THE ASBURY PARK MURDER.

Thomas Williams, the negro whose arrest followed the discovery of little Marie Smith's mutilated body in a clump of woods near Asbury Park, N. J., Sunday, was not even removed from the jail for court procedure yesterday, so fearful were the police of mob violence. A crowd surrounded the jail all day and had not dispersed late last night.

To carry out the requirements of the law the negro was informally arraigned yesterday as he stood in his cell and was held without bail for examination.

William H. Smith, chief of police of Asbury Park, held a conference with the prisoner yesterday and announced afterward that Williams apparently had established a good alibi.

Many persons are inclined to think the man a victim of circumstantial evidence, but this does not seem to soften the high feeling in the city.

The child's mother is still in a serious condition from grief and shock.

In an attempt to wring a confession from the prisoner the child's body was brought into the jail corridor yesterday evening. The negro was led forth and halted beside it.

"I swear to God I did not harm the girl. I had nothing to do with it," he said firmly.

"Look into her eyes and say that," he was commanded. Williams leaned forward until he was gazing straight into the dead eyes. His gaze did not waver and he exclaimed:

"God is my witness that I did not kill this girl. I did not touch her. I do not know her. I do not know who did."

Again and again he repeated this [illegible] hand on the body. Then he added:

"I thank God I can say I did not do it. I am sorry for her and sorry for her family, but I had nothing to do with this."

The old, old story told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 36 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

REVOLUTION IMMINENT.

Following visits to Don Jaime de Bourbon, the Spanish pretender, and to Spain and Portugal, Mr. James J. Archibald, of Washington, returned to New York yesterday, convinced that the country at present ruled by King Alfonso soon will be in a state of revolution. He went abroad to study conditions in Spain and Portugal and believes that he succeeded in obtaining a clear insight into the situation.

"I visited Don Jaime at Frohsdorf, near Vienna," Mr. Archibald said, "and found him and his relatives to be charming folk, democratic and pleasing in their character and manners. The pretender to the throne of Alfonso believes revolution is at hand in Spain, but that it will come without himself being a reason for it. He deplored the chaotic conditions in Spain and explained that the system of rule there has been brought about through untactful and needless action against the Catholic Church and through failure to foster the industries of the people and the natural resources of the country.

"My investigations in Portugal have led me to believe that King Manuel could have kept his throne if he had walked out among his soldiers and told them he would stand by them. His actions are regarded among his people as cowardly."

HIGH EXPLOSIVE EXPERIMET.

A party of prominent navy and army officers left Washington last night for Norfolk to witness the high explosive experiment to which the monitor Puritan will be subjected today.

The test will be made in accordance with a provision of the naval appropriation bill and will consist of exploding about 200 pounds of gelatin in an unconfined charge against the afterturret of the monitor to determine the extent of damage such an explosion would cause to a war vessel. The experiment will be held in Hampton Roads.

The Puritan was towed out of Norfolk yesterday morning to a position about two miles from the Hotel Chamberlin, at Old Point. A number of chickens and a yellow cat of nine lives are to be placed at various points within a radius of 50 yards from the explosive. It is believed that the force of the explosion will kill every animal on the ship. It would likewise be very unsafe for anyone to be within a 100-yard radius.

The only man on the Puritan when the charge is exploded will be Captain Knight, who will operate the wires that are to set the charge off. Captain Knight is convinced that he can remain aboard ship without danger to himself, but will take extra precautions.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might if not checked, become chronic and run on to a bad case of catarrh.

SERIOUS FAMILY FEUD.

Scott Jett is in a dying condition and his brother, Clarence Jett, and their father, William H. Jett, the latter a wealthy farmer and stock raiser, are dangerously wounded as the result of a feud in the family, which broke loose at their home, near Mendota, Va., Saturday.

The father is said to have interfered with his sons, who were about to dispose of their property, with a view to leaving the home. The father is said to have fired upon Scott Jett with a revolver, sending one ball between the young man's ribs and a second into his abdomen. Clarence Jett was shot in the neck by his father.

One of the sons returned the shot, and the ball entered the father's left breast, a few inches above the heart. The father and Clarence Jett will probably recover, but there appears to be no hope for Scott Jett.

The family is well known in Bristol, the father being a brother of the late Captain John W. Jett, who was for many years prominent in business in Bristol.

SUCCESSFUL EXPERIMENT.

The Curtiss biplane, that made the trip from Albany to New York, was piloted from the forward deck of the scout cruiser Birmingham off Old Point by Eugene B. Ely, yesterday, who gave as near a hair-raising exhibition of daring as any of the spectators had before ever witnessed.

Determined to make the attempt despite rain and wind, which had been coming in squalls throughout the afternoon, the aviator glided from the inclined platform which had been improvised on the Birmingham before many of the officers on board the ship knew what was happening. Swooping off clear of the ship's bow, the aeroplane first dropped lower and lower and then with a splash seemed to dive directly into the water. It rested on the surface momentarily, while sailors of four naval vessels stood at the lifeboats, and then arose little by little until it had reached a height of 150 feet or more, when it made a straight flight for the faintly discernible shore line toward Norfolk.

It landed on the beach safely two and one-half miles from the Birmingham.

WOMAN BEATEN TO DEATH.

Beaten almost beyond recognition, the body of Mrs. Julia Carey, aged 85 years, was found yesterday in a vacant lot next to the Savoy Theater, in the center of the business district of San Francisco. John Knapp, former convict, is in jail, charged with murder.

Detectives found Knapp standing in front of a stable, where he is employed, not more than 50 feet from the place where the body lay. In his room over the stable the officers found a window weight smeared with blood and knotted gray hair. Some of Knapp's discarded garments were covered with blood, and the collar and vest he wore when arrested were spotted with bloody finger prints. A trail was discovered over which the woman had been dragged from the stable to the lot where the body was found.

Knapp is 57 years old. He served thirteen years in the Folsom penitentiary for the murder of James Quinn, of Humboldt, Iowa, in a gambling quarrel.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

ASTHMA! ASTHMA!

A WEAK WOMAN AND HER STORY

In Floral, Ark., Lives a Lady Who Feels That Her Strength Was Restored by Cardui.

Floral, Ark.—"I must speak a good word for Cardui," writes Mrs. Viola Baker, of this place.

"About a month ago I was in very bad health. I was so weak and nervous that I was not able to do my housework.

"My husband bought me one bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic. I took it according to directions and now I am in good health.

"I think Cardui is a fine tonic for weak women."

And you are not the only lady who thinks so, Mrs. Baker.

Thousands, like you, have written to tell of the wonderful benefit Cardui has been to them.

Cardui contains no minerals, or other powerful drugs. It contains no glycerin or other mawkish-tasting ingredients.

It is just a pure, natural extract, of natural vegetable herbs, that have been found to regulate the womanly functions and strengthen the female system.

All druggists sell Cardui.

See yours about it.
