LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:43 and sets at 5:45. High water at 6:49 a. m. and 7:05 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section unsettled weather with rain tonight. Tuesday partly cloudy and much colder; minimum temperature tonight about 32 degrees; variable winds, becoming moderate north and northwest.

THE WEATHER.

Conditions yesterday morning portended snow, but light rains fell before noon, and the weather was cold and murky throughout the remainder of the day and last night. Conditions were unchanged this morning. Heavy over-casts and warm fare will be in demand all over the country during the present week, according to the forecast made in Washington last night by the weather bureau. Unusually stormy and cold weather is the indication in practically all of the districts from the Rockies to the Atlantic coast and from the Rockies over the north Pacific states.

A storm area today and Tuesday will cross the central valleys, the great lakes and the Atlantic seaboard, attended by heavy snow in the northern, rain or sleet in the middle and rain in the southern parts of the country. Clear, cold weather will follow the storm, overspreading the Mississippi valley and the upper lakes today, reaching the Atlantic coast tomorrow and tomorrow night, with diminishing vigor.

A second storm, also to be followed by a cold wave, will appear in the extreme west about Tuesday, across the plains and central valley states Wednesday and Thursday and reach the Atlantic coast by Friday.

CUTTING AFFRAY.

A serious cutting affray took place about one o'clock yesterday morning between John Dugan and Ernest (Babe) Mills in which the former received serious cuts and Mills wounds which may cost him his life. His throat is cut, and he has a number of deep slashes across both arms and legs. He is suffering from loss of blood, and his condition is believed to be critical. The left side of Dugan's face was laid open, the gash starting at the top of his head and extending to his chin.

The affray took place in Dugan's house on Duke street near Union. Mills and Dugan are brothers-in-law. Mills attacked his brother-in-law with a knife, when Dugan disarmed Mills and used the knife on him.

The men's wounds were dressed by Dr. Walter A. Warfield, at his office on South Fairfax street. They refused to go to a hospital, and Dugan returned to his home, while Mills is at the residence of relatives on Prince street. No arrests have been made, but the case will be brought before the Police Court as soon as Mills is able to appear. Gilbert Price and Edward Mues, both colored, engaged in a fight in a house near the corner of Wolf and Henry streets Saturday night. Mues was cut across the forehead. Officers Arrington, Nicholson, Reid and Young arrested Price and Mues. They were brought before the Police Court this morning, when Price was dismissed, but Mues was fined $50 for having a pistol in his possession.

The Y. M. S. L. "Speed Boys" on Saturday night clinched the pennant in the Alexandria City League by defeating the strong A. L. I. team by a score of 29 to 8. The feature of the game was the fast team work and accurate goal shooting of the Lyceum's.

At a meeting of the representatives of the different quints of the basketball league, held yesterday, it was decided to disband the league. No definite reason is assigned for the disbandment.

A DEMENTED NEGRO.

A negro named Will Smith boarded the motor car of the electric train which left the Royal street station at 1:30 this afternoon for Washington and took a seat in the north end of the car which is reserved for white people. When the train reached Payne street Smith deliberately arose and put his arm around a lady who was sitting near him as attempting to kiss her when Conductor Mason rushed to the rescue and grabbed the negro. The train was held while a message was sent for an officer, and Chief Goods soon appeared and took charge of Smith. He was taken to the station house and locked up. The lady was on her verge of nervous prostration from her experience. Smith is a cackler to the shipyard. He joined church yesterday, and claims that he is the son of Jesus Christ. It is believed that he is demented.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Cato presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: John Bryant, colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5. Albert Brown, colored, charged with similar offense, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear. Charles Jackson, colored, charged with similar offense, was dismissed. Logan Smith, colored, charged with assault, was fined $10. Gilbert Price, colored, charged with assault, was dismissed. Edward Mues, colored, charged with carrying a pistol, was fined $50. The Lindner Shop for Ladies fine west has no equal, John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

The several committees having in charge the Masonic celebration to be held in this city tomorrow by the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, have practically completed all arrangements therefor and the occasion will be among the greatest in the Masonic history of Alexandria. The plans for the erection of a magnificent memorial temple in this city to Washington the Mason will be fully set forth and the Masons of the entire country will be asked to aid in the movement. The grand masters of all the states have been invited to be present and take part in the celebration and many of them have accepted, while many who will be unable to be present have sent greetings and expressed a sincere willingness to aid the meritorious undertaking.

Today a number of the grand masters and other prominent Masons arrived here, were met by members of Andrew Jackson and Alexandria-Washington lodges and escorted to the places assigned for their entertainment. Committees for that purpose have been at the lodge room all day and will be there tomorrow. The following is the programme for tomorrow's celebration:

9:30 a. m.—Meeting in Alexandria-Washington Lodge room to form national organization to erect a memorial to "Washington, the Mason." To this meeting have been invited the grand masters of all the grand lodges of the United States and other Masonic dignitaries, representing various Masonic bodies; the Grand Master of Masons in Virginia will preside. Many grand masters who will be unable to attend have designated senators to act in their stead.

12:30 p. m.—Adjourn for luncheon. 1:30 p. m.—Visit by special train to Mount Vernon to place wreath on the tomb of Washington.

4 p. m.—Conferring of degrees in Illinois form by a degree team constituted of grand lodge officers, grand lecturers and district deputy masters, coming from Chicago for this purpose. 7:30 p. m.—Annual banquet of Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, A., F. & A. M. at Armory Hall. Among the speakers of the occasion will be the Hon. Secretary of War, Mr. Dickerson; Hon. Champ Clarke, Hon. Wm. H. Mann, governor of Virginia; Hon. Jas. D. Richardson, Hon. C. C. Carlin and the Rev. John Wesley Hill, D. D., of New York.

A list of all the committees was published on Saturday. The Chicago delegates and the deputy grand master of Illinois, reached this city this evening. In addition to those above mentioned the grand lodges of North Dakota and of Texas will be reported tomorrow.

As there appears to be some misunderstanding about the celebration tomorrow, Mr. C. H. Callahan, master of the lodge, wishes to make it clear that all members of both lodges and all Masons residing in Alexandria will be admitted to the banquet without card. Two members of each lodge will be at the door of Armory Hall to identify the local members. It must be understood, however, that all will not be admitted to the conference of grand masters at 9:30 in the morning. This plan is absolutely necessary to prevent confusion at the meeting of grand masters.

There are lawyers who practice law and make a lot of fuss. But it is law, not lawyers, that practices on us. The law of necessity is everywhere as through this life we plod. But we do not feel its pressure like the man who carries a load. Immutible law, "by the sweat of the brow man shall eat his bread." And we are not at all sure man is free from law even when he is dead. The law of the living is hustle and strive as we eagerly onward press. And work day and night in our efforts to win the thing they call success.
