The clearances at the bank clearing house today amounted to $21,932,590 91, and the balances paid in cash to $1,212,240 55. The set tlements were all promptly made and there was no occurrence on which to found a remark. We have little in addition to what was stated vesterday in relation to the suspension of the Mechanics Banking Association. The directors are still engaged in the investigation of the affairs of the bank, but the result of these labors have not yet transpired. Judge Peabody of the Supreme Court, this morning granted a temporary writ of injunction to restrain the Bank from paying out until further orders. The notes of the bank are received, we believe, by all the other banks on deposite.

The failure of Messrs. Adams & Buckingham was anounced yesterday, in addition to those mentioned in our paper. They were produce dealers, engaged in an extensive business, and had we believe some connection with Western banking firms. This morning the suspension of Messts Williams, Stevens & Williams was announced-an old and highly respectable house, more especially connected with the depart-and commenced cutting and slashing them. Mr. Wyone was severely cut on the head. face and arms; Mr. Nottingham received a eut on the head and Dr. Finch narrowly escaped having his head split open. After this the officer arrested Mr. D. S. Cherry, a well known citizen of Norfolk, as having been one of the parties connected with the assault on the sentry. A friend explained who Mr. C. was, and he was released. The Norfolk papers call loudly for an investigation of this affair by the proper authorities.

SERIOUS AFFRAY AT OLD POINT .- On Monday last the steamer Coffee, chartered by the Mechanical Guards, of Norfolk, Va., left that port on an excursion, and from the low price of tickets, took a number of rowdies along. Upon arriving at Old Point, a sentry on shore declined taking the rope of the steamer. for which he was badly beaten when the rowdies got on shore. The steamer then left. A short time after the Glen Cove, chartered by the Juniors of Norfolk, arrived at Old Point. on an excursion to the Capes, and several of the passengers stopped at the Point in uniform. A few moments after, an officer with fifteen dragoons from the fort, came on them.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT .-- Yesterday forenoon about 11 o'clock two gentlemen, one of whom we learn is from Luenburg and named The odore Strothers, were passing down the turnthe cedars on the side of the road.
