Berlin, Oct. 8.—Coblenz will be the headquarters of all operations for the between Germany and the United States after the peace treaty becomes effective, the Tageblatt says it is informed. I. W. W.'S KISS FLAG

Then Driven Out of Weirton, W. Va., by Police and Deputies.

Weirton, W. Va., Oct. 8.—One hundred and eighteen alleged members of the Industrial Workers of the World, captured in a raid near here yesterday, were marched into the public square of Weirton, forced to kiss the American flag and were then driven out of town by police and deputies. Seven others, suspected of being the leaders, after kissing the flag, were taken to the county jail at New Cumberland, where they will be held pending investigation by Federal authorities.

The raid was carried out without any serious disorder. Authorities of Hancock county and Weirton had been searched for the rendezvous of the alleged I. W. W. since several days ago, when there appeared on the sidewalks here written threats that "I. W. W. will get you!" Monday night the meeting place of the men wanted was located in an old barn on the Hancock county road, south of here. It was surrounded by heavily armed deputies, and a few entered the barn. The few men in the barn sought to escape without success.

A search of the place resulted in the finding of a large quantity of "red" literature—half a ton, it was said—in which the flag of anarchy was extolled and the prediction made that the extremists would rule the world. The deputies also found the members of the organization, meeting in the barn. Immediately deputies were sent out, and the men were rounded up in the public square. There was one fight after another.

in bringing the men to the square, and even after they were corralled there was resistance when the deputies gave them the option of kissing the flag or going to jail. A big American flag was strung across the street over their heads, while another was used for the kissing.

A SPLENDID TONIC

Says Hixon Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.,—"About 10 years ago I was," says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place, "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side. My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there. I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. I have no return of this trouble. I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommended it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All drug lists.
