Sun rises tomorrow at 6.09 and sets at 6.09. High water at 1.13 a. m. and 1.44 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight and Friday; colder tonight; moderate northerly winds.

I. O. O. F.

The committee on the seventy-first anniversary of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows (which was instituted in this city on March 19, 1839) have about completed all arrangements for an interesting and instructive entertainment to the members of the order and their invited friends at the Young People's Building on next Monday night, March 21st.

The palace car "Mount Vernon" will leave Washington at 7.20 o'clock with the invited guests and the exercises will commence promptly at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be made by W. W. Millan, grand representative of Washington; Hill Montague, grand representative, of Richmond, Va., and John B. Goodwin, grand secretary of Baltimore, Md. Mr. Goodwin is a past grand sire of the order and was formerly mayor of Atlanta, Georgia.

Prof. H. Wheaton Howard will conduct the musical part of the program assisted ed by the Philharmonic quartette, prominent lady singers, including Mrs. Deyo, Mrs. Gilmore, Miss Hansen and Miss Chenoweth, all of Washington. The popular actor Mr. John M. Kline, will present dramatic readings and Prof Caldwell's orchestra will render selections during the evening.

The badge to be worn by the members of the Lodge on the occassion will be a scarlet flower, representing the color of the third degree, or Degree of Truth.

THE NEW CITY DIRECTORY.

The Hill Directory Company, of Richmond, have agreed with Mr. R. S. Barrett, the late publisher of the Alexandria City Directory, to take charge of and publish the City Directory for the year 1910. In order to make this book one of the very best that Alexandria has ever had, they ask the co-operation of all citizens. The Hill Directory Company will put The Alexandria Directory in the directory files of a very large number of cities in this country, where it is in constant use by merchants, traveling men, and inquiring ones. The Hill Directory Company is always anxious to add any new features to their directories, and will be glad to receive any suggestions looking toward the improvement of The Alexandria City Directory. They request all housekeepers and others to have their data ready when representatives of the company call.

CONVICTED OF LARCENY.

George L. Brown, the baggage man who while in the employ of the Southern Railway was arrested about a year ago on charges that he had stolen more than $10 000 worth of jewelry from baggage and express cars, was convicted yesterday in Criminal Court No. 1, in Washington. Brown offered no defense and noted an appeal. Brown's sole defense consisted of a motion made by his attorneys to quash the indictment on the ground that the larcenies, if any, occurred without the jurisdiction of the District of Columbia. Justice Gould held, however, that Brown's offense constituted a continuous larceny.

SENT TO GRAND JURY.

Bernard and Lawrence Petty, arrested on suspicion of robbing a Southern Railway freight car at Seminary station, were yesterday afternoon given a hearing in the Police Court room in this city before Justice Stuart, of Fairfax county, and held for the action of the grand jury. It will be remembered that sundry articles of millinery were found in the house, occupied by the Pettey's and that Bernard Pettey was seen coming down West End road at an early hour in the morning with a bag on his shoulder. He said he saw a strange man drop the bag and he picked it up and carried it to his home. The accused was represented by Mr. Gardner L. Boothe.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late A. C. Landstreet, who died at Mount Air, Fairfax county, on Tuesday, took place this afternoon from Pohick Church.

The deceased formerly kept a big commission house in Baltimore. He was the son of John Landstreet, who established the commission house in Baltimore, which the son afterward inherited. Shortly before the war the son disposed of the business and went to Fairfax county and bought a large farm which he cultivated.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Unusual St. Patrick's Day weather was not in evidence to day, although conditions have been threatening. Alexandria Division, No. 1, A. O. H., will celebrate the day with appropriate exercises to night in the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum Hall, after which the members will attend a banquet at Magner's Cafe. Two "men of straw" attracted attention early this morning. One had been placed in front of a house near the Southern Railway depot and another opposite a resort on north Lee street. The Irish flag was flying over Burke & Herbert's banking house.

Mr. L. B. Moore, of the U. S. internal revenue service, now stationed at the Mahoneyville distillery, near this city, entertained a number of his friends at that place today. The building was appropriately decorated for the occasion

THE APPROACHING FISHING SEASON.

The fishing season is drawing near, and receipts are increasing. There have, however, been no arrivals at Fishtown this year. Shad are selling at from $1 to $1.25 for roe, and from 40 to 50 cents for buck. Herring are bringing 50 cents per dozen, and perch are selling at 10 cents a pound.

MASK SOCIAL.

What promises to be one the most enjoyable affairs of the season is the masquerade dance to be given at Odd Fellows' Hall tomorrow night by the Cardinal Athletic Club. Judging from the advance sale of tickets a large crowd is expected.

