The Steam-Boat Potomac,
WHICH for speed and accommodation is equal to any other, continues to run between
Norfolk, Alexandria and Washington.

She leaves the city of Washington at 8 o'clock every Thursday morning, and Alexandria at half past 9; and after landing passengers at convenient places on the river Potomac, and at Old Point Comfort, arrives at Norfolk on Friday morning in time for the Southern Stages, and the steam boat for Richmond and Petersburg. On Monday morning she leaves Norfolk at 12 o'clock, arrives at Alexandria on Tuesday Morning, and proceeds direct to the city of Washington. N. B. Horses and carriages taken on deck.

The Proprietors of the Steam boat Potomac are desirous to grant every accommodation to passengers, and have arranged the line of departure and arrival in such manner, as to admit passengers from Richmond and Petersburg to transact business in Norfolk; and those proceeding to the northward, to transact business at Alexandria and Washington without loss of time.

For Sale,
THE LAND & HOUSE on Stump Hill, lately owned by Mr. Norton, being about TWENTY ONE ACRES well enclosed; on the little river turnpike road, 2 miles from Alexandria. The garden contains many valuable shrubs, vines, and fruit trees. The situation is handsome and healthy. Possession may be had immediately. The time of payment will be reasonably extended to suit the purchaser.
WM. CRANCH.

For Sale.
I will sell a tract or parcel of land called
BROOMFIELD,
Containing three hundred and fifty acres more or less, lying and being in Charles county, immediately on the road leading from Port Tobacco to Dumfries Ferry, about six miles from Port Tobacco, within four miles of Nanjemoy Church, and within 14 miles of navigable water. The improvements on the said farm are a dwelling house, kitchen, barn, corn, house, and other necessary houses. It is deemed unnecessary to give a more particular description of the same as it is presumed any person wishing to purchase will view the premises. For terms apply to the subscriber living on the adjoining farm.

$100 REWARD
WILL be given for the apprehension of three negro boys (brothers).—They ran off from me on the 1st inst. near the White Post. They were seen on the same day this side of the river. It is probable they will make their way to the Eastern Shore of Md. where they were raised; the oldest is named stout made, and has a considerable impediment in his speech; he took with him a yellow roundabout, white duck pantaloons, and a fustian jacket filled with yellow, and an old fur hat.

ABRAHAM,

BENJAMIN,
18 years old, stout made, took with him a grey fustian roundabout, white duck pantaloons and a new fur hat.

ISAAC,
16 years old, rather delicately made; took with him a pair of white duck pantaloons, swansdown vest, & felt hat about half worn.

I will give a reward of 25 dollars for the apprehension of either of the said negroes, if delivered to me, at the White Post, Frederick county, Va. with all reasonable expenses; or, if secured in any jail so that I get them again. The above reward of 25 dollars, or 100 dollars for the apprehension of the three, with all reasonable expenses, if delivered to me.

To Wood Merchants.

I will sell from 500 to 1000 cords of good oak wood, ready cut in the woods.—Also 200 acres of land with a good supply of fire wood, building and rail timber on it. This wood and land lies within 1 1/2 mile of the Potomac river, where there is a good road and landing; 30 miles below the District of Columbia; this land lies well, of a stiff soil, and clear of hills and brakes. I will also furnish any purchaser with 3 good ox carts well calculated for the wood business and ten or twelve good oxen in their prime, and well broke to the cart. I will also sell a lot of land, containing two acres, with a good new store house, a half story high counting room, lodging room, granary and tobacco shed. Also a tobacco press house and a well of as good water as any in the world. This lot and improvements lies in a healthy neighborhood and a good stand for business. It is one mile from the above land. I also have 150 acres of land, of an extra quality, lying 3 miles above the aforesaid land, and one mile from the Potomac; it is well watered and has a good seat for a small mill, with a never failing stream.—Any person wishing to purchase the above property may have a great bargain, as I wish to decline the wood business. The cash will be wanted for the wood that is cut and the carts and oxen. I will give a liberal time on the lands.

15 Dollars Reward

WILL be given for safely securing a grey mare, which strayed or was stolen from the pasture at Vermont, (estate of T. Dixon, deceased) between the night of the 4th, and the evening of the 6th inst. Said MARE was three years old last spring, about 14 hands high; a knot arising from the distemper, shows itself under each jaw; neck thick at the junction with the head; the mare beginning to pace, is very gentle, tray faced, full eyed, and some few specks on her body; and was never shod before leaving the pasture.
For the mare alone (if safely secured) the above reward will be given. If taken in possession of another, who may be suspected of having stolen her, 25 dollars will be given for securing both.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

ON the 13th day of last month, I put a letter in the Post Office, in which was enclosed a Hundred Dollar Bank Note, of the Bank of Virginia, numbered and payable as follows: B 163, payable to Bela Corm, dated 2d March, 1812—Wm. Dandridge, Cashier, John Brockenbrough, President. The letter enclosing said note addressed to James Sanderson, Esq. Alexandria, D. C. has not been received, of course there is reason to believe improperly detained. The above reward will be paid for the delivery of the Bank Note, or for the detection of the person who has improperly detained it.—'Tis strange such mistakes should occur in forwarding a letter the short distance of 120 miles.

WAS COMMITTED

TO the jail for the county of Alexandria, D. C. on the 25th inst as a runaway, a bright mulatto man, who calls himself WILLIAM BROWN; five feet eight or nine inches high, has a scar on the right side of his nose, and one on the fore part of his head, which is covered with fine curly hair; appears to be about 27 years of age; his clothing, one grey cloth coat with metal buttons, one new blue cotton cassimere coat, one black and one light colored marseilles vest, and new pantaloons of large red and white stripe. He claims freedom, and had in his possession a certificate to that effect, signed William K. Dance, Clerk of the county court, Powhatan, Virginia, which writing is believed to be a forgery; says he served his time as an apprentice to the hating business with Beverly Wells, at Chesterfield, on the turnpike road, about half way between Richmond and Powhatan court-house. The owner is requested to come, prove property, pay charges and take him away; otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.
