

NOTICE.

Those of our advertisers who desire change made in their advertisements must hand in copy on Monday morning next.

All communications, either of an editorial or business character, should be addressed to H. W. CAMPBELL, Editor, at the Interior Journal, No. 100 West Main Street, Louisville, Ky.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

Our subscribers are respectfully notified that we are not responsible for the contents of any advertisement published in our columns, unless it is signed by the advertiser.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Corn cutting is the order of the day.

Read the live stock markets, but don't get frightened.

See the important Executive notice in another column.

As we go to press, news reaches us of the death of Mr. R. P. Worsham.

Sportsmen are having fine times now. The birds are full of wild pigeons.

Read the advertisements of clubs of ten from now until January 1st.

A good deal of mighty interesting reading in our advertising columns this week.

The personal property of J. Cam. Hays is advertised for sale on Tuesday October 15th.

Folk are still leaving here on every morning train for the Exposition at Louisville.

We publish on our outside page this week the appointments made by the Methodist Conference at Harrodsburg.

R. C. Warren, assistant Editor for Greeley and Brown, will address the people of Harrodsburg on Saturday at 10 o'clock.

Two additional suits for defamation of character were filed in our circuit court this week, for the October term. Lives times ahead.

On the 26th of October, 1872, Fort Logan was finished—hence, on that day, next month one hundred years will have rolled away since its erection.

The sale of the personal estate of Samuel Holmes, deceased, will take place at his late residence today (Friday).

A general change in our advertising columns, in this week's issue, delayed us a few hours this morning. We hope our Western subscribers will excuse us.

We have received during the past week several interesting letters from various parts of the country containing in many of them the glad news, "Here's your two dollars."

"Fish of one and flesh of another" is verified as a true maxim, when an Express Company refuse to ship a "pup" for John Smith, but carry a dog directly for Bill Jones.

Mr. Palmer directs us to say that he will open this school on next Monday, and hopes that all who expect to attend will begin with the opening of the school. He and his excellent wife arrived in our town on Wednesday last.

It may not be generally known that G. L. Merriam, at S. D. Myers' shop, is prepared to bottom with cane in the very best manner all kinds of chairs. This is certainly a blessing to the community.

We are informed that one of our young gentlemen, Joe H. Craig, had the honor of clapping the hand of Mr. Greeley the other day. The chickens need to trouble themselves to roost high as far as Johnnie is concerned. He is assuredly an honest man.

Col. Roy Stuart placed on exhibition at our office the other day several acres of white corn, one of which has 980 grains, and measures 8 1/2 inches in circumference. The others are fully 15 inches in length. If any of our farmers desire seed corn, of the variety they should buy from Uncle Roy.

We are exceedingly gratified to announce that the indications are that we will be compelled to drop but few of our subscribers for non-payment of dues. Those we drop will find their accounts in the hands of patient officers, who will perhaps wait, and perhaps not.

The Courier Journal credits the "Standard Journal" with a burlesque court scene at Crab Orchard. We hasten to deny the allegation and defy the allegation. Such slanderous communications always find a comfortable lodgment in our waste basket.

The Kentucky Library drawing will take place to-morrow. It is said that 75,000 tickets have been sold. The capital prize will be about $75,000. The trouble is, we don't know what to do with so much money, unless we make the INTERIOR JOURNAL a daily.

We will publish next week an interesting letter from California, written by a gentleman who left this country in 1849 and located in Solano county, and has been for the past twenty years engaged in horticulture. We will also have in a few days a whole lot of specimens of California fruits, which our friend has kindly expressed to us. Judge M. J. Durbin and Thomas Hunter are especially requested to call and see and taste it.

Military. Mrs. Little Beazley, Mrs. M. Myers, and Mrs. T. T. Davies, representing representatives of three first-class military establishments left our town on Tuesday last for the city markets, where they will purchase extensive stocks of goods. No town can boast of three more intelligent, more tasty and more competent ladies who follow this respectable and indispensable avocation. Visit Stanford next week, ladies if you desire to see something new.

The Wagon Line. A company of gentlemen propose to run from Nicholasville, the terminus of the Kentucky Central Railroad, to this place, a line of heavy road-wagons, every other day, for the purpose of transporting such goods as may be purchased in the city of Cincinnati, by our merchants and others. This plan is deemed necessary, in order to enable our merchants to get their goods promptly at rates lower than the present rates over the route via Louisville. We cannot see or calculate how it is that the L. & N. R. R. will not furnish transportation so rapidly and cheaply, as this wagon line from Nicholasville.

