ROGERS'S VEGETABLE PULMONIC DE-TERGENT.
JUST received and for sale by WILLIAM STABLER.

From the Hon. Gideon Lee, Mayor of the City of New York.

"Few men in the community have a greater contempt for nostrums in general than myself. Patent medicine and catchpenny, with me, have been synonymous. I am constrained, however, to relinquish these sentiments as respects Dr. Rogers's Vegetable Detergent, the effects of which I have recently witnessed. A young lady in my family, by using two papers, I have reason to believe, is effectually cured of an alarming Pulmonic Complaint, which in all its symptoms gave evidence of immediate consumption. I communicate this with a view of usefulness, and sincerely hope that such persons as have complaints similar to the above, will make a trial of the medicine. GIDEON LEE."

The remaining sheet of the Appendix will be given with Part 2; and the Preface, with a Pathological Classification of Diseases, &c., forming a Key to the systematic study of Practical Medicine, as well as an arranged Contents of the work, will accompany the last Part.

This valuable work will be given complete in five parts, at $1 each part of 300 closely printed and handsome pages; being the cheapest medical work ever printed in the United States.

The work will be sent by mail, to subscribers in any part of the country. The postage will be only 19 cents each part; if not exceeding 100 miles, and 32 cents only for the greatest distance. Published Quarterly, and completed in one year from the delivery of the first number.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.
ON Tuesday morning, between Fredericksburg and my plantation, in the upper end of Stafford, a NEGRO MAN, and the MARE on which he was riding, both belonging to me, were stolen by a man who seems to have been a stranger in this part of the country. When seen in possession of the Slave and of the Mare, he was inquiring his way to Stafford Court-House. He is described to me as a person between fifty and sixty years of age, with remarkably white hair; his stature stout and well set. He wore a brownish colored stuff cloak. The negro is between twenty-five and thirty years of age, as well as is remembered; stout in his person, and about five feet ten or eleven inches high; has a drawing manner of talking, and appears to be much less sagacious than he really is. His name is Jack. His dress was a blue cloth cap, a grey great coat, and his under clothing drab cloth.

The Mare is a fine large sorrel, without any spot of white about her, unless perhaps there may be some few white hairs in the centre of the forehead, not covering more than the size of a four-pence-halfpenny. She is, as well as is recollected, going on seven years of age; is remarkably long in her body; has a long tail, and it is remarkable where it joins the rump. There may be discerned in the film of one of her eyes an incision which was made a year or two ago to cure the hooks.

One Hundred Dollars Reward will be given for the recovery of the above Slave and Mare, or in the proportion of four and two for the recovery of either.
