MANUEL'S ANTICS.

A French variety actress, Mlle. Gaby Deslis, cost King Manuel his throne, according to high officials of the German government, who yesterday in Berlin expressed no surprise at the revolution in Portugal.

According to these officials, history has repeated itself in Portugal, where Manuel's flaunting of his mistress in the face of his starving subjects caused a wave of popular indignation that culminated in the revolt.

The reports from the German ministers in Lisbon have long emphasized the public anger that was caused by Manuel's actions toward his French mistress. Though the nation was bankrupt and her people oppressed by taxation were starving, Manuel is said to have given rare jewels worth $500,000 to the dancer and actress. It is reported that he lodged her in a royal suite in his palace in Lisbon and that she accompanied him on all his travels.

In a polite way the world has been informed on a number of occasions of Manuel's antics in Paris, where the French police often took him in tow and closed up various resorts while the boy king and his friends in the Portuguese court gawped in the comparison of women of the French half world. Only a few months ago Manuel spent several days in Paris and it was gravely announced by his ministers that this was to be his last "fling" before marrying and settling down.

It was on one of these jaunts that Manuel met Mlle. Deslis, and attached her to his entourage. Since that time he is said to have spent most of his time with her, neglecting the signs of discontent in the nation.

Manuel's personal extravagance and that of his mother and grandmother also contributed to the wrath that led up to the revolt.

It is in time of sudden mishap or accident that Chamberlain's Liment can be relied upon to take the place of the family doctor, who cannot always be found at the moment. Then it is that Chamberlain's Liment is never found wanting. In cases of sprains, cuts, wounds and bruises Chamberlain's Liment takes out the soreness and drives away the pain. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

REVOLT AGAINST ROOSEVELT.

Revolt against Roosevelt rule has swept the Union League Club in New York, and in that citadel of republicanism has been raised the standard of John A. Dix, democratic candidate for governor of the state of New York.

Members of the famous organization, whose loyalty to their party has been almost a creed, will for the first time in their lives vote against a candidate of the republican party as a rebuke to the influence which fastened upon the convention at Saratoga the nomination of Henry L. Stimson. Although the nominee for the governorship, Mr. Stimson is a member of the club, it is openly declared that within the membership of the Union League his name will be often scratched on election day or entirely ignored.

Groups of men who had been identified for decades with the ideals of Lincoln and of Grant sat in the league clubhouse, at Fifth avenue and Thirty-ninth street, yesterday evening and openly denounced the attempt to impress a dictatorship on the state. In a private room, where he had made his way observed only by a few Roosevelt allies. He had dined there and although his presence was known to several men who had been his friends ever since he entered political life, they did not greet him, but withdrew from the building.

Many members of the club made no effort to disguise their intentions to vote the democratic ticket straight, or for the purpose of preserving the semblance of party regularity to cast their ballots for Mr. Dix and then vote for the remaining officers on the republican ticket.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or sniffing. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.

After fatally wounding Deputy Sheriff Hudson and former Sheriff Gordon while barricaded in his home in the suburbs of Ocala, Florida, yesterday William Summerlin placed the muzzle of a rifle in his mouth and blew his head off.

For three hours Summerlin resisted the efforts of members of the police department and sheriff's deputies to arrest him, firing on every person in sight.

The Ocala Rides were called out and

51st Anniversary Sale

This is the sale we celebrate with special jubilee offerings of good things to eat at unheard of bargain prices. The 51 stores of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., scattered all over this broad land, join in a Grand Jubilee Celebration to fittingly commemorate its 51st Anniversary in business.

In this connection it may not be out of place to recall the grand and noble work this magnificent business organization has accomplished for the good of the people of the many battles it has fought and won in its crusade against the powers of monopoly and high prices—until today, with its splendidly equipped corps of expert buyers controlling the entire output of huge canneries, factories, and plantations. It has gone on and on teaching the position, with the ability to understand any grocery concern in the world. It has gone on and on teaching the great lesson of economy to millions of housekeepers and save them millions of dollars on the cost of living.

We invite ALL ALEXANDRIA and NEIGHBORING TOWNS to come and help us to celebrate this GRAND JUBILEE and share in the bountiful feast of bargains in good things to eat which we have prepared for this SPECIAL OCCASION.

surrounded the house. Shortly after midnight the cordon closed in, the door was broken down, and Summerlin's body was found on the floor with half his head blown off.

Early in the afternoon Hudson went to Summerlin's home to serve a warrant for a minor offense. Summerlin warned the officer not to come into his yard, and when Hudson started in he was shot down. Sheriff Gordon hearing the shot, went to the assistance of Hudson, and while bending over the prostrate form of the deputy, Gordon was shot down.

DREAMS OF LATIN FEDERATION.

Sebastiao Magalhães Lima one of the chiefs of the Portuguese republican party, who long predicted a revolution in his country, had planned to deliver a lecture in Paris on Saturday explaining the republican ideas and organization. In view of the events in Portugal, he made public the text of his lecture last night.

Senor Lima is convinced that the proclamation of a republic in Portugal will have world-wide effects, more immediately upon Spain. Brazil, speaking the same language, will be assured of an ally, and the federation of Iberian peninsulas, he believes, will be a decisive step toward a Latin federation with southern and Central American republics which have the same language as Spain.

Such a federation, continues Senor Lima, would undeniably involve a vast transformation in the politics of Europe, and who knows if a Latin federation might not be a step toward that ideal now far off—a federation of all nations.
