NEW P. O.—An attempt has been made to establish a post office at Richmond Junction, with a partial show of success.

CHAS. & PERRY.—Mr. Benj. G. Alfred has purchased Mr. Thomas D. Newland's East Yard, and Mr. A. J. Harris has removed his goods to the store formerly occupied by Chas. & Perry. Both are represented in our advertising columns.

AND WITH THEM CALL IT SPRING.—A hitting North-Easter, accompanied by blinding snow of snow, ushered in the third day of the second month of Spring. The slight inebriation tells us that his "never" was such weather, but afterwards cautiously added, "Hardly ever."

ASSIGNMENT.—We are sorry to note that Mr. Wm. Burton, a farmer living near town, has, on account of the pressure of security, been compelled to make an assignment.

MR. JAMES PATTON is made Trustee for the creditors, and the liabilities are stated at $10,000; assets, 600 acres of land worth $20 per acre, and about $2,000 worth of personal property.

FIRST TO ARRIVE.—Already the Spring and Summer goods have commenced to arrive from the cities of the East, and forward by Mr. E. B. Hayden, of Hayden Brothers, who has been in the wholesale market for some days, selecting what he knows will suit the extensive trade of the firm. The indications are that this house will do a larger business this season than ever before, and that is saying a great deal, for their trade is always large.

FOR LADIES TO READ.—If our lady readers have any confidence in our taste, they will visit Hayden Bros. and look at their beautiful new patterns of Spring and Summer dress goods. All the New York and Paris fashions in color, figure, etc., can be found there. They are just the prettiest things you ever saw, ladies, and for a few dollars you can rig yourself up in the highest fashion. Their prices are exceptionally low, and their goods unusually excellent.

HOLMES' TRIAL AND ROMANCEY NOTE.—Under a guard of nine men, Samuel Holmes was taken from the Louisville jail to Somerset, last Monday, to go through the form of a third trial for the murder of Col. Napier, committed nearly ten years ago. A special venire of 50 jurors had been summoned, out of which the panel was obtained, after most of them had been examined. The Commonwealth exhausted her challenges on the seventh juror, the defense having taken two to spare when the last man was taken. The jury are as follows: George Bullock, W. R. Smith, J. J. Hall, M. W. Bryan, F. C. Mize, T. J. Francis, James Brinkley, John Kenney, J. P. Cumliff, G. A. Cumliff, G. A. Phelps, W. G. Nunnally. The selection of the jury completed the work of Tuesday, the first day, and on Wednesday, after a strong statement of the case for the Commonwealth by Judge Denny, the examination of witnesses for the prosecution commenced. For reasons best known to the attorneys for the Commonwealth, neither Ed. Davidson, Sam. M. Carson or Jim Daugherty, was introduced, and by 2 o'clock they rested their testimony in chief. This sudden termination left the defense considerably by surprise, and they retired to consult, after which, Col. W. G. Welch appeared and in his usual forcible manner, made the very best possible, of a very atrocious crime. The first witness for the defense, Mr. Billy Bell, was being examined when we left the Court room for home at 4 o'clock, Wednesday evening, and the probability then was, that the case would be given to the jury by noon to-day. The testimony for the prosecution was not materially different from that adduced at the trial here, when eleven men were for a verdict of murder in the first degree. In appearance the jurors at the present trial are an improvement on those of the second trial, but from interviews as to their merits, made with a number of old citizens and others, who are judges of men, they do not compare favorably with their predecessors. The universal opinion is, that they will hang themselves (not the prisoner), and judging from the character of two or three of the men, the possibility that a "walk-out" has been made, there will be at least, that number for an acquittal. We, however, hope for the better, and sincerely trust that some verdict may be obtained, even though it be a light one comparatively, and thus put an end to this costly case. The prisoner shows considerably the effects of a seventeen months' confinement in the Louisville jail, and the debilitating results of a protracted spell of illness. He does not affect the bold and confident air that characterized him at his two former trials, though he expresses himself as sure of an acquittal. This, however, is out of the question, or else there is no need of law in this land. A hung jury and bail is the hope of his friends, but bail is not so sure then, as might be supposed. The Commonwealth is represented by its attorney, Judge Denny, W. H. Miller, and Curd & Wadell, and the defense by Col. W. G. Welch, Sautley, Fox & Stone, Hill, and Morrow & Newell. Head Hensley, against whom six indictments have been standing in the Lincoln Circuit Court for over two years, was arrested in the Court room at Somerset, Wednesday, and taken to Stanford under guard of five men. He is a desperate character, and has been eluding the officers for a long time, but he will have to convince the Court in a few weeks that he never committed the malicious stabbing, as charged, that each of the four cases for selling whisky without license, is a gross error, and that he had no weapon at all at the time he is alleged to have had one concealed—or else take the consequences. The track of the Cincinnati Southern R. R. has reached McKee's branch, over which it is a viaduct 155 feet high, (the highest on the road,) which was to have been completed yesterday. This is 13 miles below Somerset, and in the neighborhood of the coal fields.

