DROWNED.

Maurice H. Joyce, a stock broker of Washington, was drowned off Quantico Saturday night by the overturning of a rowboat. Joyce left Washington Saturday evening in the motor boat Quantico. A man and a boy was in the boat with him. A stop was made at Alexandria where Mr. Frank Hamilton, of this city, was taken aboard. After reaching Quantico the party went ashore and proceeded to a bungalow. Llater Mr. Joyce and the man and boy who had accompanied him from Washington entered a small boat and started toward the motor boat which was at anchor about fifty yards away, Mr. Hamilton remaining on the shore. A swift tide which was running at the time upset the boat, throwing the occupants into the water. Mr. Joyce was unable to swim, and was drowned, but the others managed to reach shore. The body was soon recovered, and it passed through this city shortly before noon yesterday on a Washington-Southern train for Washington. The Quantico was formerly the motorboat George Washington which was one of the prizes awarded at the fair recently given in Armory Hall for the benefit of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons.

William Krause, 45 years old, who made his home on a houseboat anchored in the Potomac river at the foot of Thirty-second street northwest Washington went out on the river in a small rowboat Saturday night. He has not been seen since. The rowboat containing a small stock of provisions and Krause's hat and coat, was found adrift in the river yesterday afternoon and it is feared Kranse fell overboard and was drowned.

Krouse's body was found today.

PUBLIC MEETING.

A public meeting was held at Roberts Chapel M. E. Church yesterday, Sunday, evening at 3 o'clock in the interest of the industrial departments of the colored public schools of Alexandria. At the request of the teachers the clerk of the School Board presided in the absence of the superintendent who was out of the city. The programme was as follows: Prayer by Rev. G. W. W. Jenkins, pastor of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church; music by the choir, P. H. Lumpkins, precento; history of the industrial department, by R. D. Lyles; history of industrial department, by Bessie K. Spriggs; address by Dr. Bruce Evans, principal Armstrong, Manual Training School, of Washington, D. C., subject, "What Our Boys and Girls Need;" music by the choir; remarks by Rev. Alexander Truatt, pastor of Alfred street church; remarks by Rev. G. W. W. Jenkins, pastor of Roberts Chapel, M. E. Church; music by the choir. The addresses were all good and the speakers advised the children to learn to work and train their hands as well as their minds. The music was well rendered and the meeting was calculated to do much good. The reports made of the work accomplished by the pupils showed excellent progress.

MOTION OVERRULED.

As was stated in the Gazette of that day Judge J. B. T. Thornton, of the Circuit Court for this city, in special session on Saturday, heard arguments on a motion for a new trial of the suit or McMenamin against the Southern Railway, in which the plaintiff last month was granted $2,250 damages, alleged to have been caused to poperty on upper Duke street by smoke and soot from the defendant company's locomotives.

The arguments were made by Mr. Robert B. Tunstall, of Norfolk, general counsel for the railway company, and Col. Francis L. Smith, of Alexandria, division counsel for the company, and by Judge J. K. M. Norton and Mr. Edmund Burke for Mr. McMenamin.

At the conclusion of the arguments Judge Thornton overruled the motion for a new trial and an appeal was noted.

A RAINY SUNDAY.

There was rain during the most of yesterday and at times last night. At an early hour this morning the wind changed to the northwest and clearing conditions followed. Cold weather and frost are reported in some portions of the country, while hot waves have settled over other sections. According to some prognostications, seasonable weather is in transitu, while others are predicting frost for every month in the year as an outcome of the visit of Halley's comet.

MR. CARLIN.

Hon. C. C. Carlin, of Alexandria, addressed the graduates of Front Royal College here on Tuesday evening. His address made a deep impression upon the people of our town, and we hope to have the opportunity of having him here again. Mr. Carlin left on the early train Wednesday morning for Bethel Military Academy, where he addressed the cadets of that institution.—[Front Royal Sentinel.

COLORED MAN SLASHED.

Webster Churchill, colored, was cut on the face, neck and hands by Charles Loudoun, colored, at Churchill's house, 820 Queen street, last night. The cutting, it is said, was the outcome of a dispute earlier in the night in a saloon over twenty-five cents. Loudoun, it is alleged, returned to the house twice and at one time discharged a pistol at Churchill's brother. The assailant made his escape and is still at large.

The monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, will be held tonight.

"They come high." "The best are the cheapest." Our people want them and we say to the ladies you can see J. T. Cousin's Exclusive styles at 422 King street, J. A. Marshall & Bro.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret M. Roberts, wife of Mr. Frank R. Roberts took place at 9 o'oclock this morning from St. Mary's Church. The interment was in St. Mary's cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. George E. Price, John Travers, Frank Heyward, John Massey, H. B. Richards and Henry Ridgway.

THE GAZETTE.

The people of Alexandria and a good many elsewhere were treated to a surprise last Thursday, and it was also shown that Alexandria is no longer either a "dead or old fashion town," when our neighbor, the Gazette, put on a brand new dress, and came out in enlarged form. We congratulate our neighbor upon its improvemont and upon the change made. The old Gazette has lived long and prosperously. The Gazette is an institution of Alexandria, and is one that is more closely identified with the interests of the town than any other one of its interests. Its life of 111 years proves that it has been ably and successfully handled. —[Alexandria Sunday Times.

