

ALEXANDRIA:

WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 23, 1836.

THE ELECTIONS.—The returns from Indiana leave no doubt that the State has gone for Harrison by a large majority. Rhode Island has been carried for Van Buren by a small majority. From Illinois and Missouri we have nothing satisfactory; nor are we able to add anything additional from Georgia, though it seems to be generally believed that the State has gone for White. The returns from Tennessee, as they are given by the papers of both sides, are contradictory, and we therefore abstain from giving them until we can be assured of their accuracy. One thing, however, is certain—the White ticket, thus far, is ahead.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The further accounts received from this state seem to indicate that it has gone for Messrs. Van Buren and Johnson. The Fayetteville Observer, of the 17th instant holds the following language:

"There is now much reason to fear that Van Buren will be elected President and Richard M. Johnson Vice President of the U. S. State. Our own State to the lasting disgrace of the Whig party, has gone for them. The full returns are not received; but enough is known to render this disgraceful result certain. Below we give all the returns received except a number of counties heard from in part and by flying report. We also add the August vote, which will show the reason for our failure. The Van Buren party has fallen off a few hundred votes; but the Whigs have failed to go to the polls by thousands. In the county of Davidson, it will be seen, our loss in this way was about 700 votes. In Rowan, about 500 votes; and it is reported that our majority in Randolph is diminished about 800 votes. So that in these three counties Whig counties we have lost about 2000 votes. Anson, too, has fallen off nearly 100, and Richmond nearly 200. With an undoubted Whig majority, we have lost the State.

NEW JERSEY.—In stating the Whig triumph in New Jersey, we announced only the result of the Electoral election. We might have added the equally if not more, important success of the whole Congressional ticket, as well as the election of the Whig candidate (Mr. Chitwood) to supply the vacancy in the present Congress, made by the resignation of Mr. Dickerson.

VOTE OF MARYLAND.—According to the official returns, the aggregate majority of the Harrison ticket in this State is 3,613!

PENNSYLVANIA.—The official returns of the Presidential election in Pennsylvania are now all in. The aggregate vote is thus stated in the Philadelphia Sentinel Express, of last evening, received to-day, by the Express Mail. Van Buren 91,475; Harrison 87,111. Majority for Van Buren 4,364. Owing to certain informalities and mistakes in preparing the official returns in two or three counties, there were 479 votes lost—of which about two thirds were apparently intended for the Van Buren electoral ticket. The whole number of votes given at the Presidential election in Pennsylvania may therefore be stated at 179,065—being 21,345 less than were polled in October, 1835.—Balt. Pat.

NEW YORK.—The Albany Argus gives returns from all the Counties in the State except Franklin, and makes the Van Buren majority 26,733; Delaware County, where the Argus claims only 1800, has given a majority of over 3000. This we learn from the Delhi Journal.

The Congressional delegation stands 30 Van Buren and 10 Whigs; being a Whig gain of one member.

The Legislature will consist of about 28 Whig and 99 Van Buren men. One vacancy.

Gen. George W. Jones has been elected as the Delegate in Congress from the Territory of Wisconsin by a large majority. The vote stood—for Jones 3,522—Meeker 669.

DOWN TOWN POST OFFICE.—The New York Journal of Commerce says:—"We are happy to announce that the Post Master of this city received yesterday a letter from the Post Master General, giving him directions, forthwith to establish a Post Office in the lower part of this city, as near to the site of the late Merchants Exchange as convenient accommodations can be found. The expense will be provided for by the Department. Mr. Coddington will carry this order into effect immediately."

GERMAN WHEAT.—The New York Commercial Advertiser of Saturday, says:—"Within the last three days twenty thousand five hundred bushels of German wheat have been sold in this city at from $2 to 2.05 per bushel."

GREAT RIOT IN CLEVELAND, OHIO.—The following is an extract from a letter, dated Cleveland, Nov. 9, 1836.

We have had a dreadful riot. The Brooklyn people undertook to destroy the upper bridge, here, because the Cleveland people would not let them build one where the float bridge was, and they commenced tearing the bridge down. The Cleveland people fired three guns up on them, and they fired back. Ten killed on the spot, and twenty three wounded; many of them mortally. Yours, &c. D. VAN PELT.

It will be recollected by many of our readers that when the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad was first laid, experiments were tried to ascertain the practicability of using cars driven by the wind. The same thing has been attempted with partial success on the Durham and Sunderland rail ways in England, where a car with a sail hoisted, was propelled by the wind at the rate of ten miles an hour.—Balt. American.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Chronicle.

ANNAPOLIS, Saturday Evening.

November 19, 1836.

A Senate is elected, and consists of—

From the Western Shore.

Levi Hilleary, of Allegany, Wm Price, of Washington, Wm Schley, of Frederick, Rd J Bowie, of Montgomery, R W Kent, of Anne Arundel, John Beckett, of Calvert, Rd Thomas, of St Mary's, Elias Brown, of Baltimore county, J V L McMahon, of Baltimore city.

From the Eastern Shore.

