

A little cousin
of the Kodaks

No. 2A Folding BROWNIE

No mere toy, but a thoroughly dependable camera, simple enough for a school boy, good enough for an expert.

It offers a most convenient, inexpensive means for making 2½ x 4¼ pictures the all-by-daylight way.

Price, $7.00

Kodak catalogue free at your dealer's or mailed on request.

Eastman Kodak Company
Rochester, N. Y. The Kodak City

EDGEWOOD.

Mr. Gorda Robinson and wife were in town last week from Waterloo, visiting relatives.

Mrs. John Peet was a business caller in Elkader recently.

There are about 200 pupils enrolled in our school this year. Manual Training, Domestic Science and Agriculture are added this year.

Mr. Henderson was in Strawberry Point on business last Tuesday.

Miss Gena Minkler left last week for Council Bluffs to pursue her school duties.

V. J. Coolidge and family autoed to Guttenburg a week ago Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Waldo left last week for Dickens, Iowa, where she teaches again.

Harry Wilfong was a caller in Delaware last Sunday.

Mr. Frank Wiley is having a seige of blood poisoning in his hand.

A. J. Arthur and daughter are at home, after a couple of weeks visit in Illinois.

Mrs. Hamlet of Kansas, is visiting relatives here.

Harry Martin is in Lamont working on the new garage that is being erected there.

Mrs. Combs and daughter came home last week from Denver, where they have spent several weeks with the former's daughter.

Miss Jennie Forward is teaching again at Riceville.

Mrs. H. J. Barr visited her sister, in Manchester most of last week.

The Epworth League had a social at the Alger home Tuesday night.

Dr. and Mrs. Hanson and daughter, Helen, visited friends at Red Oak last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robison were callers in Manchester last Wednesday.

Geo. Flemming was in Dubuque the first of the week, attending an interstate telephone meeting.

The Royal Neighbors served a chicken dinner in the Woodman hall last Saturday.

Miss Zelda Farmer went over to Elkader last week, where she teaches again in the public school.

Mrs. L. B. Blanchard was in Strawberry Point last Friday.

Miss Angie Bixby visited friends at Winnebago last week.

Dr. Howard of Strawberry Point, was a professional caller here last Friday.

P. Wandell was in South Dakota last week looking after his farm interests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Forward spent Sunday in Scotch Grove.

Mrs. Henry Hilsenbeck was up from Greeley Saturday.

Henry Wiley is attending school at Des Moines.

Mrs. John Lawson of Greeley, spent Saturday with her cousin, Mrs. Breed.

Arthur Coder of Beloit, Kansas, is making his home with his aunt, Mrs. Frank Jones, and attending school here.

Jack Stone was near Aberdeen, S. Dakota, last week, looking at land.

Mr. Cocking and family enjoyed an automobile trip to Milwaukee recently.

Mrs. S. V. Hubbell of Manchester, is visiting relatives in Edgewood.

The Shaffer brothers and their families enjoyed a week outing at Bixby's Park.

Pat Baxter and Henry Bagby were callers in Waterloo last Thursday.

Leon Jones and his mother came home Wednesday from their western trip.

Mrs. Pilkington spent last Tuesday and Wednesday with her son, George, and wife in Strawberry Pt.

Ed Fritz went up to Strawberry Point last Thursday.

Andrew Hesner came home Wednesday from Texas, where he has worked all summer.

The Ladies Aid had a quilting at the Roland Steifer home last Thursday.

George Pilkington and wife came down from the Point last Friday and remained over Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. George Glazier was a caller in Strawberry Point last Friday.

Miss Sophia Shug of Strawberry Point, was in town several days last week.

Robert Cole visited his sister, Mrs. Flenniken, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Hubbell spent last Tuesday in Greeley.

Miss Elizabeth Madison of Fayette visited recently in the C. B. Madison home.

MONTI.

Rev. John Riley of Elkader, was an over Sunday visitor with his brother, Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Turley autoed to Rowley one day last week.