A young lawyer and doctor from Stanford, witnesses in the Holmes case, were so pleased with the ladies they met one evening during their stay, that they are thinking of locating in Somerset, if all the necessary arrangements can be effected.

A negro, named Monroe Harris, was fatally injured by a hand car that was thrown from the track near Somerset, by a pile of rocks placed on the track by some find in human shape.

The following persons are taken from our Somerset letter: Miss Anna Gibson has returned from Richmond. Messrs. Willson and Corn, life insurance agents, are in town. Miss Anna Shiffmaker has charge of J. W. Hall's military shop.

Mr. Gabe Greenwald will soon have here to locate in Philadelphia. Mr. J. C. Brown and wife have returned from Sloan's Valley, and will reside in South Somerset, for a time.

The jovial proprietor of the Hicks House, Somerset, has another wife border. It's a girl, and the thirteenth child.

OF COURSE everybody will read the big advertisement of George H. Bruce & Co., which appears on this page. Their stock is large and varied and is marked down to extremely low figures—in fact, they retail at wholesale prices, which they are enabled to do by special arrangement with one of the largest manufacturing establishments in New York. We bespeak for them a big patronage.

FOR MEN TO READ.—We met our friend, E. B. Hayden, of Hayden Bros., yesterday, who has just got back from the city, and he informed us that he had bought and would open immediately some of the greatest novelties in the way of ready-made clothing ever seen here. The full suits or single garments are rare and lovely, and the firm offer them at lower prices than you can get them elsewhere. They pledge their word to that effect. Give them a call before you buy elsewhere.

AN INVITATION TO YOU ALL.—Next Monday will be County Court day, and we would advise our friends to call on J. B. Dennis at his old stand and examine his large stock of new Buggies, Rockaways and Harnesses, best home made and imported, as you can buy them almost at your own price. He has in his employ a No. 1 painter, and is prepared to do all kinds of repairing in the best style and at greatly reduced rates. Call and see him if you need any thing in his line—it will pay you for your trouble.

MARRIAGES.

REASON—PREVETT—At William Prevett, on the 3rd, Mr. James J. Benson and Miss Catherine Prevett were solemnized into one.

McREE—GIBSON—On the 3rd, Mr. Francis M. McRee and Mrs. Bettie Gibson were married near Turnersville. Both have been married before.

RELIGIOUS.

The Jewish Times computes the number of Jews all over the world to be 6,000,000.

Rev. J. S. Sims has gone to visit Rev. Mr. Vaughan in a revival at Salvia, in Mercer county. No preaching at the Methodist Church next Sunday.

The forthcoming Baptist Year-Book for 1879, will show that the total number of baptisms for 1878, was 102,736, and that the total number of members in the Baptist Churches is 2,102,034, being an increase of nearly 75,000 on the preceding year.