New Stage Line. We take pleasure in directing attention to the advertisement of R. W. Newland & Co. in this issue. We can assure the traveling public that their facilities for transporting passengers from this place to Somerset are strictly first-class. And as for a careful and accommodating driver, Lark Edge stands without a rival. He is strictly the right man in the right place, and in more than one respect the "flower of the youth."

Tower Palace. We republish in our paper of to-day the conspicuous advertisement of J. M. Armstrong's great "Tower Palace" of clothing, 100 West Main Street, Louisville, Kentucky. Mr. A's establishment is one of the features of the city. It is certainly the largest and finest clothing store in the South-west. His fall and winter stock is now open and embraces men's, youth's, boys' and children's clothing, ranging in size from three years to men of largest proportions. The assortment is immense and we would especially recommend our friends when visiting Louisville to call at "Tower Palace" for anything else than to see the handsome and most extensive clothing house in the State. We take pleasure in stating that our friend C. Bartlett, formerly the efficient Life Insurance agent and so well known to our citizens, is now employed at Mr. Armstrong's magnificent establishment.

FROM PULASKI COUNTY.

SOMERSON, KY., Sept. 23, 1872.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

RAIL ROAD AND POLITICS.

There has been quite a calm in our town since the fair, and it is a pleasant surprise to our people the advancing railroad through our county, and informed them, rather indirectly, that all kinds of donations would be thankfully received; such as money, tea, rock, sand or dirt. Our citizens have been made to believe that Cincinnati would not ask for donations; and why should we, when Mr. Brown says that the wealth of Louisville, compared with that of Cincinnati, is but a mere speck. However, our citizens have already given the right of way, and will do anything else that is right and proper for them to do in the premises.

R. C. WARREN.

Auditor General and Brown Electric, had but a small crowd to hear his speech in our town on Monday last, it being county day with several interesting cases before his honor Judge Zachary, in the nature of habeas corpus, applications for writs, etc.

Mr. Warren, although a young man, is an able and profound speaker, and a clever and confident debater. He is doing his best to serve the interests of our district. While with us he made many acquaintances and friends and left such an impression as will do much toward his future success.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Commenced here this morning with a very small docket. Should our criminals not be tried, our term will be of short duration.

OUR FAIR.

The stockholders of our fair met a few days since and elected new officers. Dr. J. W. P. Parker being chosen President. Dr. J. W. P. Parker and S. A. Newell, Vice Presidents; Allen Jones, Jackson Cowan, David Baskin, J. P. Ingram, Directors; F. M. Ott, Secretary; Robert Gibson, Treasurer.

Two suits have been recently instituted against officers of the Association. The first, John H. Hall against R. N. Graves, one of the marshals, for searching his horse during the fair for whisky, contrary to law. The other by R. A. Nunally against J. S. Kendrick, Robert Cheney and Andrew Gibson for assaulting, beating, bruising and wounding said Nunally in a cruel inhuman manner, and showing him the gate which led from the fair grounds. Messrs. Kendrick, Cheney, and Gibson are not considered fighting men, but they do not "Don Quixote like" mean business when they attacked Nunally's wagon.

DAVID ROLLINS IN JAIL.

David Rollins, who has been traveling through our county for the past few weeks, pretending to be a "clock fix," was arrested and lodged in jail on Saturday evening last, charged with an attempt to abduct the child of a Mrs. Moulding.

NEW COAL MINES.

James K. Birch and Lindsey Colyer have recently opened new coal mines within ten miles of Somerset, and are now delivering to our citizens a superior article of coal.

MARRIED.

On the 19th inst., at the residence of the bride's mother near Somerset, by Elder I. Shover, Wm. C. Condit and Miss Ella Shover, and on the same, by same Elder, at the residence of John Gover, Lewis Gover and Miss Rosa Cooper.

COUNTY COURT.

Commonwealth against — Steel upon a warrant for battery. Defendant found guilty and to pay thirty dollars per year for ten years for support of child.

MURDER FLOTT.

Residing four miles south of Somerset, sold his farm a few days since to Maj. W. N. Owen and Harvey Sloan with a view to moving West soon.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.

The agent at this place has sold tickets to the amount of over $300, and now the question is will we get our money back.

"ALERT!"

CARSON & DODDS have opened this week the largest and most attractive stock of fancy candies, oysters, delicacies, and "goodies" of all kinds ever seen in this market.

Personal.

We had the pleasure of meeting our handsome friend J. B. Green, Esq. of Harrodsburg, the other day, in our town. Mr. Green is known as one of the best retail merchants in Central Kentucky, as all who know him will admit.

Our Wayne county friend, Pearson Miller, called upon us on his way from the great show at Louisville, and told us that Honore Gracie felt very much disappointed at not meeting us at the Galt House according to promise. Mr. Greeley must please excuse our non-performance of the agreement aforesaid.