Miss Ethel Chandler visited her friend, Miss Mathrona Donnelly, at Coggon, part of last week.

Mrs. Ed Ney of Winthrop, visited her sister, Mrs. S. Evans, last week.

Misses Josie Morney and Katie Loughren spent a few days last week at Coggon with Mrs. Jas. Keegan.

Mr. Dennis Crowe transacted business in Manchester one day last week.

Miss May Monaghan and brother, Francis, visited at Lawrence Colton, near Ryan, one day last week.

Several from here attended the picnic at Masonville, Manchester, Coggon and Winthrop Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. All present reported an enjoyable time.

Mrs. M. Morney is visiting relatives at Wadena, Minn., this week.

Dennis Baragary and Pat Evans autoed to Independence Wednesday.

Mr. Peter Meath of New Richmond, Wis., is visiting relatives south of here this week.

Mrs. Martin Ryan of Lamont, and children are visiting at the Mike Gaff ney home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Devlin transacted business in Cedar Rapids recently.

Ed Devlin, John Baragary and Vincent O'Brien called on relatives near Coggon one day last week.

Miss Maggie Lawless, of Philadelphia, Penn., is visiting friends here.

Thomas Burke, Sr., won first prize, $10, on the colt show at the Harvest Home at Coggon, Friday. Joe Coleman got second prize, $5.

On last Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock at St. Patrick's church occurred the marriage of Miss Myra Davies and John Evan and Genevieve Baragary and Joe McDonald, Rev O'Donnell performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Evans wore a white taffeta dress and a large white hat, and carried a bouquet of roses. Mrs. McDonald wore a lace net dress over silk and wore a wreath and veil.

Both the brides traveling suits were blue. Mr. and Mrs. Evans departed that morning for St. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, after a wedding dinner at the bride's home, left for different parts in S. Dakota, that evening.

Both couples are young people of this vicinity and have the best wishes of all their friends.

COLESBURG

Miss Harriett Krumpel will be hostess to the Twentieth Century Club at its next meeting—Sept. 21.

Mrs. L. W. Maxwell and children returned to Turkey River Thursday, concluding a pleasant visit of a week.

Miss Lois Irmischer is to attend school at Earlville this year.

Misses Estella Klaus and Florence Roling are teaching the school in the Klaus district.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown departed the first of the week for Dell Rapids, S. Dakota, to spend a fortnight with their daughter, Mrs. John Cropp, and family.

Ralph Kocher reported a Des Moines Tuesday for the purpose of joining the Naval Reserves.

Mrs. A. W. Rea is reported a trifle better.

Come out Saturday September 18, to the basement of the M. E. church and enjoy a good supper, served by the Aid Society. Members of the society are requested to meet early for the transaction of important business.

Rev. O. J. Felter has gone to Dubuque to attend the Upper Iowa conference. Mrs. Felter and baby, Mae, will spend the time with her mother and sister at Edgewood. It is expected that Rev. Felter will be returned to the work here.

Mrs. S. G. Walker and baby, Geo., were Dyersville callers Thursday.

Mrs. M. E. Dittmer is the lay delegate to the General Conference, with Miss Mary May, alternate.

Edgar Dittmer went to Ames the first of the week, where he is to be a student at the Agricultural college.

Mrs. M. A. Hodges is at home from a sojourn with her son, and family, at Oelwein. She reports little Erma Sick much better.

W. H. Bush appears to be on the gain, though still unable to get about.

GREELEY.

Peter Swenson is a guest at the J. C. Heckaday home.

Rev. Mr. Alexander and Fred Holbert were in Chicago last week to purchase the new furniture for the M. E. church.

Miss Della Cox of Oneida was a guest at the M. E. parsonage on Sunday.

Miss Arlie Young and aunt were entertained at the E. A. Lang home Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Alexander went to Dubuque the first of the week to attend conference. It is the earnest wish of his entire congregation that he will return to Greeley for his third year. Mr. Alexander is a most able minister and Greeley will be very fortunate in procuring him for another year.

