ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY.

A meeting was held last night of the Board of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, whose present being Miss Rose MacDonald, Chairman; Mrs. David Howell, Mrs. Wm. J. Boothe, Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, Misses Fanny Herbert, Nanny Norton, Helen Cummings and Dr. Wm. Smith, who is chairman of the Advisory Board. The other members being Judge Norton, Messrs E. S. Leadbeater, Robert Jones, A. D. Brockett, Julian Williams, C. S. T. Burke and David J. Howell.

Plans were formulated for a dinner, supper and sale which is to be given on November 10, Mrs. David Howell being chairman of the committee having it in charge. The time has come, the Society holds, when the annual loss of lives from consumption—a preventable disease—is a blot on our civilization. "When we knew not we could not be blamed for our want of initiative and lack of energy, but now that we know inaction is criminal," it is the desire of the society to bring home to the people the immense importance of observing certain fundamental principles of hygiene, not only in their own immediate interest, but in the interest of those with whom they are most closely associated. The carrying on of this movement requires funds, and the first move of the society towards acquiring this fund is the entertainment of November 10, a feature of which will appeal to many is the sale of home made pickles and preserves which have been donated by the famous house-keepers of Alexandria.

DEATHS.

Mr. Simon Dealham, 83 years old, died Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Adler, in Harrisburg, Pa. He was born in Bavaria, coming to this country in 1848. In 1864 he married Miss Lizzie Schwartz, a native of Baltimore, and daughter of Mr. Simon Schwartz, one of the early Jewish settlers of Baltimore and who for years conducted a bakery in that city. Mr. Dealham removed to Baltimore with his family in 1883 and remained there until two years ago, when, upon the death of his wife, he went to live with his daughter in Harrisburg. The body will be brought to Baltimore for burial tomorrow. The interment will be in Baltimore Hebrew cemetery. Mr. Dealham is survived by two sons, Messrs. Samuel, Jr., and Fred J. Dealham, both of Baltimore, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Adler, of Harrisburg, Pa. Mr. Dealham came to Alexandria during the late civil war, and was engaged in the clothing and furnishing business on the south side of King street, between Royal and Pitt. He was a member of the firm of Dealham & Hirsch. He conducted the business himself up to about a quarter of a century ago. He at one time conducted business in Norfolk, and shortly after the civil war had a branch store in Warrenton. Mr. Dealham was well-known in this city, where he had many friends and acquaintances.

Henry M. Towner, one of the oldest members of Columbia Typographical Union, Washington, died yesterday at Homeopathic Hospital, in that city. His body was taken to Leesburg, Va., for burial. Mr. Towner was about sixty-five years old and he was a native of Leesburg. He was at one time employed in Alexandria.

FIND FOR VAGRANCY.

Norman Willis and Joseph Carroll, both colored, who were arrested a few days ago on suspicion of stealing $15 from the person of Zechariah Reed, colored, and dismissed for want of evidence, were arrested yesterday by Officer Talbot on this morning that they roam about the northeastern section of the city with no visible means of support, and this in the face of the fact that laborers are wanted at various places in Alexandria. The testimony was to the effect that they had been asked to accept employment and had refused the same. Justice Caton fined them $5 each.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. Oscar F. Carter, whose china, glass and crockery ware store, on King street, near Pitt, has already become one of Alexandria's institutions. COMING THURSDAY.

Those who want to laugh heartily ought to visit the New Opera House tomorrow night. The management to their agreeable surprise have just received word that the Ritchies will be here. As singing and dancing artists they have few equals and their trick dogs are immense. Their feats on the bicycle are also wonderful. They wish to announce that in the near future they expect to have as a moving picture the famous guerilla chief—Col. John S. Mosby—picturing him in his daring raids. Good show all this week.

LYCEUM'S ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

The Young Men's Social Lyceum Hall was a scene of animation last evening, the occasion being the celebration of the 22nd anniversary of the organization of the Lyceum. Games and other social amusements occupied the early part of the evening.

Shortly before eight o'clock the members of the Lyceum, accompanied by their guests, repaired to the gymnasium where a bountiful supply of hot nysters awaited them and the next hour was spent in a consumption of the bivalves and their accompaniments.

Although there was no programme prepared for the evening, all present entered into the spirit of the occasion and did all in their power to make the evening enjoyable.

The Lyceum was organized October 3rd, 1888, by the late Rev. Dennis O'Kane, S. J. When it was organized the Lyceum had a small membership, but in the twenty-two years of its existence it has grown into one of the institutions of Alexandria and now numbers among its members some of the leading citizens of this city.

Raymond Hellmuth; treasurer, R. L. Carne; librarian, James Callan; sergeant at arms, E. Hyland Brawner.

Do you believe in Darwin's theory that humanity is a direct evolution of the monkey species? If you do not doubt you have a reason. Perhaps you have a faint, lingering recollection of an Ape in a jungle with another little ape in a cocoon tree. Now as we don't want to get personal we won't jog your memory any further than that jungle. What happened there isn't any of our business. Right? Our business is to inform you of the deliciousness of those irresistibly delicious Ape sausages and puddings at Blondheim's Ape stand and Market.

