Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind.

It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

"After my doctor had done all he said he could for me," writes Mrs. Wm. Hilliard, of Mountainburg, Ark., "I took Cardui, on the advice of a friend, and it helped me so much.

"Before taking Cardui, I had suffered from female troubles for five years, but since taking it, I am in good health.

"I think there is some of the best advice in your book that I ever saw." Your druggist sells Cardui. Try it.

Noah's Anchors.

A story of a pair of anchors is told in the book entitled "To Kairwan the Holy."

Kairwan is the Mecca of the west. It is a city so sacred that women are allowed to move about in it but very little. One of the interesting sights is the Mosque of Emir Ben Said Bon Mughtah. This mosque, with its six melon shaped domes, is the tomb of a most amusing old Moslem who died about the middle of the last century. He had great power over the bey and managed affairs according to his own pleasure. This Moslem got possession in Tunis of four large anchors which probably belonged to some old men-of-war abandoned on account of stress of weather. The gentleman with the long name was not content with any such prosaic explanation of their origin. By means of the labor of 500 Arabs he had the anchors dragged from Tunis and deposited in front of his house. The transportation took five months. He then declared them to be the anchors by which Noah fastened the ark to Mount Ararat. The relics are now in the mosque of their former owner and are regarded as holy.

His Rules of Golf.

A lawyer of considerable prominence took up the game of golf. Some of his friends volunteered chapters of advice, while another presented to the beginner a book of rules. After completing his first round the counselor was asked if he had mastered the rules. The perspiring lawyer realized the sarcasm of the remark, but proved equal to the occasion. "The rules? Oh, they are quite simple," he replied. "There are two I know of, and to my mind they are the most important. You must hit the ball with your club, and after you have hit it you must find it, of course, before you hit it again. It will take an honest man several weeks to master these two rules. After driving the ball you must hit it wherever it lies. Good lies are as important in golf as in fishing. Losing a ball costs you two strokes and the price of the ball. Hitting a caddie with the ball is justifiable homicide."—New York Tribune.

Butler's Reply.

There was a time, while Lyman Trumbull was chairman of the senate committee on judiciary, that Benjamin Butler was chairman of the judiciary committee of the house. It was at this period that a delegation from one of the southern states visited Washington with a desire to secure the impeachment and removal of the federal judge of their state. They interviewed Mr. Butler as to the probability of carrying such a measure through that session.

"I don't know," was Mr. Butler's reply; "I am chairman of the judiciary committee of the house. The necessary action can be had here. But Lyman Trumbull is chairman of the senate committee, and Judge Trumbull is troubled with two things—the dyspepsia, which makes him miserable, and conscience, which makes him uncertain."

Ginseng's Growth.

The manner of the ginseng's growth gives it a queer shape and in some cases fabulous value. There is first a main root or trunk. Then on the sides there will be smaller roots, one on a side, and by a curious formation the offshoots resemble arms and legs, so that the full grown ginseng looks for the world like a human figure. The more the fancied likeness to the human form is developed the greater the value, according to some of the Chinese. The root as an herb has wonderful properties, but, too, so much beyond is the value of one that looks human. The others will cure cancers and all sorts of other diseases, but the precious one having the human shape will keep off devils and all bad luck.—Argonaut.

Not His Fault.

A story is told of a well known Sheffield tenor who when asked to sing at a dinner, although he had no music with him, went on to the platform to try.

He did his best, but he broke down in the middle and retired.

He was cheered up by an elderly man sitting next to him, who tapped him on the shoulder and said:

"Never mind, lad; tha's done thy best, but t' feller at asked thee to sing owt to be shot!"—London Telegraph.

Had to Do It.

Hogan—Phwat makes ye swally all your dinner in two minutes, Grogan? Are yez atin' on a bet? Grogan—It's for the good av me dyspepsy, Moike. Sure, the docther tould me to rist an hour after atin', and how else am Oi goin' to get the hour to rist in onless Oi ate loike the divil?—Boston Transcript.

The Higher Court.

"The courts have decided that a woman has no right to open her husband's mail."

"My wife reversed that decision before it was made."—Houston Post.

Still Young.

Teacher—I am surprised that you are not further advanced. You are extremely backward for your age. Little Girl—Yes'm. Mamma wants to marry again.

A Medical Opinion.

"Doctor, how do you account for the existence of rheumatism?"

"The mind, my dear sir, evolved the disease to fit the word."—Chicago Tribune.

The best rosebush, after all, is not that which has the fewest thorns, but that which bears the finest roses.—Henry Van Dyke.

Winter Homes Folder, Season 1910-1911

It is suggested that any of our readers who desire to entertain boarders for the ensuing winter months furnish Mr. L. S. Brown, General Agent, Southern Railway, 705 Fifteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C., immediate information as to name of resort, postoffice address, at or near what station, what distance from station, conveyance from station to house, number of guests, terms per day, week and month.

We all would be pleased to see the country full of boarders next winter and would be glad if this notice will induce increased number of persons who will accommodate them for the coming winter months.

This information should reach Mr. Brown not later than August 1, as the folder goes to press on August 3, and any requests received later than the 1st will not be able to be inserted.

HOT WEATHER COMFORT

An electric fan will cool your office, store, shop or any room in your house.

Electric lights give off less heat than any other method of illumination and do not consume the oxygen in the air.

An electric iron does not require a hot fire in the room nor the necessity of walking back and forth between the board and the iron.

Call on us for facts and figures.

I've had my little outing where pleasure and business did combine;
And I'm back again to business of the staid and regular kind.

YES, the senior member of Cameron Dairy Lunch is back again to regular business. "REGULAR." Do you known that I like this word? It means the elimination of doubt and uncertainty. It means correct methods that rarely fails to produce good results. YES, I am back from Atlantic City having left "HUMAN LIFE" in the capable hands of Mr. RALPH OLIVIT, who is giving the visitors of that resort the biggest literary value in magazines ever offered to the reading public. Alexandrians visiting this resort will do well to call on him. Booth 145, Exposition Building, Boardwalk and Kentucky Avenue. So I am back to regular business and invite you all to be regular lunchers at the CAMERON DAIRY LUNCH, 905 King St. Open all night.
