OFFICIAL CITY & COUNTY PAPER

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., March 2, 1870.

EDITOR OF ARGUS:-It is with pleasure that I can report a considerable progress in legislative matters. Last week and this week, up to date, both houses have been at work earnestly, and a very considerable amount of business has, and is being done.

majority of whom are lawyers, is getting along very well with its business and is nearly two weeks shead of the house. The Senate has passed quite a large number of bills and has ordered a still greater number to a third reading, which is equivalent to A few days ago, Mr. Roe from committee on State institutions, introduced a bill to create a board of pardon commissioners. It is their duty to visit the penitentiaries once in three months and there receive applica tions for pardon, and the governor is to ex-eroise his own discretion in pardoning those whom they recommend. Two of the five commissioners provided for may be women, and no one can be pardoned except upon their unanimous recommendation. The