A deepening interest, larger attendance and 285 confessions are reported of Mr. Barnes' Nashville meeting. He now preaches in the Elm Street Methodist Church at night, and on Dr. Baird's Church at 2 P. M. Both he and Miss Marie are in perfect health, and are looking forward to grand results from their meeting.

The scholars at the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday, numbered 29; at the Baptist, 37; at the Presbyterian, 54; and at the Christian, 56. Total, 173; an increase of 43 over the count of a month ago. We are glad to note this, and as an inducement for a still larger attendance, the INTERIOR JOURNAL proposes to present to the school showing the greatest increase in the next two months, a full set of any song book that its teachers may suggest.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

Kentucky has 722,000 cattle, 1,950,000 hogs, and 900,000 sheep.

John Bright sold to Hill & Alcorn, a mule 16 hands high, for $100.

Ebenezer Best, of Garrard, sold Mr. McLean 30 nice calves at $22.

R. R. Gentry has for sale five or six excellent milk cows, with calves. Apply early and get the best.

Twenty-eight head Tennessee cattle, averaging 675 lbs. sold in Clark county, last week at $3.25 per hundred, and 30 head at $13 each.

W. B. Smith & Co., of Hamiltonville, sold to Superintendent E. P. Wilson, of the C. & O. R. R. 300 barrels of corn, at $2.10 put on the cars.

G. P. Ramsey sold on commission for A. M. Pence, of Lincoln county, in Lexington, Saturday, 21 calves to Thos. Bryan, at $11 per head.

The value of slaughtered beef shipped from this country to Europe last year, amounted to $5,000,850 and the value of live beef shipped, was $5,844,603.

J. M. Copeland and Uncle Jim. Moxie arrived from Tennessee, this week, with 62 head 2 and 3-year-old cattle, which they will dispose of at reasonable figures.

George W. Alfred bought of Bailey A. Carter, of Lincoln, 2 mules, 5 years old, and from 15 hands 1 inch, to 16 hands for $250, one from Mr. Robinson, of Garrard, for $50, and one from W. L. McKelvin, 16 hands 1 inch, for $82. Mr. Alfred is buying a lot of large mules to feed for the August market.

LOUISVILLE.—Cattle are firmer, and best grades have advanced a quarter of a cent. Good to extra shippers, 4 to 5; best butchers', 4 to 5; medium to good, 4 to 4 1/2; thin to common, 2 to 3; Hogs, choice to butchers', 4 to 4 1/2; fair to good, 3 to 3 1/2; common to good light, 2 to 2 1/2. Sheep, extra, 4 to 5; common, 3 to 4 cents.

The Cincinnati Enquirer published this week, reports from nearly every county in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, which show a considerable increase in the acreage of wheat over last year, and almost without exception, the growing crop is in splendid condition—far above the usual average at this season of the year. The indications now are of a bounteous harvest of the great cereal. The fruits generally are not so cheering. Apples are generally scarce, the immense crop of last year will not be duplicated. Of peaches there will be very few; in fact, the crop may as well be set down as a total failure. The worst feature about it is that the buds are not only killed, but in a great many cases the trees also.

LINCOLN COUNTY.

Engleman's Mill.

FISH STORY.—Mr. T. S. Parr is caught a jumping perch one day last week sixteen inches long.

SAW MILL MOVES.—Mr. Robt. Beasley, of Garrard, has moved his steam saw mill to the farm of Mr. Green Bright.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Was organized at Bright's School-house last Sunday. Will meet next Sunday at 10 o'clock P. M. Mr. Becher Adams was elected Superintendent, and Prof. T. F. Baker, Assistant.

EXPRESS BUSINESS.—Capt. St. John, of the Adams Express Company, was in our town last week, looking after the interest of the Company. He has made arrangements with our stage Company to have the express carried this route, and will establish an office at this place.

MANUFACTURERS' AGENCY.

GRAND OPENING!

—AT THE—

NEW READY-MADE CLOTHING HOUSE,

Stanford, Ky..

SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1879.

The public is respectfully invited to examine our immense Stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS,

BOOTS, SHOES, ETC.

