AN ECHO OF THE POCAHONTAS.

Mr. Howard Cassard, of Baltimore, was yesterday sued in the Court of Common Pleas of this city, for a claim of $6,000. The suit grew out of a transaction of about 20 years ago when the steamer Howard Cassard was built near Baltimore. The executors of the late T. K. and Daniel Miller are the plaintiffs.

The steamer, which was called the "Howard Cassard," was built from a design of Robert M. Fryer, and was launched in Baltimore, November 6, 1890. The vessel was long and narrow being 220 feet long and only 16 feet wide. At the forward end the vessel was extremely pointed. The inventor thought that, built on a larger scale, such a vessel would land passengers from New York to Liverpool in four days. The arrow steamer was a sailer and on September 23, 1896, the vessel, which had cost over $125,000 to build, was sold at public auction in Canton Hollow for $1,000. There were only two bids, the first being $500 by a representative of a large junk dealing firm.

The Cassard was at this city for a long time. In the early part of 1887 Fryer came to Alexandria and announced that he was about to build a steamer 550 feet long to carry passengers between New York and Liverpool. A foundation for a ways was partly constructed when the plan fell through. Fryer later went to Baltimore and superintended the building of the Cassard.

BASKETBALL.

The Carroll Institute basketball team defeated the Lyceum "Speed Boys" by the score of 36 to 24 in a most interesting game of basketball played in the Amory Hall Saturday evening.

The Carrolls brought an extra bunch along (some with such abbreviated costumes that it looked as if they intended to perform some daring feat instead of playing basketball—but perhaps it was necessary) and played in a way that impressed the audience very much, and many fine compliments were paid them as to their ability to play the game, and the general impression seemed to be that they would be near the top of the list when the championship season for 1910 ended in the District of Columbia. Croghan was the star for his team and was very much in evidence throughout the game.

The "Speed Boys," although much lighter in weight, made it very troublesome for their antagonists, and were, with the exception of their passing of the ball to their team mates, as fast as at any time in their career. The long shot to baskets by Entwisle and Hayes were as pretty and timely throws as ever seen in this city.

DEATHS.

Mr. Edgar Lyle, a well-known and respected citizen, died early yesterday morning at his home, 303 North Washington street, after a long illness. The deceased was 70 years old, and had been engaged in the boot and shoe business for the past fifty years. Mr. Lyle was one of the oldest members of Potomac Lodge, No. 38 Independent Order of Odd Fellows, being a continuous member of that lodge for the last forty-five years. He held the office of chaplain of the lodge during the past quarter of a century. He was also the oldest member of Andrew Jackson Lodge of Masons. Mr. Lyle is survived by five daughters, two sons, and forty-two grandchildren. Mr. Lyle was born in Fairfax county near this city, but had lived in Alexandria since he was seven years old. He was for many years a member of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Mr. William H. Monroe, aged 63 years, died late Saturday night at his home, near Franconia, Fairfax county. The deceased was the son of the late Harrison L. Monroe, and passed the early years of his life in Alexandria. He was a printer by trade, and served his apprenticeship in the Gazette office.

HALLOWEEN NIGHT.

As is usual on the 31st of October, tonight many girls and swains will at the hour of midnight participate in some of the forms of the mystic and endeavor to learn who their affinity is, for the night in that which is known to all—Halloween. From time immemorial the many forms of mystery have been worked over in an effort to solve them, but apparently to no avail. This occasion is more generally observed by youngsters who run from street to street bent on mischief. The police will be on the lookout for those who may have a propensity to deface or destroy property.

A RARE TREAT.

The lighthouse service steamer Violet, which has been in service as one of the tenders on Chesapeake bay and Potomac river is to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. The sale will take place at the Portsmouth station of the lighthouse service November 10.

FOOTBALL.

