manchester market, but spinners have obtained a general advance of 1/4, and in some instances 1/2 per cent.

An advance is demanded on cloth and broadcloth.

The weather was unsettled and less favorable for crops.

Wheat steady at full prices, and very firm. Red 95, 64, 63 1/2. White 100, 64 1/2, 63 1/2. Corn in fair request and easier to sell. Yellow 28 1/2, 64, 63 1/2. Provision, sales at extreme rates, firm, but lower for inferior.

Pork dull, Bacon dull, and again a shade easier, at 40 1/2, 40 1/2, extreme prices.

Liverpool.—Harris & Bros. report Breadstuffs dull, but prices unchanged. Flour difficult to sell, although freely offered.

LATER.

Saturday—Commodore 59 1/2, 58 1/2. The Arabia arrived on the 7th.

Reinforcing Sewall's Point.

FR. MONROE, July 17.—Steamers from Norfolk were seen landing troops this morning at Sewall's Point, where it is apparent that formidable preparations are being made to annoy our shipping, and perhaps the Fortress itself.

There are doubtless packed batteries at Willsborough's point and opposite the Rip Raps. These preparations will, however, be ineffectual in view of the terrible engines of destruction to be brought against the rebels occupying the Fortress, in case they attempt to land there.

Sewall's Point has no strategic importance. Norfolk and Portsmouth are on the road to Richmond, but should the Confederates annoy Old Point, they will at once be routed.

Negroes escaped from Pig Point last night, report the rebels are in large force opposite Newport News.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dispatches by the Western Union Line.

Noon Dispatches.

The Virginia Rebels—Continued.

Through Fairfax C. H.—The Rebels Grow Animated.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement has been received at the War Department. It does not differ from the other accounts published. It appears the Artillery and Cavalry moved through Fairfax at a gallop, in chase of the Confederate troops, following them for four miles, as far as Centerville. It is understood Centerville will be defended by the rebels.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Rebels' march at one o'clock, says all the enemies works in the neighborhood of Fairfax as far as Centerville, were attacked. Meeting with no response, the batteries were easily surrounded, and the rebels cleared of the trees which had been felled, delaying the advance but a few minutes.

At a step hill there were stationed two hundred rebel cavalry, who, without waiting to ascertain the position of the advancing force, fled at the first approach of our skirmishers.

They found a fortification about half a mile from the Court House, consisting of a simple entrenchment, the front of which was about four hundred yards on each side of the road. It was pierced for eight guns. This had been occupied for about three weeks by the 21st and 34th South Carolina Regiments, under Gen. Col. Maitland with four hundred men and Gen. Harris with a force estimated at one thousand. Six of the Federals were killed. Eight Confederates were killed and two hundred taken prisoners. The Rebels were completely routed from Fairfax station.

Later and more reliable accounts from Fairfax state that twelve of McDowell's force were wounded, including a Colonel's body servant. Mr. Nichols of Fairfax is known to have been killed on the part of the Rebels. Only the advance guard of the Federal forces were in the engagement and were fired on from an ambush. The Rebels then fled and some of them were seen afterwards quietly at work in their fields as though nothing had happened.

Gen. Harris was not in the fight but looking on at a safe distance.

LATER.—An official dispatch from Colonel McDowell states that he had not been completely routed. Our loss is twelve wounded. Harris' force is considerably diminished.

Later from the Virginia Rebels.—The F. F. V. make Excellent Time.

SANGERS STATION on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, eighteen miles from Alexandria, July 17.—We have been the enemy living before us but in consequence of the eagerness of the march and owing to the heavy guns that we have carried along, they have succeeded in making their escape without a fight.

We have now full possession of the Railroad as far as this Station.

FAIRFAX STATION.—We have taken Fairfax Station with eleven prisoners. A large number of infantry and some horsemen fled over towards the left and Franklin can intercept them.

We have a flag and a caisson.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this A. M.—She brings £110,000 in specie.

An influential deputation relative to the suppression of the African slave trade, had an interview with Lord John Russell and the Duke of Devonshire. Both concurred generally with the views of the deputation, and the latter said that, in consequence of this, British settlements in Africa have been instructed to encourage commerce and the growth of cotton &c. to the utmost.

It is again asserted that the Pope's health is very serious.

There is still a want of animation in the Manchester market, but spinners have obtained a general advance of 1/4, and in some instances 1/2 per cent.