James B Ricard, of Kent, Thomas Wright, of Thos. of Queen Anne, Ed N Hambleton, of Talbot, Wm T. Goldsborough, of Dorchester, Thos King Carroll, of Somerset, Wm U Purnell, of Worcester.

They received twenty-one votes, and there were five blank ballots, which were the ballots of Messrs. Thomas and George, of Queen Anne, Mr. Fountain, of Caroline, and Messrs. Linthicum and Sellman, of Anne Arundel county.

The "twenty-one" stood their ground gallantly, and achieved for the Whigs and the State this glorious triumph. They have been true to their own solemn obligations, and true to the Constitution. Thanks to them for their noble conduct. Not an inch did they yield to the overtures or propositions of their adversaries.—From the high ground they first took, they have not retreated a step. All good citizens will bless them, and their names will go down to posterity, and will be hallowed in all after time as true patriots and the saviours of the State.

THE PRESIDENT'S HEALTH.—Two nights ago the President was taken with a cough, which was succeeded by a considerable bleeding from the lungs. He had suffered for some time previously with severe pain in his side. He was relieved from both unpleasant symptoms, in some degree, by the lancet. Night before last the hemorrhage from the lungs recurred, and was again stopped by the same process and other applications. He is now extremely weak from the effect of the disorder and the remedies, but is better, and considered by his physicians in no immediate danger. Many years ago he was affected in the same way, and recovered without serious injury, or even a long depression of his health.—Globe.

SELECTION, RUIN AND ARREST.—Yesterday morning, Mr. McGrath, Street Inspector of the Sixth ward, and City Marshal, brought to the Police Office, an interesting looking young girl, aged sixteen, named Phoebe Bedford, but who had assumed the name of Jones, and whom he found in and rescued from a house of infamy kept by Mrs. Blanchard, corner of Little Water and Anthony streets. Mr. McGrath had often seen from his own door, and in passing, this young girl in and about the house of the notorious Frances Adeline Miller, alias Mrs. Furman, No. 11 Orange street, where she had been for some months living in a state of prostitutional iniquity; and from her small size, and handsome and very youthful appearance, his sympathies were awakened in her behalf, and he nobly resolved to snatch her from her debased white, ale and beer, and all in one pot, your condition if possible.

Prior to the accomplishment of this purpose, however, she had removed, and it was some time before he could discover her retreat; and when he did, he induced her to go with him before a magistrate. In his conversation with her prior to and at the time of her being in custody, the girl made to him the following appalling statement:—She said she was the daughter of Mr. Aaron Bedford, of Morris-town—now deceased; and that her widowed mother now lived at Chatham, in Morris county. That above a year since, while living in her mother's house, her uncle—her mother's brother—whom she called Lewis Whitehead, came into her chamber at night, and effected her seduction and ruin.—That he subsequently brought her to this city, and placed her in the house of infamy in Orange street, kept by Mrs. Miller, alias Furman, where she remained for a time, until he abandoned and left her to pursue a career of licentiousness for a living; while he, about six months since, married another woman, and settled in Newark, where he carried on the business of a shoemaker, and where he resided when she last heard of him.

This ruined and rendered infamous by her own mother's brother, and thrown upon the world a derelict from reputation and virtue, she continued on in her licentious course until she was visited by and fell into the hands of Ezra Le Tower, a silver smith, now residing at Newark, New Jersey, who became what is falsely called her protector, and who removed her to the house of Mrs. Blanchard, where she was ultimately found by the officer, and rescued from the further unrelenting grasp of pollution, disease and death. In her examination before the magistrate, she with apparent ingenuousness and candor, detailed the dark story of her seduction, wrongs and woes, and seemed willing to forsake forever her course of licentious life, and to retire into the country, remote from the seats and scenes of her sorrows and disgrace. She was detained in custody of the Alms House officers, to be sent into the country when suitable arrangements can be made.

If her story is true, and if her own mother's brother was in fact the author of her ruin, his heart—if heart he has—must be utterly insensible to pity, shame and honor, and his bosom the filthy and fit apartment for a serpent's den. But if she has invented these stories to deceive, and with a malicious intent to destroy the peace and reputation of the parties implicated, she must be base and unprincipled indeed, for one so young and fair, and is unworthy to defile the atmosphere of liberty with her breath.—N. Y. Trans.

The Sultan Mahmoud is virtually half a Christian. It may not be generally known that his mother was a French lady of Martinique who was captured by Barbary corsairs on her passage to France and by a vagary of fortune ultimately installed in the Seraglio of the then Sultan as the favorite Sultana. From her Mahmoud has inherited his good sense, his chivalrous courtesy and his liberal principles.

THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.—Ascham, in the epistle prefixed to his "Foxophilus," 1571, observes that "Mayne English writers using strange wordes as Latine, Frenche, and Italian, do make all things darke and harde. Ones," says he, "I communed with a man which reasoned the English tongue to be enriched and encreased thereby, sayinge, 'Who will not prayse that feast, where a man shall drinke at a dinner both wyne, ale and beere?' Truly (quoth I) they be if al good every one taken by itselfe alone; but if you put mallesye and sack, redde wyne, and shall make a drinke neither easye to be known nor holsum for the bodye."