The American people can feel secure in times when this free and grand country of ours is threatened by foreign foes, when they have such brave and noble men to uphold the honor of the nation as the Seamen Gunners and others who man our mighty guns and fire them with great accuracy when occasion requires such action. In the football game last Saturday between the Cardinals and the Seamen Gunners, the latter proved that they were fighters from the top of their head to the soles of their feet and had courage that was as strong as steel. In defeating this wonderful "fighting machine" of Uncle Sam the Cardinals, although outweighted by them, and had to fight for every inch of ground to gain the slightest advantage, also proved that they can take care of themselves at all times, and have no fear of any clan, be they soldiers, sailors, or civilians. Many brilliant plays were made during the game—the line plunges of Trigger and runs of Cockrell and McBride, and the forward pass by Snowden to Sutherland, who crossed the line with the only score of the game, were a treat to the football "shooters" present. Brushwinkle and Pope performed in magnificent style for the Gunners and were alert at all periods to seize any opportunity to aid their team mates.

Line up and summary:

C. A. C. Positions. Gunners: Sutherland, left end; Kerr, right end; left tackle; Lopez, center; Carpenter, right guard; Turner, right tackle; Fox, right end; Pope, right end; Snowden, quarter back; Brushwinkle, left half back; Daunenman, right half back; McBride, right half back; Cox, full back; Vogt, full back; Touchdown—Sutherland. Goal from touchdown—McBride. Referee—Mr. Seiford. Umpire—Mr. Delaney. Field Judge—Mr. Smith. Time—1:55. Downs and Group. Time of periods—10 and 5 minutes.

ATTACKED WOMAN WITH RAZOR.

West Jackson, colored, on Saturday night attacked Nettie Thornton, also colored, with a razor, at the home of the woman in the court, bounded by Alfred, Patrick, Wolfe and Wilkes streets. The woman was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where fifteen stitches were taken by Dr Powell to close the wound in her breast. Her injuries, however, are not regarded as serious. Jackson was arrested by Officer Bell. Jackson was brought before the Police Court this morning when he denied the charge of cutting the woman. He was sent to jail for six months.

ACCIDENT TO AN ALEXANDRIAN.

Mr. Nathaniel Boush, a native of this city, but who now lives in Lorton, Okla., was the victim of a serious accident near that place about a week ago. Mr. Boush was driving a horse which became frightened at the approach of a locomotive and ran away. Mr. Boush was thrown out and his bones in one leg were so shattered that amputation was necessary.

Miss Allan and Miss Taylor, of Staunton, are guests of Mrs. G. P. Anderson at Braddock Heights. At a mass meeting held in the City Auditorium in Richmond yesterday for the interest of the Laymen Movement, Bishop Arthur S. Lloyd, made a striking address on "Man's Duty to God." Lee Camp will be held tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in Confederate Veterans' Building. Yesterday was a beautiful October Sunday with crisp air and bright sunshine. The churches were all fairly well attended and many persons were on the streets. Thirty-nine deeds were recorded in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court during the month. Forty-two marriage licenses were issued—32 to white and 10 to colored persons. A resolution to amend the by-laws will be considered at a meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks tonight. The lodge announces that its new clubrooms are open from 11 a. m. until 11:30 p. m. Members of the lodge are invited to bring their friends week days. In the fire early Sunday morning which destroyed a building at Pugh, Charles county, Md., and postoffice, four persons lost their lives. Mrs. Boone, bride and the forward pass by Snowden to Sutherland, who crossed the line with the only score of the game, were a treat to the football "shooters" present. Brushwinkle and Pope performed in magnificent style for the Gunners and were alert at all periods to seize any opportunity to aid their team mates.

A Good Meal. It is a noticeable fact that beer is becoming more and more commonly used as a meal time beverage and particularly in the home. There are several good reasons for this: It "fits in" well with solid foods. It is a good appetizer. It helps digestion. Many drink it in place of coffee, because they find the latter injurious to them. HOFBRAU BEER. Is a light brew with a full, rich flavor that finds great favor as a table beverage.
