Ready for Christmas.

H. BLOCH, King Street,

Is ready to receive orders for holiday supplies.

Fruit Cakes, Pound Cakes, Pastry, Confectionery and many other things needed during the joyous season will be furnished at satisfactory prices.

Electric Lights.

Electric lights add to the comfort and cheerfulness of the home that will be greatly appreciated at this season of the year.

Electric lights are better adapted for decorative purposes than any other kinds of illumination. As they do not burn with an open flame, the danger of catching decorations on fire is overcome. No matches are required to light them. Wire your house now.

Dry Your Clothes on a Wet Washday

With a New Perfection Oil Heater

When clothes can't be hung outside, and must be dried in a room or cellar, the New Perfection Oil Heater quickly does the work of sun and air. You can hang up the wet clothes, light your Perfection Oil Heater, open the damper top, and the heat rises and quickly dries the clothes.

Do not put off washing to await a sunny day in order to avoid mildew. Dry your washing any day with hot air from a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It gives just as much heat as you desire. It is safe, odorless and smokeless.

It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be quickly cleaned. Burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and can always be easily unscrewed for rewicking.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not need to be screwed down, but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. Finished in japan or nickel, strong and durable, well-made, built for service and yet light and ornamental. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is got-ten for the money spent.

We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer. A trial order of our Coal and Wood, or an opinion from some of our satisfied customers, will prove that our idea of putting quality first is correct.

A Chance to Make Money.

A young man who had been out of employment for some time and to whom money had become a stranger stood on the Walnut street bridge over the Schuylkill gazing down at the water.

Suicide was in his mind, but he was afraid to seek death by drowning and only contemplated it when he realized that he had no money to purchase poison, a rope or something of the sort.

As he was standing there a well dressed man accosted him.

"Young man, do you want to earn $4?" he said.

"Four dollars!" gasped the unfortunate, to whom the sum sounded like a million. "Lead me to it," he said.

"Come along," said the stranger as he led the way across the bridge.

The young man followed, a new hope gleaming from his eyes.

The stranger led the way to a room on a side street off Walnut.

"Here we are," he said.

"Well, how am I going to earn those $4?" asked the young man.

"Well, you see, I'm a little hard up for cash," said the stranger, "and I'm going to sell you a pair of five dollar shoes for a dollar!"—Philadelphia Press.

The Carrot Cure.

Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, referring to the true efficacy of carrots as a cure for wounds (a tradition which was certainly not handed down from Crecy), writes to Dr. Hunt in 1863, telling him how a man's heel, which was severely wounded at the battle of Fredericksburg, was treated by Dr. Bigelow, who did nothing but keep the wound open and made the patient use for this purpose a little plug of carrot, which seemed to agree with him very well.

Another more modern medical authority says that for delicate persons an excellent supper vegetable is a fair sized carrot, boiled whole so as to retain its aromatic properties, then split into quarters and warmed afresh before being served hot. It acts as a nervine sedative while being cordial and restorative. A sense of mental invigoration will follow, and the digestion of this estimable root will be readily performed without preventing sleep.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Peacock Plumage.

However much milliners may admire the plumage of the peacock and however much they may desire the money it brings, superstition prevents many of them from using it.

"Rather than give peacock feathers house room I would lose my best customer," one milliner declared. "I have done it more than once. Women who want their own materials made up have brought peacock trimming, and when I positively refused to handle it they went away angry and looked for somebody else to work up their peacock feathers. But no doubt they had a long chase, because two-thirds of the milliners feel just as I do about peacock feathers."

"But why?" asked a woman who carried a peacock feather in her hand bag.

"It's bad luck, that is why," said the milliner.—New York Sun.

No Paprika In Her Bones.

A Hungarian restaurant in New York became famous for its culinary triumphs, and many visitors to the city became acquainted there with the mysterious dishes produced in Hungarian kitchens. In one of these parties several years ago was a young matron from the far west, who, anxious to extend her culinary knowledge and seeing how her husband relished one of the courses of the meal, asked the head waiter for the recipe for the dish.

