Costiveness.

BELLING! This is caused by a sluggish, torpid state of the This iscaused by a singgish, torpid state of the Liver, and derangement of the whole system. It is surprising that there are so many troubled with this dispressing disease and give it so little attention. The diseases that follow habitual contiveness are many of which Sick Headenhe, Rush of Bland to the Head, Dyspeysia, Piles, Heart, Lung and Skin Disease and Female and Kidney Complaints are always aggravated by it. Many resort to phile, and never have a free evacuation of the howsle without their aid. To these, I say, atop and consider, as every pill you take contains mercury, which will in time you take contains mercary, which will in time cause you to regret the course you have taken. you will not need to take pills, two to four bottles