An advance is demanded on cloth and broadcloth.

The weather was unsettled and less favorable for crops.

Wheat steady at full prices, and very firm. Red 95, 64, 63 1/2. White 100, 64 1/2, 63 1/2. Corn in fair request and easier to sell. Yellow 28 1/2, 64, 63 1/2. Provision, sales at extreme rates, firm, but lower for inferior.

Pork dull, Bacon dull, and again a shade easier, at 40 1/2, 40 1/2, extreme prices.

Liverpool.—Harris & Bros. report Breadstuffs dull, but prices unchanged. Flour difficult to sell, although freely offered.

LATER.

Saturday—Commodore 59 1/2, 58 1/2. The Arabia arrived on the 7th.

Reinforcing Sewall's Point.

FR. MONROE, July 17.—Steamers from Norfolk were seen landing troops this morning at Sewall's Point, where it is apparent that formidable preparations are being made to annoy our shipping, and perhaps the Fortress itself.

There are doubtless packed batteries at Willsborough's point and opposite the Rip Raps. These preparations will, however, be ineffectual in view of the terrible engines of destruction to be brought against the rebels occupying the Fortress, in case they attempt to land there.

Sewall's Point has no strategic importance. Norfolk and Portsmouth are on the road to Richmond, but should the Confederates annoy Old Point, they will at once be routed.

Negroes escaped from Pig Point last night, report the rebels are in large force opposite Newport News.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dispatches by the Western Union Line.

Noon Dispatches.

The Virginia Rebels—Continued.

Through Fairfax C. H.—The Rebels Grow Animated.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement has been received at the War Department. It does not differ from the other accounts published. It appears the Artillery and Cavalry moved through Fairfax at a gallop, in chase of the Confederate troops, following them for four miles, as far as Centerville. It is understood Centerville will be defended by the rebels.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Rebels' march at one o'clock, says all the enemies works in the neighborhood of Fairfax as far as Centerville, were attacked. Meeting with no response, the batteries were easily surrounded, and the rebels cleared of the trees which had been felled, delaying the advance but a few minutes.

At a step hill there were stationed two hundred rebel cavalry, who, without waiting to ascertain the position of the advancing force, fled at the first approach of our skirmishers.

They found a fortification about half a mile from the Court House, consisting of a simple entrenchment, the front of which was about four hundred yards on each side of the road. It was pierced for eight guns. This had been occupied for about three weeks by the 21st and 34th South Carolina Regiments, under Gen. Col. Maitland with four hundred men and Gen. Harris with a force estimated at one thousand. Six of the Federals were killed. Eight Confederates were killed and two hundred taken prisoners. The Rebels were completely routed from Fairfax station.

Later and more reliable accounts from Fairfax state that twelve of McDowell's force were wounded, including a Colonel's body servant. Mr. Nichols of Fairfax is known to have been killed on the part of the Rebels. Only the advance guard of the Federal forces were in the engagement and were fired on from an ambush. The Rebels then fled and some of them were seen afterwards quietly at work in their fields as though nothing had happened.

Gen. Harris was not in the fight but looking on at a safe distance.

LATER.—An official dispatch from Colonel McDowell states that he had not been completely routed. Our loss is twelve wounded. Harris' force is considerably diminished.

Later from the Virginia Rebels.—The F. F. V. make Excellent Time.

SANGERS STATION on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, eighteen miles from Alexandria, July 17.—We have been the enemy living before us but in consequence of the eagerness of the march and owing to the heavy guns that we have carried along, they have succeeded in making their escape without a fight.

We have now full possession of the Railroad as far as this Station.

FAIRFAX STATION.—We have taken Fairfax Station with eleven prisoners. A large number of infantry and some horsemen fled over towards the left and Franklin can intercept them.

We have a flag and a caisson.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this A. M.—She brings £110,000 in specie.

An influential deputation relative to the suppression of the African slave trade, had an interview with Lord John Russell and the Duke of Devonshire. Both concurred generally with the views of the deputation, and the latter said that, in consequence of this, British settlements in Africa have been instructed to encourage commerce and the growth of cotton &c. to the utmost.

It is again asserted that the Pope's health is very serious.

There is still a want of animation in the Manchester market, but spinners have obtained a general advance of 1/4, and in some instances 1/2 per cent.