A granolithic sidewalk has been placed in front of the Alfred street Baptist Church, Rev. Alex. Troutt, pastor. The work was done by Mr. S. P. Johnson.

The Lindner Shoe for Ladies fine wear has no equal. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

CONDEMNATION PROCEEDINGS.

Condemnation proceedings over a tract of land comprising about 1,155 acres, located in Fairfax county, near Occoquan, which the government desires as a site for a District of Columbia workhouse, were heard in this city today, in the United States Court for the eastern district of Virginia, Judge Edmund Waddill, presiding.

All the court officers were present. Judge L. L. Lewis, United States District Court, represented the government and Judge C. E. Nicol represented all the property owners in the case, viz:

L. A. Denty and wife, T. D. Violett and wife, G. W. Dawson and wife, J. T. Dawson and wife, J. L. Dawson and wife, Katherine C Holt and R. O. Holt her husband, W. S. Lynn and wife, Geo. Selecman, Julia T. Selecman, Redmond Selecman and wife, and George A. Selecman.

After the legal papers in the case had been received, Judge Nicol for the property owners, stated that by consent all his clients had agreed that the proceedings should be conducted as in one case, and that all had agreed as to the price at which they held their lands.

Twenty-four men had been summoned from which a jury of twelve could be selected to appraise the lands and the following were selected:

Courtney Acton, Henry Aitcheson, De W. Aitcheson, J. F. Birrell, L. Brill, O. F. Carter, F. C. Creighton, A. P. Doniphan, R. E Grover, W. P. Graves, Worth Hufish and H. B. Quinn.

As stated above, the price had been agreed upon and the jury returned a verdict assessing the value of the 1,154.70 acres in question at $28,648.84, which includes interest for about nine months and the price of a rock crusher, or at an average of about $18 per acre. The court thereupon entered an order approving the verdict of the appraisers and ordering a distribution of the money by Judge Nicol. Those whose lands have been taken and the money they will receive are as follows: L. A. Denty, 212.65 acres, $3,349.24; T. D. Violett, 25 25 acres, $397.69; G. W. Dawson, 15 50 acres, $244.13; Mrs. K. C. Holt, 309.80 acres, $12,480 50; W. S. Lynn, 112.50 acres, $2,244 38; Geo. Selecman, 83 acres, $1,743; Julia F. Selecman, 100.70 acres, $1,586 02. R. and G. A. Selecman, 57.90 acres, $1,063 91; J. L. Dawson, 237.40 acres, $5,539.96.

ASSISTANT POSTMASTER.

Mr. J. Armistead Eggborn, who was recently appointed by the president to be postmaster at Alexandria to succeed Mr. T. F. Burroughs, today announced the appointment of Mr. Donald L. Aitcheson to be his assistant. Mr. Eggborn and Mr. Aitcheson will enter upon their new duties about April 1st. The salary of the postmaster is about $2,700 and that of the assistant $1,400. Mr. Eggborn, as heretofore stated, has been connected with the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation in this city for a number of years and has proved himself to be a very competent officer of that institution. He will doubtless make an excellent postmaster. Mr. Aitcheson has resided in Alexandria all his life and is well and most favorably known in the city. For a number of years he has been employed in the government navy yard at Washington as a first class machinist. He was highly recommended for his new position by the leaders of the republican party in this city and his appointment meets with the approbation of a host of friends. He will succeed Mr. J. T. Johnston.

ASSAULTED A WOMAN.

William Lomax, colored, was before the Police Court this morning charged with using abusive and threatening language toward Ida Foard, also colored. The trouble arose over the ownership of some discarded railroad ties. The evidence was to the effect that Lomax picked up a brick and threatened to throw it at the woman. Justice Caton fined the accused $5. He was exceedingly loquacious and persisted in talking after the case had been disposed of, and had to be forced out of the dock and downstairs by an officer. Lomax paid his fine and is said to have remarked as he left the station house that he could not get justice before the Police Court, but would obtain it somewhere else. He subsequently met the Foard woman and unmercifully beat her, and when she returned to the station house her face was bruised and cut and she was bleeding profusely. A warrant was issued for the rearrest of Lomax.

SALE OF STRANDED STEAMER.

The steamer Chatham, of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company, ashore on the jetty at the entrance to St Johns river, Florida, was purchased yesterday by A. R. Wilson, of Washington. The price paid was $3,000 for the steamer and an additional $150 for what cargo still remains in the vessel. What interests were represented by Mr. Wilson and whether the steamer would be floated by a wrecking company or broken up for old junk cannot be ascertained. The Chatham was an iron screw steamer of 2,729 gross tons and 1,909 net tons register, 265 feet long, 40 feet beam and 24 feet deep. She was built in 1884.

