The Knock-out Blow.

The blow which knocked out Corbett The blow which knocked out Corbest was a revelation to the prize fighters. From the earliest days of the ring the knock-out blow was aimed for the jaw, the temple or the jugular vein. Stomach punches were thrown in to worry and weary the fighter, but if a scientific man had told one of the old fighters that the most vulnerable spot was the region of the stomach, he'd have laughed at him the stomach, he'd have laughed at him for an ignoramus. Dr. Plerce is bringing home to the public a parallel fact; that the somach is the most vulnerable organ out of he price ring as well as in it. We protect bur he as, throats, feet and lungs, but the thindship we are utterly indifferent to, until disched finds the solar plexus and knocks us out. Make your stomach sound and strong by the use of Dector Plerce's Golden Middeal Discovery, and you protect yoursalf in your most vulnerable spot.