An advance is demanded on cloth and broadcloth.

The weather was unsettled and less favorable for crops.

Wheat steady at full prices, and very firm. Red 95, 64, 63 1/2. White 100, 64 1/2, 63 1/2. Corn in fair request and easier to sell. Yellow 28 1/2, 64, 63 1/2. Provision, sales at extreme rates, firm, but lower for inferior.

Pork dull, Bacon dull, and again a shade easier, at 40 1/2, 40 1/2, extreme prices.

Liverpool.—Harris & Bros. report Breadstuffs dull, but prices unchanged. Flour difficult to sell, although freely offered.

LATER.

Saturday—Commodore 59 1/2, 58 1/2. The Arabia arrived on the 7th.

Reinforcing Sewall's Point.

FR. MONROE, July 17.—Steamers from Norfolk were seen landing troops this morning at Sewall's Point, where it is apparent that formidable preparations are being made to annoy our shipping, and perhaps the Fortress itself.

There are doubtless packed batteries at Willsborough's point and opposite the Rip Raps. These preparations will, however, be ineffectual in view of the terrible engines of destruction to be brought against the rebels occupying the Fortress, in case they attempt to land there.

Sewall's Point has no strategic importance. Norfolk and Portsmouth are on the road to Richmond, but should the Confederates annoy Old Point, they will at once be routed.

Negroes escaped from Pig Point last night, report the rebels are in large force opposite Newport News.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dispatches by the Western Union Line.

Noon Dispatches.

The Virginia Rebels—Continued.

Through Fairfax C. H.—The Rebels Grow Animated.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement has been received at the War Department. It does not differ from the other accounts published. It appears the Artillery and Cavalry moved through Fairfax at a gallop, in chase of the Confederate troops, following them for four miles, as far as Centerville. It is understood Centerville will be defended by the rebels.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Rebels' march at one o'clock, says all the enemies works in the neighborhood of Fairfax as far as Centerville, were attacked. Meeting with no response, the batteries were easily surrounded, and the rebels cleared of the trees which had been felled, delaying the advance but a few minutes.

At a step hill there were stationed two hundred rebel cavalry, who, without waiting to ascertain the position of the advancing force, fled at the first approach of our skirmishers.

They found a fortification about half a mile from the Court House, consisting of a simple entrenchment, the front of which was about four hundred yards on each side of the road. It was pierced for eight guns. This had been occupied for about three weeks by the 21st and 34th South Carolina Regiments, under Gen. Col. Maitland with four hundred men and Gen. Harris with a force estimated at one thousand. Six of the Federals were killed. Eight Confederates were killed and two hundred taken prisoners. The Rebels were completely routed from Fairfax station.

Later and more reliable accounts from Fairfax state that twelve of McDowell's force were wounded, including a Colonel's body servant. Mr. Nichols of Fairfax is known to have been killed on the part of the Rebels. Only the advance guard of the Federal forces were in the engagement and were fired on from an ambush. The Rebels then fled and some of them were seen afterwards quietly at work in their fields as though nothing had happened.

Gen. Harris was not in the fight but looking on at a safe distance.

LATER.—An official dispatch from Colonel McDowell states that he had not been completely routed. Our loss is twelve wounded. Harris' force is considerably diminished.

Later from the Virginia Rebels.—The F. F. V. make Excellent Time.

SANGERS STATION on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, eighteen miles from Alexandria, July 17.—We have been the enemy living before us but in consequence of the eagerness of the march and owing to the heavy guns that we have carried along, they have succeeded in making their escape without a fight.

We have now full possession of the Railroad as far as this Station.

FAIRFAX STATION.—We have taken Fairfax Station with eleven prisoners. A large number of infantry and some horsemen fled over towards the left and Franklin can intercept them.

We have a flag and a caisson.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this A. M.—She brings £110,000 in specie.

An influential deputation relative to the suppression of the African slave trade, had an interview with Lord John Russell and the Duke of Devonshire. Both concurred generally with the views of the deputation, and the latter said that, in consequence of this, British settlements in Africa have been instructed to encourage commerce and the growth of cotton &c. to the utmost.

It is again asserted that the Pope's health is very serious.

There is still a want of animation in the Manchester market, but spinners have obtained a general advance of 1/4, and in some instances 1/2 per cent.

An advance is demanded on cloth and broadcloth.