WEDDING.

Mr. J. Fletcher Heard, of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Evelyn Hall, of Washington, formerly of Richmond, were married at Grace Church at 5:30 o'clock yesterday evening, Rev. Mr. Carpenter officiating. The ceremony was quiet, only a few friends being present. Mr. Heard is the electrical inspector for the Postal Telegraph Company with headquarters at Atlanta. Miss Hall was at one time connected with the postal main office at Washington. After the ceremony the party left this city via the Southern for Atlanta, which will be their future home.

THE SMITH CASE.

A final plea for the life of Henry Smith, the fourth negro convicted of aiding in the murder of Walter F. Schultz, and sentenced to die in the electric chair tomorrow, was made to Governor Mann by Attorney Frederick P. Russell today. The three other negroes have been respited until May 13.

ACCIDENT TO A BRAKEMAN.

Brakeman Kennedy fell from the roof of a car in the Potomac railroad yards last night and was painfully injured on the head. He was brought to this city and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where he was attended by Dr. Smith.

Standard Army Shoes for men. The most comfortable and durable shoe made can be had at J. A. Marshall & Bros.' 422 King street.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Amos George, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

William Lomax, colored, charged with using abusive language toward Ida Foard, also colored, was fined $5.

Samuel Nichols, colored, charged with assaulting Lawrence Pierce, also colored, with a brick, was fined $10.

MISSING DECKHAND.

A colored deckhand (whose name could not be learned) was found to be missing when the steamer Three Rivers, from Baltimore, reached Glymont Tuesday night. He was last seen at Liverpool Point, and it is supposed he fell overboard from a ladder which extends from the gangway on the outside of the steamer, to the upper deck.

CHARTER.

A charter has been granted to the Southern Realty Company (Inc.), Alexandria, J. R. Hayden, president, Alexandria, Joseph Hayden, treasurer, Omaha, Neb; A. R. Nicoll, secretary, Alexandria, capital: Maximum, $50,000; minimum, $50,000. Objects: Real estate business.

PERSONAL.

Mr. William M. Larmour, who has been in Alexandria during the past seven weeks, left today for a visit to relatives in Baltimore county, Md.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Invitations are out for the masquerade ball to be given on April 5, by the Easter Lily Club.

The Lighthouse Board has authorized the establishment of three gas buoys to warn Maryland Point channel, Smith Point channel and Chicomuxen creek shoal. They will replace buoys 36, 44 and 52.

At a meeting of the board of police commissioners last night Mr. Thomas Fisher was elected secretary to succeed the late Zoro Hill. The other business transacted was of a general nature.

In a row last night between Samuel Nichols, and Lawrence Pierce both colored, the former threw a brick at the latter and cut his head. Dr. Warfield attended the injured man. The assailant was fined $10 in the Police Court this morning.

The meeting of the Society for the Restoration of Historic Alexandria, to have been held last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, was postponed till after Easter.

The Arabian night was still and balmy Sofiie the limpid waters of the Bosphorus lulled to sleep the beautiful daughter of Sheik Ali Hassan. In her dreams there came the King of the Magi. Marvelling at her extreme beauty, he transported her to a foreign land. The scream of an eagle proclaimed it the land of liberty and those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages, Hams, and food products from the Auth market made it the most delightful place to live in, imaginable. THE SENATORSHIP.

Having thought so much about the problem of the successorship of Senator Daniel the members of the legislature and others last night naturally had their minds turned toward the personnel of the new Senator. As stated in The Times-Dispatch of yesterday, it was recognized that Congressman Flood's name would doubtless receive favorable consideration from the executive. Of course, the name of Ex-Governor Swanson was most to be heard. Later in the day a new phase came into the situation, when Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd was suggested. Among the other names heard in this connection were those of Ex-Governor Andrew Jackson Montague, Senator George B. Keezell, Governor William Hodges Mann, Henry C. Stuart and Allen Caperton Braxton. As to the latter, of whom it was said some years ago that he would be likely to succeed Senator Daniel should the latter retire, it was speedily learned that he had said that he had no aspirations of that sort.—[Richmond Times Dispatch.

The opinion is being freely expressed that should Governor Mann be called upon to appoint he will name Congressman Flood of the Tenth district, who had largely to do with Mr. Mann's campaign for governor. Mr. Flood is perhaps Senator Martin's closest personal and political friend, and his selection would no doubt be gratifying to the junior senator.

WANTED TO BURN TO DEATH.