Lincoln Odell and wife were Sunday guests at the home of Clinton Culbertson.

Mrs. John Lawson and Mrs. Hubbell were Edgewood visitors Saturday.

Charles Garlow and family of Colesburg visited at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. W. A. Funk, Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Odell spent Sunday with Mrs. Ernest Ridgeway.

Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and daughter, were in Edgewood, Saturday.

Dr. Dittmer was called from Manchester, to see Miss Josie Goldsworthy who is quite ill.

Mrs. Vernon O'Neal of Edgewood, visited her sister, Mrs. Park Taylor, recently.

Ed Lang of Strawberry Point, was a business visitor in Greeley, Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Baker and G. L. Baker and family were dinner guests at the A. Holbert home, Sunday.

Mr. Tom Holbert started for California, Friday. He will visit at the home of his uncle, Louis Baker, at Salt Lake and attend the exposition.

W. A. Lang, wife and son, Fred, and Miss Dittmer were entertained at the Park Taylor home for dinner, Sunday.

Mrs. A. C. Marcham was a Strawberry Point visitor Friday.

Mrs. W. A. Brown spent Friday in Edgewood, with her son, Paul and family.

L. M. Scheamm was in Manchester on business, Saturday.

Gilbert Wall and wife and Mrs. Fred Wall of Oneida, spent Sunday at the Rudy Moser home. Mrs. Fred Wall remained for a few days visit.

Mrs. W. A. Kresensky entertained a number of gentlemen at a six o'clock dinner, Sunday evening in honor of the doctor's birthday.

Miss Florence Sawyer is boarding at Rudy Moser's and attending school in Greeley.

Mr. Van Busker of Canada, spent last week with his niece, Mrs. Henry Hilsenbeck.

Mrs. Henry Hilsenbeck and daughter, Maxine, were in Edgewood, Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. Reddin is expected to come soon to visit her daughter, Mrs. H. Drybread.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Robison, of Monrovia, Calif., are visiting at the H. Drybread and John Young homes.

Miss Lewis of Illinois, spent Sunday in Greeley, the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. C. Matthews. Miss Lewis will teach in the Earlville school the coming year.

Mrs. John Hindal and family of Manchester were visitors at the I. C. Odell home, Thursday.

Harry Ryan and wife of Independence, were visitors at the parenta home, last week. The latter's mother, Mrs. Lizzie Odell, accompanied them home for a two days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Krueger, were in Anamosa from Friday until Monday.

Fred Krueger is at home and is on the sick list.

Henry Pilgrim and wife of Manchester and Mr. Iaskerville, of Earlville, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Pilgrim Saturday.

Lester Pilgrim and wife spent Monday with the former's mother.

Jas. Stringer who has been spending the summer at the I. C. Odell home, has returned to his home in Edgewood, to attend school.

Mrs. Bert Boehm and sister, Miss Fletcher visited at Henry Barr's in Edgewood, last week.

Henry Holthaus and wife were visitors at the Will Holthaus home, Sunday. They went to get acquainted with the new baby daughter.

Mrs. Manson is visiting relatives at Waterloo.

I. C. Odell and family were visitors at the E. J. Tyrrell home, Sunday.

Mrs. Pilgrim returned Monday from a week's visit with relatives in Manchester and Earlville.

Roy Crabb, wife and son, Jack, are here for a visit at the William Crabb home.

Frank Miller and family were dinner guests at the W. A. Brown home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Smith of Manchester, are staying a few days at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Wm. Davis, who will accompany them home for a week's visit.

Frank Miller was in Manchester, Friday, to carry the votes on the hospital question.

Martin Holtz and family and Mrs. Bert Boehm, were visitors in the parental home, Sunday.

Miss Hazel Lewis is attending school in Dubuque.

Rev. Roling, German Methodist minister of Colesburg, was a dinner guest at the Herman Kuhlman home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuhlman and son, Clarence, and Helen, were visitors at the home of their son, George, in Colesburg, Sunday.

