

Personals.

Hon. J. O. Glover was in Ottawa on Thursday, and we were happy to see very much improved in health.

Our former townsman, Herman Silver, Esq., who now holds the position of Register of Uncle Sam's land office at Denver, Colorado, surprised us by dropping into our sanctum the other day.

O. W. Bollmeyer, of Mich., has been spending the last week with his friends in Ottawa, though still a printer, he wears pretty good clothes, and is actually fat.

Hon. J. D. Caton was in town this week. Among the arrivals at the Clifton this week were: M. Kaufman, N. Y.; E. R. May, Auburn, N. Y.; A. E. Walker, Chicago; L. B. Crooker, Mendota; Jos. Pfränsing.

For premium bread, cake, etc., go to Piergue's.

Day of Atonement, &c.

Last Saturday was the Jewish Day of Atonement. This is the greatest day of the Hebrew calendar—being a day of national humiliation, and the only day when the priest was permitted to enter the Holy of Holies.

The day was celebrated in Ottawa by all the Jews in the city. All their places of business were closed from 6 P. M. Friday until 6 P. M. Saturday, and all gave themselves up to humiliation and mental maceration.

We are now in the midst of the feast Sukkoth—or, we may say, "harvest" festival, which feast is kept on Thursday and Friday of this week, which are full holidays; from Friday to next Thursday are half holidays, and Thursday and Friday of next week are again full holidays.

A nice new stock of neck wear, collars, cuffs, shirts, etc., just the thing for the stylish young men, has arrived at A. Frank & Co's., west of the Court House.

Fire!—That the season of fires is approaching is proved by the fact that we have had two in this city during the past two weeks.

A meeting of the Ottawa Literary Society at the rooms of the Academy of Natural Sciences on last Monday evening, was a very interesting one.

These & Co. are ahead in fine cigars. Their "Own Brand," "Mineral Spring," "Libby," etc., are unrivalled.

Fatal Accidents.

On Saturday last a man, name not learned, was run over by the cars at Streator, and one of his legs cut off. He bled to death in a short time.

A young man named Richard Plommer, aged 15 years, attending a pigeon shooting match at Streator, on Tuesday last, shot a pigeon that had flown beyond bounds.

Obituary.

Died Oct. 15th, of paralysis, Mrs. Elizabeth Poundstone, aged seventy-five years and twenty-two days.

The deceased was born in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred, in Eastern Pennsylvania, in Berks Co., and in her youth removed with her father to Fayette Co., Pa., where she was married to Richard Poundstone, who preceded her to the Father's home just ten years.

The deceased was for eight years a subject of sore affliction, which she endured with great fortitude and christian patience and submission, never murmuring nor complaining against the dealing of God with her.

Sudden Death.

Our people were surprised to hear, on Monday morning, of the sudden death of Hollis M. Prescott, who had been seen on the street on Saturday apparently in his usual health.

A post mortem examination was held, and while we have been unable to ascertain the result in precise terms, we learn generally that the opinion arrived at was, that although the amount of cholera taken was too small to have had any ill effect in ordinary cases, in the condition of Mr. H.'s heart, a spasmodic action of that organ might have been excited which caused the fatal result.

Mr. P. was about 45 years of age, and leaves a wife and two children.

He had been in business in Ottawa for some years, up to about 1863, when he enlisted in the war and rose to the command of a battery. As a soldier he was brave and efficient; as a business man, quick and intelligent; and socially, genial and popular.

Full line of fruits and candies, at H. Walther's.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday a little daughter of Mr. Philip Haas, of this city, while playing in the yard, got a splinter in her ear.

A meeting of the Ottawa Literary Society at the rooms of the Academy of Natural Sciences on last Monday evening, was a very interesting one.

The society is in a flourishing condition and is well worth the attention of our young people, especially since the long dreary evenings of winter are fast approaching.

Let it be remembered that H. Walther's fancy bakery is in full blast turning out cake, pies, &c., that make one's mouth water to write about.

Recorder Denhard experienced a very pleasant surprise last Monday evening. He had just moved into his new house, and his friends took this occasion to show him their regards.

Why is the Clinton a healthy stove? Because it keeps its feet warm and its head cool.

Ottawa Musical Union. A meeting of this society and of those interested in vocal music had been appointed at the Methodist church for last Thursday evening.

Warranted winter wheat flour, $3.50 per hundred, at Wood's Eagle Mills.

Buffalo robes—Hull & Balfors, who are always on hand with the right thing at the right time, received another lot of buffalo robes this week—by far the largest and best assortment in Ottawa; and Bart says he can't tell why they were so cheap.

Board by the day or week at the Park House, the best of accommodation.

The social at the Clifton Hotel on Friday evening of last week, under the auspices of the ladies of the Episcopal church, was a very enjoyable affair indeed.

Hot tea and coffee at all hours, at the Mc Cain Brothers' restaurant. Price only 5 cents per cup.

REAL ESTATE.—There were but few sales of real estate in the city during the past week. The most important reported by the County Recorder, Denhard, are the sale of the old Portland House property by Wm. Formahals to Mr. Patrick Gahan for $4,000; also the sale by Mr. H. L. Mead of his fine residence on the bluff west of this city to Mr. Samuel D. Cole, for $10,000.

How does the Clinton appreciate a kindness? Why it blushes and is grate-fall when you feed it.

Removal of a Cigar Store.

Fowler & Klemm, the popular cigar manufacturers, have removed their establishment to Martin Keim's building, next door north of Turner hall. They have on hand a large stock of first-class tobacco which they are making up into splendid cigars.

Oysters in every style—stewed, raw, fried, &c., at all hours, at H. Walther's.

The honor of producing the first controllable self-feeding base burner stove for soft coal has been reserved for the enterprising firm of Fuller, Warren & Co., of Troy, N. Y.

Like all stoves made by this company, it is of the best material and finish. We also sell all the varieties of F. W. & Co's coal and wood stoves, such as Stewart's Parlor, Home Friend, cook, hard coal base burner, &c.

Why is the Clinton Base Burner at Manley & Smeeton's a polite stove? Because it never smokes in the parlor.

A new and splendid assortment of pocket books has been received by Osman & Hapeman this week. The stock comprises everything in that line, from the cheap sheep-skin and board book to the large Russia leather side-pocket book.

Oysters—fried, 35 cents, at G. B. Mitchell's new dining hall.

One of the most daring pieces of thieving we have heard of in a long time was committed on Wednesday. About noon a man went into the music room of Mrs. Baldwin, in the Opera House block, ostensibly to make arrangements for music lessons for some one, and while talking to Mrs. B. picked up her gold watch which was lying near by and made off.

Frank McEvoy's Hibernicon, at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evening, drew full houses in spite of the bad weather.

Men's beaver boots at Child & Phipps'. They were trying to remove a feather steamer, had placed it on a wagon, and were moving down Clinton street.
