ONE DOLLAR WILL BUY ONE OF THE best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely: DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, OR LIVER REMEDY, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder, and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject its morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effecdoses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity. DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, namely, Gums.

Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel, without any of its deleterious effects.

Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physitil used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a tamily medily ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their

MISCELLANEOUS READING. MR. GOULD'S BOOK OF AUTOGRAPHS. [From the Home Journal, Oct. 24.]

We have, in our day, seen some vary valuable collections of autographs, and have studied the characteristics of an individual's hand writing in order to detect peculiarities of character; and have occasionally been tually, without any of the painful feelings ex- aware of a slight chill at coming thus sudperienced in the operations of most Cathartics. denly into contact with a personal souvenir It strengthens the system at the same time that of some of the great men of the world. But it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate nothing in the autograph line has ever excited in us so much interest and astonishment as a volume we have just finished examining. In exterior arrangement, it is a portly quarto, bound in morocco, containing about four hundred pages, and each page contains, en an average, some ten or twelve names-making an aggregate of perhaps four thousand. These names are those of distinguished Americans from the days of the Pilgrims to the present day: American authors for a similar period; British authors from a date antecedent to Shakespeare down to the contemporary writers of the three kingdoms: men of mark in medicine, theology, natural history, botany, music, the drams, and the fine arts; Napoleon with his family and marshals, and personages of the French revolution; and, finally, the royalty, nobility, military and naval celebrities of Europe for the past three centuries; and appended to almost every name is a briaf biographical statement of birth, death, etc., which, of itself, forms a tolerably complete biographical dictionary. The names, however, are not autographs; nor are they lithographs or engraved fac-simi . les of autographe; but they are pen-and-ink imitations of the signatures of the four thousand persous designated, all so precisely, we might almost say so absurdly accurate, as to be neither more nor less than identical with their originals, and all the work of one man! We have no hesitation in saying that this far transcends all other "ouriosities of literature," and it can be approached by nothing For an over-loaded stomach it has no equal, as that we have ever seen or heard of before in
