LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table. Sun rises tomorrow at 5:59 and sets 5:38. High water at 9:10 a. m. and 9:19 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday; comparatively warm; moderate to brisk southerly winds.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Pursuant to adjournment, another meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be held tonight. At a special meeting last week, it was decided that the board act as a committee of the whole for the purpose of endeavoring to prepare a way out of the deadlock which occurred on the first of September when many viva voce votes were taken in efforts to elect a president.

So far as can be learned, there is at present no evidence that either side is weakening. It is still said to be four-to-four. The committee of the whole will meet at 7 o'clock tonight when attempts will be made to bring about conditions under which a president can be elected.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.

Services appropriate to the Jewish New Year were held in the synagogue on north Washington street at seven o'clock last night. The services were conducted by Rabbi Maurice Krohn-gold, of Cincinnati. The music was well rendered and everything in connection with the services was conducted in an interesting and impressive manner.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night in the absence of the commander, Lieut. Com-mander J. W. Hammond presided. The meeting was well attended. The committee appointed at a previous meeting reported resolutions on the death of the late Commodore Wm. H. May, W. P. Woodley and Jno. S. Greene reported and the resolutions were ordered to be spread upon the minutes of the camp and copies sent to the families of the deceased.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church this morning at 9 o'clock when Rev. L. F. Kelly united in wedlock, at nuptial mass, Mr. James Edward Madden, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Ida Regina Creegan, of this city. The bridal party was selected in accordance with the Lohengrin wedding march. The groom was attended by Mr. Francis F. Cleary, of Washington, and the bride by her sister, Miss Helen Elizabeth Creegan. The altar was brilliantly lighted with numerous electric lights and candles and decorated with green plants and exotics.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: Joseph Harris, colored, charged with assaulting Emma Thompson with a brick, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear, and a warrant was issued for his arrest.

ADDRESS ON VITAL THEME.

Rev. G. W. Painter, D. D., for 37 years a missionary of the Presbyterian Church, at Hong Chow, China, will give an address at the Second Presbyterian Church, tomorrow, Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. His theme will be "Conditions in the Far East in Relation to Foreign Missions." Every student of modern history, as well as of missions, is invited to hear this scholar on this living subject.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.

Notwithstanding other attractions the Opera House was filled last night and the vaudeville and pictures were given better than predicted in this paper. A dedication only occurs once in a long while, but the good show will continue indefinitely at the New Opera House. Come out tonight.

SHOES LESS THAN HALF PRICE.

Misses' Shoes that cost to manufacture $1.50 and $1.75, and sold at $2.00 and $2.50, will be sacrificed at 98c per pair. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

DEDICATION OF ELKS' HALL.

A Gala Day and Night—Alexandria Lodge, No. 758, B. P. O. E., Open their New Home—A Day and Night of Unalloyed Pleasure.

The new Elks' hall on Prince street, near Royal, was the scene of happy gatherings yesterday and last night. The structure had been virtually opened to the public all day, and hundreds of Alexandrians as well as many people from Washington and other cities had been passing in and out for hours before the building was formally thrown open for the reception of the ladies and children.

After a brief session of the lodge, at which the impressive ritual of the order was exemplified, the open dedication services were proceeded with. After the preliminaries Mr. Geo. T. Caton, grand esquire, presented Mr. Louis E. Shuman, president of the board of trustees, with the keys of the entire building. Then followed music by Cohen's orchestra.

After the preliminary of the order was exemplified, the open dedication services were proceeded with. After the preliminaries Mr. Geo. T. Caton, grand esquire, presented Mr. Louis E. Shuman, president of the board of trustees, with the keys of the entire building.