Mrs. Jas Chase was an over Sunday visitor in Manchester.

Mrs. F. A. Irish of Hopkinton, was a guest at the W. J. Wroughton home, Monday.

Mrs. King of Hopkinton, was a visitor at the home of her sons in Greeley, Friday and Saturday.

Harold Barger and a friend of his are spending a few days in Greeley.

Fay and Lucile Taylor visited in Strawberry Point Saturday.

Miss Nelle Smith was in Edgewood over Sunday.

Mrs. Graf of Fayette, was a guest of Mrs. Eva Beckwith over Sunday.

Miss Fannie Scott of Wood, was a visitor at the John Armstrong home last week.

The Misses Whaley returned from a week's visit in Edgewood.

Mrs. Wm. Cornwell was a visitor in Edgewood, Friday.

Sam Corwell and wife were at the Frank Ball home near Almorat, one day last week.

Mrs. Ed Fisher spent several days of last week in Manchester.

Regular in O. E. S. Friday night.

Mr. Peter Swenson, representative of Hartley, was entertained at the A. B. Holbert home for dinner, Monday.

William James Goldsworthy died at his home in Greeley on Monday morning, September 6th, 1915, aged 65 years and 2 days. W. J. Goldsworthy was born at Dodgeville, Wis., Sept. 4, 1850, and at the age of eighteen months crossed the country with his parents, to California, where he remained until the age of thirteen years, at which time he went to Linden, Wis., going from there to Mineral Point, where he learned the blacksmith's trade. He then moved to Volga, Iowa, and later came to Greeley, where he remained until his death. On January 1, 1879, he was united in marriage to Miss Martha Pellemounter. To this union five children were born: W. M. of Greeley; Robert C. of Delhi; Joseph of Clear Lake, Wis., and Josie at home; one child dying in infancy. His children were with him at the time of his death. Mr. Goldsworthy was long a faithful member of the M. E. church. The deceased was a charter member of Greeley lodge, No. 418, I. O. O. F., and always held an office in the same, being financial secretary for a number of years. He was also a member of Elk Camp 148, M. W. A., and at the time of his death was Worthy Advisor. Beside the wife, children and three grandchildren, two sisters and one brother, living at Linden, Wis., are left to mourn. The funeral was held from the home on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under direction of the Odd Fellows, with a Woodman escort. Rev. Alexander, pastor of the M. E. church, delivered the funeral sermon. Bur-

Keeps Your Stove Shining Bright

Gives a brilliant glossy shine that does not rub off or dust off—that anneals to the iron—that lasts four times as long as any other.

Black Silk Stove Polish

Is in a class by itself. It's more carefully made and made from better materials. Try it on your parlor stove, your cook stove, your range, your heater, your ironing board, your washboard, your tub, your sink, your bathtub, your toilet, your mirror, your glass, your silver, your brass, your copper, your tin, your wood, your leather, your shoes, your hats, your coats, your dresses, your children's clothes, your furniture, your floors, your walls, your ceilings, your windows, your doors, your screens, your curtains, your carpets, your rugs, your mats, your towels, your linens, your bed linen, your table linen, your kitchen linen, your bathroom linen, your laundry, your household, your business, your pleasure, your health, your wealth, your happiness, your life.

There's "A Shine in Every Drop"

Get a Can TODAY

ial was made in Grant View.

Mrs. Martha C. Batterton was born in Wisconsin, March 28, 1840, coming to Iowa at the age of five years. She was married twice, first to Mr. Washburn. To this union one son was born, John Washburn, living near Greeley. After the death of Mr. Washburn, she was married to Mr. Batterton, in 1866. To this union 4 sons were born: Lee, who left home 20 years ago, and whose whereabouts is unknown; Chas., who died a few years ago; Ed, of Dyersville, and Melvin, of Lansing. Mrs. Batterton moved to Dyersville, only a short time ago and rented a house, living by herself. She was taken ill on Monday, with heart trouble, and died Friday. The funeral was held at Earlville Sunday afternoon, interment being made in the cemetery at that place. Although Mrs. Batterton was not a church member, she was a very kind lady and did many deeds of charity. Those who attended the funeral from Greeley, were: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Miller, W. A. Brown, John Washburn, Mrs. Rizer, George Hunter and the Misses Addie and Minnie Hunter and Helen Washburn.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD.