Mr. Rucker, of the Central Kentucky News, called upon us on Monday last. He assured us that the people of Harrodsburg were giving him satisfactory encouragement. We hope they will rally to the support of the News, "a man."

Professor P. A. Towne, of Paris, Kentucky, the able and efficient co-worker of Dr. Henderson in the cause of education in the State, paid us a brief visit while en route for home from the mountain districts, where he has been laboring faithfully for the past few weeks.

Read This.

All persons who intend going to Louisville should not fail to visit the great clothing, tailoring and furnishing goods house of J. L. Deppen, situated on the North East Corner of Fourth and Market Streets. That your wants will be attended to, should you go, there you can infer from the fact that Mr. Deppen employs seven first class salesmen, and then three class of acknowledged ability, besides his book keeper, cashier and errand boys. Mr. James F. Smith late with J. W. Hines is connected with the house and would be pleased to see his many friends of Stanford and vicinity.

FRESH oysters served in any manner at all hours at Carson & Dods.

Male Seminary.

Professor J. W. Paine, Jr., of Lexington, Virginia, the Principal of our Male Seminary, has arrived and will open his school on the hill next Monday. Mr. Paine comes well recommended by many prominent and well known public men and teachers, among whom are Governor John Letcher and Professor J. L. Campbell, W. and L. University and Superintendent Public Instruction. Mr. Paine looks like a man who "means business," and we hope the people of our town and county will give him proper encouragement, and we doubt not that he will build up such a school as will be a credit to himself and to the community.

The Trustees inform us that arrangements have been made with Mr. Paine to teach the district school here in connection with the Seminary, as there is no other house in which it could be taught. Both schools will therefore open on Monday next.

LOOK in at the well filled stock case at Carson & Dods.

FROM HUSTONVILLE.

HUSTONVILLE, KY., September, 24th, 1872.

Correspondence Interior Journal.

Under the influence of a gentle rain we present our usual satisfaction. And this is about all we can do. The unprecedented drought has dried up all our interests. Our streams are dried up—our walks and springs almost exhausted; our pastures parched, while the arid earth casts up its clouds of dust, as if to screen itself from the burning rays of a merciless sun. In former years we could boast, but this season, a landscape unvarnished in its varying beauties, but now we have but the prospect of a vast Sahara without an oasis, for since we commenced writing the rain has ceased.

The property offered for sale last Saturday by G. B. Cooper was withdrawn for want of a sufficient bid. McCracken's, offered on the same day was withdrawn for a similar reason. There is a rumor today, however, that McCracken is selling privately yesterday.

About 10 o'clock on Saturday night a young man of this place, named Meridy, was shot on the street by George Carter. Meridy was unarmed and not expecting an attack, when the other fired upon him. The first shot struck him on the breast but glanced, inflicting only a superficial wound. The second shot, fired by G. B. Cooper, was aimed at his head, and he succeeded in getting to a house where he was cared for. Dr. Alvord probed the wound in the hip to a depth of about four inches ranging downward, but failed to find the ball. The wounded man is doing well. Carter had not been arrested up to yesterday evening.

FAIRSTAFF.

CARSON & DODDS sell confectioneries at city prices for cash.

Religions.

Rev. J. A. Beale will preach at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath at 11 o'clock.

Rev. S. L. Irving, of the M. E. church, will begin a protracted meeting at the court house in Lancaster to-night (Friday).

Rev. G. O. Barnes will preach at the court house, in Stanford, on next Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m. and 4 p. m.

A protracted meeting will commence in the Baptist church in Danville on next Sunday, conducted by the pastor, assisted by Rev. C. E. Doble, of Lexington.

Rev. A. D. Rash, pastor of the Baptist church, Stanford, will begin a series of meetings at the Baptist church in Crab Orchard on to-morrow (Saturday) morning.

Rev. A. D. Rash, pastor of the Baptist church at this place, numbered eleven persons, male and female in Logan's creek, last Lord's day evening, and three on yesterday evening. The meeting closed on last Wednesday night, with fifteen additions. The church has been greatly revived here under the labors of Rev. Rash and Rev. George Clay Smith.

Rev. John C. Young, a young Presbyterian minister, who started out with great promise as the pastor of Hancock Street Presbyterian church of Louisville, a few years ago, was deposed from the ministry and expelled from the church a few days ago. He is a son of the distinguished and lamented Rev. John C. Young, D. D., who was for many years the President of Central College, Danville, Ky.

THE place to buy cigars and tobacco, is at Carson & Dods' confectionery.

The Northern Railroad.