We inaugurate a new era in the Clothing Trade.

ALL GOODS RETAILED AT WHOLESALE PRICES.

Truly the times are hard, and it behooves every individual to extend his means to the utmost limits, and to all seriously realizing this fact a cordial invitation is extended.

Call and See us. No Trouble to Show Goods.

GEO. H. BRUCE & CO., Agts.

PERSONAL.—Miss Bettie Dennis, one of Stanford's brightest jewels, spent a few days with Mrs. Carrie Harlan this week.

Miss Lucile Bright is visiting Misses Bettie and Annie Harris, near Stanford.

Robt. Love, of this vicinity, left last Monday for Richmond, where he will engage in the drug business.

RELATIVES IN ADVERTISING.—The citizens of this place were very much disappointed last Saturday. A gentleman came here and commenced posting up some large bills, and a crowd soon gathered around to see the double-bored rhinoceros, the sealions, monkeys, and various other pets, thinking that he was the forerunner of Forepaugh's mammoth Circus; but it turned out to be George Bruce posting bills for the grand opening of his large Clothing House at Stanford.

HOUSEHOLD.—A snow storm in August would be far less chilling than this frosty reminiscence.

GOOD TEMPERANCE.—We had a reorganization of the Good Templars on Saturday night. Brother Demaree was trumpeter on the occasion. Have not learned how many responded to the blast; but understand there was a reorganization of the Lodge.

THE HORSE HOME.—Much has been said, and volumes have been written in the discussion of the capacity of the lower animals. Philosophers seem to be at variance as to whether or not a horse is endowed with reason. The advocates of the theory fortify their position with an array of equine and asinine anecdotes from the days of Balaam down. A scene occurred in this vicinity a few evenings since which may be a factor in the solution of the problem. A young gentleman who had been a frequent visitor at a particular homestead, was about to pass the gate in his buggy, when his horse refused to proceed. In the discussion which ensued, the animal maintained its argument by kicking the reins out of the driver's hands and finally demolishing the vehicle. The motive of the horse is a mystery; but it is plain that the duty of the driver was to stop.

Highland.

PERSONAL.—The pastor for the Methodist Church at this place, Rev. John Godby, will move to our town in a few days.

HIGHLAND.—Our citizens are hoarsely engaged in farming and other avocations, and we are confident that if they are persistent our village will yet come up out of the wilderness and shine as bright as a star on the brow of evening, and peace and plenty compensate them for their efforts and industry. We now have three stores, two blacksmith shops, two shingle machines and four preachers; so you see that if we are not good citizens it is not for the want of ministerial advice.

TEMPERANCE.—Last Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock, the noted and eloquent temperance lecturer, Messrs. T. B. Demaree and J. J. East, lectured at the Methodist Church here to an appreciative audience, giving entire satisfaction to all the friends of temperance present; and we believe that their eloquent appeals and convincing arguments made a good and lasting impression on all who heard them. At the conclusion of the lectures, 23 took the pledge, and an organization of the Independent Order of Good Templars was formed and a lodge constituted, named Highland Star Lodge No. 1235, with the following officers: Rev. J. M. Cook, W. C. T. M.; Miss Lucile Bright, R. H. S.; Miss Lucile Horton, L. H. S.; Miss Lucile Godby, W. V. T.; H. P. Young, W. P. C. T.; Rev. G. G. Rags, W. S. C. M.; Young, W. F. S. and L. D.; P. A. Bang, W. T. J. M. Hill, W. M.; Miss Mahala Hubbard, W. I. G.; Rev. M. A. Middleton, W. C. and Miss Fannie Russell, W. D. M.

A CARD.

CHAS. DUNBAR, April 3, 1879.

Editor Interior Journal.—

Learning that there is a disposition on the part of some persons to charge W. G. Bradley, Esq., with the responsibility of the communication to the Richmond Enquirer, which was, at my request, published in your last issue, I take this occasion to say that Mr. Bradley wrote that piece, as my attorney, and that I, of course, am responsible for it.