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly; No Other Newspaper in the World Gives so Much at so Low a Price.

The year 1914 has been the most extraordinary in the history of modern times. It has witnessed the outbreak of the great European war, a struggle so titanic that it makes all others look small.

You live in momentous times, and you should not miss any of the tremendous events that are occurring. No other newspaper will inform you so promptly and low cost of the Thrice-A-Week edition of the New York World. Moreover, a year's subscription to it will take you far into our next Presidential campaign. The Thrice-A-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and The Manchester Democrat together for one year for $2.15.

Plastering

And general repair work in my line.

All my work is guaranteed to be satisfactory.

C. K. Barnd & Son
Manchester

Telephone 3½ on 18

Manchester Flour Mills

We have an expert miller in charge of the mills. Try the whole wheat flour he is making. It is head and shoulders above other flours in health, strength and happiness. Anything you may need in the line of mill products we shall be glad to take it up with you and will try to serve you to the best of our ability.

B. B. Duke, in charge of mill
Jos. Hutchinson. Prop.
City Phone No. 110

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

E. W. SEELEY
Register Optometrist. By State Board of Optometry examiners.

E. M. Carr, Hubert Carr, CARR & CARR, ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Special attention given collections. Real estate loans and insurance. Office in Post Office Building, Manchester, Iowa.

ARNOLD & ARNOLD
ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office over Delaware County State Bank, Manchester, Iowa.

YORAN & YORAN.
ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office in First National Bank Building, Main Street, Manchester, Iowa.

THEODORE SHELLEY.
LICENSED UNDERTAKER AND Embalmer. Telephone, office 494; residence, 539, Manchester, Iowa.

DORMAN BROS.
DENTISTS. Office on Franklin street north of the Globe hotel, Manchester, Iowa. Dental Surgery in all its branches. Make frequent visits to neighboring towns. Always at office on Saturday.

GEO. S. LISTER
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE. All collections given prompt attention. Real estate loans and insurance. Office City Hall Block, Second floor.

THOS. T. CARKEE
ARCHITECT AND BUILDER SUPERINTENDANT. S. E. corner 8th and Main streets, Dubuque, Iowa.

Royal Grinders

TOOL GRINDERS have replaced the old fashioned grindstone and oilstones. Every mechanic should have one of these grinders. The ROYAL is equipped with an attachment for sickle grinding which fills the bill for the farmer. Let us demonstrate this machine to you. The price is so small that you cannot afford to take the time to grind your tools in the old fashioned way. The price of this machine is $6.50.

Hutchinson & Atwater

School Book Headquarters

Be ready when the bell rings with

School Books
Tablets
Pencils
Erasers
Rulers
Pens, etc.,

We have a complete assortment and solicit your patronage.

A. C. Philipp.

Central Pharmacy.

Cement. . .

Those who are contemplating putting in new barn floors or hog house floors should replace the old board floors with

Chicago AA Cement

Come in and see us before buying.

F. B. JOHNSON, "The Home of Quality and Service."

Telephone 171

'15-16 Announcement

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective Aug. 1, 1915:

Ford Runabout $390.
Ford Touring Car $440.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to August 1st, 1916.

FORD MOTOR COMPANY, Detroit.

On August 1, 1915 the factory had 140,000 orders left unfilled. Place your order for a FORD Early to insure prompt delivery.

On display and sale at

J. M. JONES & SONS Manchester

FRED B. BLAIR
Lawyer, general practice. Probating Estates Specialty. Office in First National Bank Building, Main St.

C. K. READING, ARCHITECT.
Plans and specifications on all kinds of work. Office, 808 East Union Street, Manchester, Iowa.