The weather was unsettled and less favorable for crops.

Wheat steady at full prices, and very firm. Red 95, 64, 63 1/2. White 100, 64 1/2, 63 1/2. Corn in fair request and easier to sell. Yellow 28 1/2, 64, 63 1/2. Provision, sales at extreme rates, firm, but lower for inferior.

Pork dull, Bacon dull, and again a shade easier, at 40 1/2, 40 1/2, extreme prices.

Liverpool.—Harris & Bros. report Breadstuffs dull, but prices unchanged. Flour difficult to sell, although freely offered.

LATER.

Saturday—Commodore 59 1/2, 58 1/2. The Arabia arrived on the 7th.

Reinforcing Sewall's Point.

FR. MONROE, July 17.—Steamers from Norfolk were seen landing troops this morning at Sewall's Point, where it is apparent that formidable preparations are being made to annoy our shipping, and perhaps the Fortress itself.

There are doubtless packed batteries at Willsborough's point and opposite the Rip Raps. These preparations will, however, be ineffectual in view of the terrible engines of destruction to be brought against the rebels occupying the Fortress, in case they attempt to land there.

Sewall's Point has no strategic importance. Norfolk and Portsmouth are on the road to Richmond, but should the Confederates annoy Old Point, they will at once be routed.

Negroes escaped from Pig Point last night, report the rebels are in large force opposite Newport News.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Dispatches by the Western Union Line.

Noon Dispatches.

The Virginia Rebels—Continued.

Through Fairfax C. H.—The Rebels Grow Animated.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Gen. McDowell's official account of his forward movement has been received at the War Department. It does not differ from the other accounts published. It appears the Artillery and Cavalry moved through Fairfax at a gallop, in chase of the Confederate troops, following them for four miles, as far as Centerville. It is understood Centerville will be defended by the rebels.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The Rebels' march at one o'clock, says all the enemies works in the neighborhood of Fairfax as far as Centerville, were attacked. Meeting with no response, the batteries were easily surrounded, and the rebels cleared of the trees which had been felled, delaying the advance but a few minutes.

At a step hill there were stationed two hundred rebel cavalry, who, without waiting to ascertain the position of the advancing force, fled at the first approach of our skirmishers.

They found a fortification about half a mile from the Court House, consisting of a simple entrenchment, the front of which was about four hundred yards on each side of the road. It was pierced for eight guns. This had been occupied for about three weeks by the 21st and 34th South Carolina Regiments, under Gen. Col. Maitland with four hundred men and Gen. Harris with a force estimated at one thousand. Six of the Federals were killed. Eight Confederates were killed and two hundred taken prisoners. The Rebels were completely routed from Fairfax station.

Later and more reliable accounts from Fairfax state that twelve of McDowell's force were wounded, including a Colonel's body servant. Mr. Nichols of Fairfax is known to have been killed on the part of the Rebels. Only the advance guard of the Federal forces were in the engagement and were fired on from an ambush. The Rebels then fled and some of them were seen afterwards quietly at work in their fields as though nothing had happened.

Gen. Harris was not in the fight but looking on at a safe distance.

LATER.—An official dispatch from Colonel McDowell states that he had not been completely routed. Our loss is twelve wounded. Harris' force is considerably diminished.

Later from the Virginia Rebels.—The F. F. V. make Excellent Time.

SANGERS STATION on the line of the Orange and Alexandria Railroad, eighteen miles from Alexandria, July 17.—We have been the enemy living before us but in consequence of the eagerness of the march and owing to the heavy guns that we have carried along, they have succeeded in making their escape without a fight.

We have now full possession of the Railroad as far as this Station.

FAIRFAX STATION.—We have taken Fairfax Station with eleven prisoners. A large number of infantry and some horsemen fled over towards the left and Franklin can intercept them.

We have a flag and a caisson.

Arrival of the Asia.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Asia, from Liverpool on the 6th, and Queenstown on the 7th, arrived here at 3 o'clock this A. M.—She brings £110,000 in specie.

An influential deputation relative to the suppression of the African slave trade, had an interview with Lord John Russell and the Duke of Devonshire. Both concurred generally with the views of the deputation, and the latter said that, in consequence of this, British settlements in Africa have been instructed to encourage commerce and the growth of cotton &c. to the utmost.

It is again asserted that the Pope's health is very serious.