In Bad Fix

"I had a mishap at the age of 41, which left me in bad fix," writes Ars. Georgia Usher, of Conyers, Ga.
"I was unconscious for three days, and after that I would have fainting spells, dizziness, nervousness, sick headache, heart palpitation and many strange feelings.

"I suffered greatly with ailments due to the change of life and had 3 doctors, but they did no good, so I concluded to try Cardui.
"Since taking Cardui, I am so much better and can do all my housework."

The Woman's Tonic

Do not allow yourself to get into a bad fix. You might get in so bad you would find it hard to get out.

Better take Cardui while there is time, while you are still in moderately good health, just to conserve your strength and keep you in tip top condition.

In this way your troubles, whatever they are, will gradually grow smaller instead of larger—you will be on the up-grade instead of the down—and by and bye you will arrive at the north pole of perfect health.

FOR STATE-WIDE PROBIBITION. The Virginia Anti-Saloon League in Richmond yesterday decided to abandon the idea of local option as a mesns of driving out the liquor traffic and will now make a fight for a bill to submit the question of state-wide prohibition to the

It is not known when this bill will be introduced, nor is it at all positive that it will be introduced at this session of the legislature, according to a man high up in the councils of the lesgue. A member of the legisla ure who is opposed to state-wide prohibition, said yesterday hat if the league did not have the bill introduced the opposition would do so just to see it killed.

It is believed in Brussels that the engagement of Princess Clementine and Prince Victor Napoleon will be an-nounced on February 20, the date upon which the court's official mourning for the late King Leepold will be ended. The prince is a cousin of King Victor All Emmanuel of Italy. Leopoid opposed the marriage five years ago, on the ground that it might arrain the relations between Belgium and France, but the political of jections disapprared with the death of her father when Clementine necame the cousin of the reigning monarch of Belgium. Prime Victor is egarded by the royalists of France as hope of re-established monarchy, but has not concerned himself greatly