"I can give it to you, madam," was the courteous reply, "but you can't make it."

"And why not?" asked the sightseer.

"Because you must be Hungarian. It might come right for an Austrian, but an American never. You must have paprika in your bones." And, taking that high ground, the request was refused.—New York Tribune.

Across the Hall.

"Say, Snibbs, let me use your phone, will you?"

"Sure. What's the matter with yours?"

"It's all right. I want to telephone to my wife that I'm going to bring a man from out of town to dinner."

"Well?"

"He's sitting in my room now, and I hate to have him watch my face when my wife tells me what she thinks of the proposition."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Essay on Man.

What a chimera, then, is man! What a novelty, what a monster, what a chaos, what a subject of contradiction, what a prodigy! A judge of all things, a feeble worm of the earth, depository of the truth, cloaca of uncertainty and error, the glory and the shame of the universe.—Pascal.

Pretty Healthful.

The Stranger—Is this a pretty healthy neighborhood?

The Native—You bet it is. Thar ain't bin a death here in years, 'ceptin' the undertaker, an' he died o' starvation.—Harper's Weekly.

Good Luck.

"What luck did that sheriff who went out after Stagecoach Charley have?"

"Purty good," replied Three Finger Sam. "Charley didn't ketch him."—Washington Star.

When the tastes are purified the morals are not easily corrupted.—Osborne.

MY DOCTOR MIGHTY FINE

Mrs. Hattie Cain of Carrsville Thinks all the More of Her Doctor Since He Advised Her to Take Cardui.

Carrsville, Ky.—"My doctor," writes Mrs. Hattie Cain, "who advised me to take Cardui, for my troubles, is a mighty fine doctor, and I say God bless Cardui and the people who make it.

"Before I took Cardui, I suffered with female troubles for sixteen years. I would have to send for a doctor every three month, and oh! how dreadfully I suffered!

"I would cramp and have convulsions and it looked like I would die. At last I took Cardui and oh! what a surprise! I found it was the medicine for me!

"From the first bottle, I began to mend and now I am well, can do more work, can walk and go where I please and it don't hurt me, and I owe it all to Cardui."

Cardui helps sick women back to health. It has been doing this for over 50 years. It is not a laxative, or a heart or kidney medicine—it is a woman's medicine.

If you are a woman, try it.

To All Parties Concerned.

TAKE NOTICE: That on WEDNESDAY, the 21st day of December, 1910, at my office at Fairfax, Virginia, at 10 o'clock a. m., I shall proceed to execute the requirements of the decree rendered at the November term, 1910, of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Virginia, in the chancery cause pending therein in which David C. Leach and James S. Swartz, who sue for themselves and on behalf of all other stockholders of the Land & River Improvement Co., of New Alexandria, are complainants, and The Land & River Improvement Co., of New Alexandria, is defendant, requiring me as Special Master Commissioner, "to inquire and make report to this court upon the matters hereinafter mentioned towit:"

a What lands were owned by the Land and River Improvement Company of New Alexandria from its organization up to the date of the appointment of Park Agnew as receiver in this cause, and what portions thereof have been disposed of, and to whom; and the title to what portions thereof remain in the Land and River Improvement Company of New Alexandria.

b The taxes and all other liens upon the real estate of the said defendant corporation, with their priorities.

c The debts and obligations outstanding of said company, to whom due, and their priorities, if any.

d The name and address of the stockholders of the defendant corporation and the number of shares of stock held by them respectively.

e Whether the defendant corporation is insolvent, and a sale of the property, real, personal and mixed, of the defendant corporation, is necessary for the payment of the liens upon its lands, and the debts of the company.

f The accounts of Park Agnew, late receiver in this cause, showing what moneys have been received by him under said receivership, and what disposition has been made of the same, and the amount of any receivership certificates outstanding, and by whom held, and any and all other obligations of said receivership.

g Any other matter or thing which the said special commissioner may deem pertinent, or which any party in interest may require.

If the execution of the requirements of the said decree be not completed at the time above named, I shall adjourn the proceedings from time to time and place to place until the same shall have been completed.