Keeping a close watch on a pretty but seemingly despondent girl of 17, who asked him for matches early yesterday, Policeman Doyle saw the young woman, who subsequently said she was Esther Kaplan, light a fire of paper and twigs in Tompkins Park, at Avenue A and Seventh street, New York, and then sit on the flames.

At the first sign of the blaze Doyle ran into the park. He yelled to the girl to get away from the flames, but she paid no attention to him. Her clothing was on fire when he reached the scene. When he seized her to drag her away she fought him desperately for a few minutes and pleaded with him not to extinguish the names that were consuming her clothing. After the fire had been put out she wept.

"Why don't you let me alone?" she cried, "I have no friends. Everybody in the world is against me. Nobody seems to care for me or want me around. I know I would be better dead than alive."

The emaciated appearance of the girl and her rambling talk of wanting to die, coupled with the fact that she had been badly burned, induced Doyle to call an ambulance from Bellevue Hospital. Dr. Baskerville said he believed the girl's sorrow had affected her mind. He removed her to the hospital for observation.

Virginia News.

Mrs. Virginia M. Harris, widow of Judge John T. Harris, for many years representative from the Seventh district of Virginia, died in St. Louis yesterday.

Judge William Gordon Robertson, for 20 years a leading lawyer of Roanoke and the first judge of the Corporation Court of that city, died Tuesday midnight of heart trouble, aged 54 years.

Judge William Gordon Robertson, 54 years old, died at his home in Roanoke yesterday morning. He was the first judge of the Corporation Court of Roanoke and held office for two terms and refused reappointment.

Martin Hughey, 18 years old, of Schoolfield, a suburb of Danville, was instantly killed yesterday, and Samuel Wiles, 19 years old, of Greensboro, N. C., was fatally injured when they were struck by a southbound passenger train on the Southern Railway near Pelham, eight miles south of Danville.

Edward S. Kelly, 30 years old, of Machipongo, near Cape Charles, died Tuesday night in a peculiar way. While walking along the road he was stricken with epilepsy and fell with his face into a small pool which contained less than a gallon of water. He died of strangulation.

Edwin A. Herndon, managing editor of the Lynchburg News, and a prominent newspaper man of the state, was killed late yesterday afternoon by a fall from a horse which he was riding. His skull was fractured, and death ensued half an hour later, the victim never having recovered consciousness.

James A. Stone, one of the most successful business men of Southwestern Virginia, was yesterday appointed by the State Corporation Commission to fill the position of assessor of mineral lands of the Commonwealth. Mr. Stone lives at Bristol. The office was created by the present legislature, at the solicitation of Judge William F. Rhea, of the commission, who has general charge of this branch of the work.

PRIEST TO STUDY BLACK HAND.

Rev. Dr. J. Adolph Cascianelli has resigned the pastorate of St. Anthony's Italian Catholic Church of Canton, Ohio, to fill an appointment to investigate the Italian situation in the United States in an effort to get at the root of Italian crime, particularly Black Hand outrages.

It will require about four years. When the report of the findings is made to the pope it will contain suggestions for the remedy of these conditions from a religious standpoint.

The movement is Rev. Dr. Cascianelli's own conception. He went before Rt Rev. Diomede Falconio, apostolic delegate to the United States, at Washington and presented his plan. The apostolic delegate took the matter under advisement with his counselors. Their conference ended with a complete approval of the proposition, and the appointment of Father Cascianelli to carry it out.

He will take up his duties Monday and will work in the Canton diocese, making Cleveland his temporary headquarters, and will continue his work through one diocese after another until he has toured the entire United States.

"It is the aim of this movement," said Father Cascianelli, "to increase religious restraint upon the Italians of this country, to help them control their fiery tempers."

COURT OF APPEALS.

The proceedings of the Court of Appeals were as follows:

Carnegie Trust Company et als. vs. Security Life Insurance Company of America, Inc., et als. Fully argued and submitted.

Fisher vs. Borden et alas. Argued and submitted.

Minick vs. Woods. Submitted on briefs.

The American-Japanese Agreement?

London, March 17.—The English Foreign Office professes to be in ignorance today of the reported overtures of Japan to America for an American-Japanese agreement regarding far eastern questions.

The report is generally discredited, but nothing would please England more than for it to develop that Japan has taken this step. A diplomatic equitable with Japan would give England the desired opportunity of breaking the recently-formed Anglo-Japanese alliance, which, in view of a possible conflict between Japan and America, is proving the most unpopular diplomatic move of England in several years.

The foreign office says it does not know whether the reported overtures contemplate the practical abrogation of the Anglo Japanese pact, or the inclusion of America in a triangular agreement. It is unlikely England would consider a triangular arrangement, as it would tend to perpetuate the Anglo Japanese agreement.