We could hope on—hope ever, if hope would do any good toward securing to our people the great benefits of the Southern railroad which is now in contemplation of erection. But hope alone is powerless to build it. Action, money, enterprise, perseverance, long and unremitted, can alone build this great and much needed thoroughfare. Our citizens are not enough alive to the work. We lie supinely upon our backs, thinking that because we got no rail without any effort upon our part, we can get this additional one with similar ease. Never was there a greater error in the minds of men. If we lie here upon our backs, contemplating with the hope that the road will be built through our section whether we work to that end or not, we will wake up to confess some fine day, and see that we are left high and dry, and other localities, who have been more vigilant, reaping the reward of merit. Fellow citizens, wake up from this languorous sleep, and let us see to it that nothing is wanting upon our part to secure the great boon and blessing which this Southern road would confer upon us.

NEW supply of Croquet sets received at W. H. Anderson's drug store.

At Paris, on the 24th inst., by Rev. L. H. Blanton W. K. Higgins, of Lexington, to Miss Sallie Thorne, of Paris, Ky.

More County—J. M. Card to Miss Addie Burgen.

Boyle County—George Dunn to Miss Marie Harley.

Boone County—Thomas H. Stephenson, of Stanford, to Miss Lizzie Bruce, of Crab Orchard.

Fayette County—J. W. Steenberger, of Virginia, to Miss Sallie E. Van Meter.

On Saturday evening, the 14th inst., at Trinity Church, in Danville, by Rev. D. S. Goodloe, Esq. Walterworth, of Kansas, to Miss Mary D. Yeer, of Boyle county.

Attendants—Misses Eliza Downton, Nannie Barber, Emma Burden, and Kate Robertson.

Vanderburg, Wm. Sept. 12, 1872.

TO COL. RICHARD DUNBAR:

DEAR SIR:—I feel it my duty to certify to the great virtue of your Bethesda Spring Water in various ailments and more especially in those hereditary diseases of the kidneys called Diabetes and Bright's Disease or Albuminuria. By own case I will illustrate its astonishing effects in Diabetes. I had been suffering over five years severely, passing large quantities of urine heavy with sugar; for the last six months I have been feeling in strength and vigor, and accompanied with the usual daily voiding of urine. I am now drinking the water at the spring freely for seven weeks, and feel that I am completely relieved; my thirst is gone; my urine is natural, and I have gained two pounds weight in weight, which is shown almost entirely in the solidity of my muscles. It is not probable that so short a use of the water will so permanently and I shall continue its use on my return to my home, as I am sure it will best transportation without loss of virtue. The great prompt relief I have seen in Albuminuria, and in so many cases that I feel confident that I shall take in season, before serious organic change has taken place, a cure may be confidently expected.

It will be naturally expected that a remedy that acts so decidedly as one organ must have a favorable effect upon the system generally, and this is the case especially upon the nervous functions.

With many thanks for your kindness, I remain, your obedient servant.

WARRIS STONE, M. D., New Orleans.

LOOK in at the well filled stock case at Carson & Dods.

Logan's Fort.

On the 28th of next month (October) one hundred years will have passed away since Logan's Fort was built, within a short distance of our town limits.

Under the influence of a gentle rain we present our usual satisfaction. And this is about all we can do. The unprecedented drought has dried up all our interests. Our streams are dried up—our walks and springs almost exhausted; our pastures parched, while the arid earth casts up its clouds of dust, as if to screen itself from the burning rays of a merciless sun. In former years we could boast, but this season, a landscape unvarnished in its varying beauties, but now we have but the prospect of a vast Sahara without an oasis, for since we commenced writing the rain has ceased.

The property offered for sale last Saturday by G. B. Cooper was withdrawn for want of a sufficient bid. McCracken's, offered on the same day was withdrawn for a similar reason. There is a rumor today, however, that McCracken is selling privately yesterday.

About 10 o'clock on Saturday night a young man of this place, named Meridy, was shot on the street by George Carter. Meridy was unarmed and not expecting an attack, when the other fired upon him. The first shot struck him on the breast but glanced, inflicting only a superficial wound. The second shot, fired by G. B. Cooper, was aimed at his head, and he succeeded in getting to a house where he was cared for. Dr. Alvord probed the wound in the hip to a depth of about four inches ranging downward, but failed to find the ball. The wounded man is doing well. Carter had not been arrested up to yesterday evening.

FAIRSTAFF.

CARSON & DODDS sell confectioneries at city prices for cash.

Religions.

Rev. J. A. Beale will preach at the Presbyterian church on next Sabbath at 11 o'clock.

Rev. S. L. Irving, of the M. E. church, will begin a protracted meeting at the court house in Lancaster to-night (Friday).