JUSTICE MOODY RESIGNS.

Associate Justice William H. Moody, of the U. S. Supreme Court, yesterday tendered his resignation to President Taft to take effect November 20. The president wrote to Justice Moody, who is at Magnolia, accepting the resignation and expressing his high regard for the retiring jurist. In retirement Justice Moody will receive full pay of an active member of the court, $12,000 a year.

It had been known since early in the summer that Justice Moody would retire. He personally made known his intentions to the president and offered to resign at any time that would be most convenient to the president. Mr. Taft stated that he had no intention of appointing any Federal justice until the regular session of Congress had convened. He urged Justice Moody to take his own time. The enabling act passed on behalf of Mr. Moody, who has not served a sufficient length of time to permit of his retirement under the ordinary process of law, expires late in November.

When he shall have appointed successors to the late Chief Justice Fuller and to Justice Moody, the president, within two years of having taken office, will have appointed four of the nine judges of the Supreme Court.

Election Declared Null and Void. [Special Dispatch to the Gazette.] Richmond, Va., Oct. 5.—Although the state central committee has determined the Second district congressional primary of August 23rd to be null and void and instructed the Second district committee to call another primary or a nomination convention. There is a feeling of intense dissatisfaction on all sides. Youngs' friends feel that inasmuch as the report of the subcommittee said absolutely nothing about fraud in the conduct of the primary and did not give it as their belief that Young or his friends had been guilty of any irregularities, that Young should have been endorsed the nomination. Maynard, of course, is not satisfied, though almost from the beginning there was never any chance that he would secure the nomination. Many people on the other hand, are disgusted that the subcommittee should after a reporting to Richmond eliminate after a long discussion in the state central committee meeting all reference to fraud and several paragraphs condemnatory of both Young and Maynard. The report, as it reads, simply recommends that the primary be declared null and void without giving any reasons therefor. The report condemns only democratic newspapers that insisted that the "copies" of the registration book used in the primary in Norfolk city should have been allowed to be copied for the purpose of investigation and comparison.

After the armed guard had been removed at the Baltimore police headquarters yesterday, Gov. Crothers agreed that the right to suspend trial, should be fought out in a legal manner. The decision of the Court of Appeals for an early ruling. It is hoped by the police commissioners that the governor will step aside as judge, in the hearing of the charges preferred against them, and that he will also agree to the appointment of a neutral tribunal.

WHITE-CAPPERS.

White-cappers entered the home of Mrs. Kate Eaton at Broadway. Rockingham county, several nights ago, took the mother and son, John Robert, out into the front yard and then they administered a severe beating with a cowhide until both mother and son had to beg for mercy. Not content with that, the midnight intruders went back to the house, and after ransacking the place and scattering the contents about, set to work and almost demolished the house.

This is the story that the Eaton woman and her son are telling. The two went to Harrisburg and laid their complaints before Commonwealth's Attorney Conrad. Mayor Aldhizer, of Broadway, it is said, had not given the couple much satisfaction and had directed them to the county seat.

The Eaton woman looks to be about 60 years of age, while her son is in his twenties. John Robert is not a prepossessing looking youth. He pulled his derby hat down over his ears, gripped his Winchester rifle, which he had on his shoulder, and told the commonwealth's attorney that he wanted revenge. The old mother gritted her teeth, too, and declared that revenge would be sweet to her also.

People from Broadway say that there is another side of the story. They say that the Eatons are undesirable citizens and that the White-cappers are a band of good citizens who had exhausted every other means to rid the town of the Eaton mother and son.

The mother and son since the affair have been camping in the front yard of the demolished home, the son with his trusty Winchester on his knees ready for another visit from the White-cappers.

Mrs. Eaton says she has a sister who wants her property, and puts the blame for the invasion upon her.

It is said that the people of Broadway will not be content until the Eatons have left the community for good. They say the visit to the commonwealth's attorney is a mere bluff.

The Independence League.

New York, Oct. 5.—Because of the absence of wireless instructions from William R. Hearst, the leaders of the Independence League, whose state convention met here this afternoon, have failed to agree on a programme. It was the expectation of the delegates when they arrived to nominate the entire republican state ticket, with the exception of Mayor Edward Schaeenck, the candidate for lieutenant governor, and to substitute in his place the name of William R. Hearst himself. But there developed today considerable opposition to the plan from up-state delegates, many of whom in the past were affiliated with the democratic party, and State Chairman John J. Hopper, and Secretary L. J. O'Reilly have been trying hard to get into touch with Hearst to have him issue orders as to what shall be done.

It was expected that Hearst, who is coming on the Mauretania, would be close enough to shore to direct the convention before it met for nominations tonight, and the anxious delegates were assured that everything would be all right by that time. It was the expectation of the leaders that the programme as arranged a week ago would be carried out, but until the Mauretania is heard from the convention will be literally "at sea."

The state committee of the organization met at 1 o'clock this afternoon and settled a few minor contests. It then made up the temporary roll of the convention.

The initial session of the convention was to have been held at 4 o'clock this afternoon which was to be devoted to the perfection of the temporary organization. Adjournment was then to be taken until 7 o'clock tonight.
