Weather Probabilities. For this section increasing cloudiness with light rain tonight or Thursday morning, followed by fair weather; much warmer tonight; moderate southerly winds, shifting to westerly Thursday.

W. C. T. U.

The National W. C. T. U. held its 37th annual convention in Baltimore, last week. There were 598 delegates present, this being the largest organization ever held by the national organization. The Lyric was filled, every evening with an enthusiastic audience.

Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Portland, Maine, was elected president. She succeeded Miss Frances Willard at her death and has been in office ever since. Virginia was entitled to 16 delegates, and they were all present, among whom was Mrs. Amy C. Weech, who by virtue of her office, as Y. P. B. secretary of Virginia, is a member of the national organization.

While in Baltimore, Mrs. Weech was the guest of Rev. R. Weech. Mrs. Weech assisted in a meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society and delivered two temperance addresses, besides attending the convention.

LIKES ALEXANDRIA'S MONUMENT.

Acting Mayor Marbury has received the following: Oconto, Wis., Oct. 17, 1910. To the Honorable Mayor of Alexandria, Va.

Sir—I have been commissioned by a friend who desires to present this city with a monument to the soldiers who enlisted from this county in the civil war.

To my mind the one of a private soldier erected in your city is the equal of any I have seen, and I have had the pleasure of seeing nearly all of them that are worth while. There are many that are more imposing, but none that I have seen more truly catches the spirit of its hero.

Special prayer meeting will be held tomorrow night at 8:16 Franklin street, under the auspices of the M. E. Church South, conducted by Mr. Hiram E. Webb, sr.

As heretofore stated, the Children's Home will celebrate its annual Thanksgiving pound party at the home tomorrow, from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. Donations are solicited.

About the heaviest frost of the season covered the earth this morning; indeed it was so heavy as to resemble a light snow. Ice also formed last night.

A meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners will be held tonight for the purpose of electing a member of the police force to fill the vacancy caused by the death of former Chief James F. Webster.

Special afternoon session at the skating rink Thanksgiving 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Box party to be given at the evening session. Handsome prizes to the winners. nov23 24

TURKEYS.

We have received 600 pounds of Fancy Home Dressed Turkeys, the best we have ever had. J. M. PEPPER, 725 King street. Bell phone 200. nov22 24

Friend, if you want to make a success in life just follow our advice. In life's great "marathon" the man that wins the medal is the one who sticks to a steady gait, looks straight ahead and lets the rest of the racers take care of themselves. Remember there are lots of competitors in the road to success and if you want to "make good" and "get there" with the winners you have got to be in condition. That means you have got to come to Bendheim's. Auth. Stand or Market for those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages, Puddings and Food Products.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Tomorrow will be Thanksgiving Day and is a legal holiday, but there will be no general suspension of business in this city. The government, state and city offices and banks will be closed, the postoffice will observe Sunday hours, the schools will be given holiday and in the afternoon many of the stores will be closed. The day will be in many respects one of family reunion and to those who can afford the luxury the turkey will be a feature of the Thanksgiving day dinner. Many will spend the day in the country hunting and, of course, Washington will be visited by many more.

As heretofore stated, the union Thanksgiving services will be held at the M. P. Church at 11 a. m. where Rev. Mr. Watson will preach. The offering will be for the Alexandria Hospital.

STUMBLING BLOCKS ON SIDEWALKS.

From observations made at the last meeting of the Civic Improvement League an impression was created in the community to the effect that the Alexandria Water Company is responsible for obstructions on sidewalks in the shape of protruding boxes and iron caps covering cut-outs. In justice to the company, it should be stated that it is in no way responsible for such stumbling blocks as are encountered in different portions of the city. When the main pipe is tapped from the centre of the street the parties who make the connections are supposed to leave the roadway and sidewalk as they found them, and they are, therefore, responsible for any obstructions which may remain.

CHRISTMAS SALE.

The church furnishing society of the M. E. Church South will hold a Christmas sale which will consist of fancy articles, aprons, home made cakes and candies in the Young People's Building commencing Tuesday evening, the 29th, and continuing three evenings. No admission fee will be charged and the sale will afford a rare opportunity to procure home made Christmas gifts at a small cost. Supper will also be served each evening.

SUSPECT ACQUITTED.

Haze Jackson, alias "Sixbits," colored, arrested Monday night on suspicion of assaulting and robbing E. G. Colvin, agent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, on Orconoe street between Fayette and Payne, was brought before the Police Court this morning, but as Colvin was unable to identify him, the suspect was dismissed. James Huple, colored, who was also arrested on suspicion of being one of the footpads was dismissed.

ARMORY HALL.

One of the main attractions at the skating rink tomorrow will be a box party and several handsome prizes will be given away. Manager Mudd is giving his personal attention to the attendants in order to have only the select crowds to attend.

LECTURE ON LABRADOR.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Rev. James H. Taylor, of Washington, will deliver a lecture on Labrador at the Second Presbyterian Church. Dr. Taylor spent the summer recently with Rev. Winifred Greenfield, the celebrated missionary, and his many beautiful and interesting slides of arctic life will be shown. The lecture is public and free. A free will offering will be taken.

"BEAUTY AND THE BEASTS."