METHODIST PROTESTANT SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The annual childrens' day service of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School was held last night in the auditorium of the church. Notwithstanding the inclement weather every seat was filled long before the opening bell was sounded. The programme, which consisted of recitations, dialogues and carols were beautifully rendered at the conclusion. Mr. J. M. Holmes, jr., of Baltimore, son of the pastor, was introduced and made a stirring address in the interest of foreign missions. The total amount contributed by the classes last night was $63, which is the largest offering made by the school for many years past.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning.

George Minick, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was sent to jail for 30 days.

Summerfield Brooks, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

George Draper and Sherman Brown, charged with being drunk in the street, were dismissed.

Charles Daniels, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5.

A white man, charged with harboring a vicious dog, was dismissed, after he had consented to the killing of the dog.

SPECIAL SERMON.

About 25 members of Post F, Virginia Division, Travelers' Protective Association, last night attended the service in the Second Presbyterian Church. Rev. J. R. Sevier, pastor of the church and chaplain of Post F, delivered a special sermon. The members of the post met at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce and marched to the church in a body.

YESTERDAY.

Yesterday was a dismal rainy day. The rain commenced about 11 o'clock Saturday night and continued at intervals till this morning when the sun came out. The churches yesterday were but slimly attended and very few people were on the streets. The services were conducted by the resident clergy.

ACCIDENT TO A COLORED CHILD.

Thomas Haley, a two-year-old colored child, whose parents live at 615 north Henry street, was run down yesterday afternoon by a Southern Railway engine and had his left arm horribly mangled. The child was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where the arm was amputated by Dr. J. M. Hopkins.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

The Cardinal Athletic Club will line-up tomorrow against the Brentwood Juniors on the old fair grounds at five o'clock. Schofield and Patterson will be the battery for the Cardinals. A fast game of ball is looked for, as both teams have been playing good ball this season.

MEAL FOR CONDEMNED DOG.

A man was before the Police Court this morning charged with harboring a vicious dog. He agreed to allow the canine to be killed. The dog was placed in a cell and an order issued sentencing it to death tonight. This afternoon the owner of the animal appeared at the station house with a substantial meal for the brute. It consisted of two egg sandwiches, a fried oyster and a slice of sweet potato pie.

J. and T. Cousin's Fine Lustral Colt and Black Russian Lusitania Pumps and Oxfords, Weldt and Turn's price $5.00; our price $4.00. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

JOHNSON, PINES AND DORSEY CASE.

Gov. Mann has notified Mr. Lewis H. Machen, counsel for Calvin Johnson, one of the three colored men sentenced to be electrocuted next Friday for participation in the murder of Walter F. Schultz, that he will not announce before Wednesday what his action will be in the cases of Johnson, Richard Pines and Eugene Dorsey.

Mr. Machen had a conversation this morning over the long-distance telephone with Dr. Carrington, who is the surgeon of the penitentiary and superintends the electrocution of condemned men in that institution. Mr. Machen asked him whether Henry Smith, the negro who was electrocuted last Friday for participation in the murder of Schultz, a Chicago artist, knew that he was going to die or whether there was any truth in the surmises that Smith thought he was being put through some kind of a third degree. Dr. Carrington stated that Smith was perfectly aware that he was going to die and told every one goodby. In transit from the death chamber to the chair he made the statement that he was innocent of the crime for which he was about to die and that Johnson, Pines and Dorsey were innocent. After making this statement, Smith never made nor attempted to make any other remark and was dead within a space of two minutes. Dr. Carrington stated very emphatically that he would not be a party to any third degree foolishness in a case of that kind, nor would he permit such a thing at the penitentiary, if he knew it. He stated that he did not know of the test to which Smith was subjected on the previous occasion until afterward.

Smith's wife stated this morning that she received a letter from him written at 10 o'clock the night before his execution in which he said he knew he was going to die the next morning. In this letter he reiterated that he, Pines Johnson and Dorsey were innocent. She furthermore said that Smith told her the same thing in March, 1909, but told her he was obliged to tell a different story to save himself.

In a letter received last week from Smith by one of the lawyers in the case Smith said: "At first I tried to save myself, but afterward I was willing to give my life to save the other men because they were innocent."

THE CITY'S POPULATION.

While no official information has yet been given out concerning the census recently taken, it is learned on what is said to be good authority that instead of the first report given out to the effect that the city of Alexandria had lost in population during the past ten years, that as a matter of fact the city's population has increased and has passed the 15,000 mark. It is hoped that this information may be correct.

CALLS AUTOS A CURSE.

In his baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of Syracuse, New York, University yesterday morning, Chancellor Day directed an attack upon the automobile industry as being non-productive, declared that the American public spent more money on their dogs than on their preachers of the Gospel, and said that the man who brings a home to a woman is greater than the suffragette or the female temperance lecturer.

The automobile, he declared, was a curse to the public. Dr. Day urged self-denial, telling the class to get along without things until they could afford them. Mechanics, clerks and business men, he said, were mortgaging their homes to purchase automobiles, and through the automobiles were losing their homes and their positions.

"Take a broad and apparent illustration," he said. "The number of young men who are coursing through the country in automobiles is appalling. It is becoming a question of whether that most fascinating of all road conveyances is not a curse to the people."
