The Power of Russia.

Is very generally exaggerated. We are apt to forget the prodigious extent of the Empire, covering more than 9,000,000 of square miles, and embracing according to the Annuaire de l'Asie a population of 129,249,250 souls.

Mr. President.—Enlightened by the spirit of our country's institutions when we succeeded to consolidate our natural and historical State's right of self government by placing it upon the broad foundation of democracy.

Restored to the United States by law, we are restored to freedom, and by freedom to activity in behalf of those duties which, by our nation's unanimous confidence and approval, we have devolved upon us.