MARRIED. In Frederick, Md. on Thursday morning last, JOHN H WILLIAMS, Esq. Editor of the Political Examiner to Miss ELLEN SHRYVE, daughter of the Hon. Abraham Shriver, Judge of the 5th Judicial District.

DIED. Suddenly, in Cincinnati, on Tuesday night the 8th inst., WILLIAM HARTSHORNE, in the 62d year of his age. Mr. Hartshorne was a native of Virginia, from whence he removed to Baltimore, and from thence to Cincinnati, about fourteen years ago. He was remarkable for the most regular and correct habits, and in the fullest sense of the term, a practical Christian; in all the duties of husband, father, brother, friend, and citizen, he has left no superior behind him. To his relatives and those who knew him, his loss is irreparable; add to which he was emphatically the noblest work of God—an honest man:—

This all who knew him, know;
This all who loved him, tell.

NEW GOODS. ROBERT WASHINGTON & Co. have received an additional supply of New Goods, which, with their former stock, makes their assortment complete. nov 23—6t

$300 REWARD. RANAWAY from the subscriber, living in Prince George's County, Md., on the night of the 21st inst., three negro men, named Sam, Robert, and Bob.

SAM, calling himself Sam Lockwood, is 23 or 24 years old, about 5 feet 10 inches high, well made, of a dark color, with fine teeth and pleasant countenance, and wore when he left home large whiskers. He had on a jacket and pantaloons of light colored cotton and yarn, and a pair of new, heavy, hobbled shoes; but he may change his dress as he had other clothing.

ROBERT, (brother to Sam,) calling himself Robert Lockwood, is 25 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a small negro, not so dark as Sam, with rather a bad countenance when spoken to; has a fine head of hair, fine teeth, and altogether a good looking fellow. He wore away a roundabout of dark cotton and yarn, twilled, and blue twilled pantaloons considerably worn; he had on an old hat and a pair of new, heavy hobbled shoes.

BOB, calling himself Bob Norton, is about 25 or 26 years old, 6 feet high, spare but well made, fine teeth and hair, and a pleasant countenance. He wore pantaloons of blue twilled cotton and yarn, and roundabout of dark twilled cotton and yarn, but had other clothing with him. He went away with very old shoes.

I will give a reward of $50 for each of the above slaves if taken in the State of Maryland or District of Columbia, or $100 each if taken elsewhere and secured so that I get them again.

The above negroes are well acquainted in the District of Columbia, where one of them, Bob, has a sister residing. No doubt they will be found lurking thereabouts.

LANDS AND HOUSES & LOTS FOR SALE. BEING determined to go to the Western Country next Fall, the subscriber offers for sale, a great bargain, all of his Real Estate in the County of Prince William, consisting of his property in Greenwich, Buckland and Brentsville, and two Farms below Brentsville. The property at Greenwich consists of—

- 1st. Sixty-four and a half acres of Land, part in wood, on which there is a commodious dwelling House and all necessary out houses. It has been occupied several years as a House of Private Entertainment.
2. A large Store House and Granary.
3. A House and Lot, with a good Smoke House and a large Blacksmith Shop with two fires.
4. A House and Lot with all necessary out-houses, and a large Wheelwright and Carriage Maker's Shop.
5. A House and Lot and Brick Kitchen, suitable for a small family.
6. A House and Lot and Kitchen, suitable for a small family.

This property is in pretty good repair and cost me upwards of $3000, and rents for $260 a year. I will take $2000 cash for it, or would take a small advance on that sum and give a credit on part of the purchase money. To an enterprising man who would carry on the different branches of business, a great inducement is offered. The place is remarkably healthy and the neighborhood very desirable. There is a well of excellent water in the place sufficient for all purposes. Possession of the Store House and a dwelling could be had at Christmas. With the Shops I would sell the Tools belonging thereto.

The property at Buckland consists of—

- 1st. Two Houses and Lots suitable for small families, which rent for $50.
2. One half of the Tan Yard and fixtures now in the occupancy of Mr. Isaac Meeks.

This property is in a thriving and agreeable village, and will be sold to yield an interest of 12 1/2 per cent. on the purchase money. The property at Brentsville consists of Two large Lots, on which are erected two Dwelling Houses, a large Carriage Maker's and Blacksmith's Shop, and two small houses for shops.

This property is in the county town, which is fast improving, and where such property is constantly increasing in value. The rents will pay a handsome interest on the investment. Also—Two Farms adjoining, two and a half miles from Brentsville, one containing 140 acres, the other 173 acres. There is a comfortable House and Kitchen on one of the places and a thriving Apple Orchard. The two places have at least 200 acres in wood, and the wood and timber alone would sell for double as much as I am willing to take for them. I will sell both places for $750, and give a credit on part of the purchase money. These Farms lie near the contemplated route of the Alexandria and Falmouth Rail Road.

As the subscriber is determined to sell, he invites persons to look at the property and judge for themselves. He would take negroes or merchandise in part payment.