As the ringing out of the old year brings in the new so does the passing of one cast of vaudeville performers usher in another—sometimes far superior. Tomorrow afternoon the oft-quoted sentence "A little child shall lead them," will be demonstrated in the entertainment at the New Opera House in "Beauty and the Beasts." It will prove that though a stripling as far as age is concerned, it will be master over the fiercest—the king of animals. Matinee for the ladies and children tomorrow afternoon. The same features will continue the last three nights of this week. The entire cast will be advertised in Thursday's Gazette.

BASKETBALL.

The Eagle A. C. of Washington, suffered one of the worst defeats of the season by the hand of Y. M. S. L. basketball quint, last night by the score of 68 to 9. The "Speed Boys" had everything their way from start to finish, their team work being one of the main features.

The funeral of Karl Johnson, son of Mr. John H. Johnson, took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of his parents, in Hunting Creek Road, Fairfax county. Burial will be in Bethel cemetery.

THE MEXICAN REVOLT.

Pierce Fighting Reported—Revolution Said to be Spreading—Private Telegrams, However, Say the Authorities Have the Situation in Hand.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—Telephone advices here from Torreon, Mexico, tell of an all night battle near there between 2,000 revolutionists and 600 soldiers and rurales. The soldiers and rurales are reported to be holding the line of the Mexican Central Railroad, and, ensconced in rifle pits, to be holding back the rebels.

The telephone says reinforcements of Mexican troops are being hurried to the scene.

That the Mexican revolution is spreading more rapidly than over despite the efforts of the entire federal army of Mexico to prevent it and despite the efforts of President Diaz's government to prevent the dissemination of news, was evident today from the flood of private reports received here regarding the revolt.

While Torreon, Gomez-Palacio and Lerdo already in the hands of the rebels, today's dispatches showed the victorious revolutionary army, under command of Francisco J. Madero and his immediate lieutenants was attacking Chihuahua and Cuatro Ciénegas and that the fall of both places was imminent.

Dispatches from there received during the night stated that 9,000 armed revolutionaries had occupied the smelting plant of the American Smelting & Refining Company and were preparing to attack the city.

Torreon was in the possession of rebels at last reports, but these stated reinforcements from Monterey and Mexico City would reach Torreon, Gomez-Palacio and Parral today and that fierce fighting was inevitable.

The excitement along the American border is unabated and reports from Naco and Douglas, Ariz., indicate that smuggling arms has not ceased.

New York, Nov. 23.—The following private telegram has been received in this city from the Inter-Continental Rubber Company, interested at Torreon, Mexico.

"Authorities have secured the situation. Excitement subsiding. No trouble at Torreon or at the factory. Running day and night with full force.

El Paso, Tex., Nov. 23.—The most desperate fighting so far in the rebellion against Diaz is reported here today in telephone advices from Torreon, where 1,300 soldiers and rurales have been engaged all night in a fierce battle with revolutionists who are said to number nearly 1,000.

Firing from the tops of churches and other large buildings throughout the city, the Diaz forces and hundreds of townspeople are battling to hold off the rebels, of whom large numbers are reported to have been killed in desperate onslaughts. On one incursion into the city the rebels and defenders engaged in hand to hand fighting and more than 100 of the soldiers were captured before the revolutionists drew off with their dead and wounded.

When the battle began more than 2,500 revolutionists appeared before the city and were immediately assailed by the 600 troops forming the garrison. These, entrenched behind walls and in rifle pits on the city's river front, fought off the attack during the night. This morning 300 additional troops were rushed to the defense of the city. The soldiers will be detained some miles from the city and are expected to attack the rebels on the flank. At last reports the battle was still undecided, but the revolutionists are reported to be pouring in by hundreds, and unless the government troops can obtain further aid, it is believed the city will be captured.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 23.—A local company having large holdings in Vesca, Mexico, today received the following message from its representative there: "Confidence is greatly restored. Government has full control of everything. Five revolutionists executed in Torreon. No need for apprehension."

PERSONAL.

Mr. Robert Eddington and daughter, Miss Sarah, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Eddington, in Richmond have returned to their home in Alexandria.

ATHLETICS.

The playgrounds committee would be doing the students at the George Washington High School a great favor if they can see their way clear to use the surplus money in hand to purchase a few athletic appliances for those most worthy young men. They are not a selfish lot, and would be satisfied with anything in the athletic line that would be presented to them. Give this matter your favorable consideration, gentlemen—remember you were boys once yourselves and would have greatly appreciated just such a little favor.

ARROW.

President Tall in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 23.—The capital of the Old Dominion state outdid itself in hospitable welcome to President Taft today. Starting in with breakfast with Gov. William Hodges Mann, at the executive mansion, there was hardly a moment in the day, up to the time he left at 5:15, that the chief magistrate was not on the go. Following the breakfast he reviewed the regiment of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute cadets, and then was whirled away in a motor car for review of the historic battlefields surrounding the old Confederate capital.

Shortly after noon, the president attended a luncheon given by the citizens of the city, at the Jefferson Hotel, speaking briefly on the new south. Then he took an automobile for a flying visit to the State League Park, to witness a portion of the football game between the Fortress Monroe and First Virginia regiment teams. Exiting the automobile again, the executive was driven to the state fair grounds for a glimpse of the aeroplane meet.

Later in the afternoon, he addressed the Virginia Educational Conference. The president will be back in Washington at 8:35 tonight.
