

Columbia Democrat

LEVI L. TATE, EDITOR. BLOOMSBURG. SATURDAY MOR. NOV. 24, 1849.

SHUNK MONUMENT. A very large majority of the Collectors appointed in different parts of the State...

Caught a Wild-cat!—Mr. Houston Rossion, Son of John Rossion, Esq., of Bloom township...

Shunk's Monument.

In the fall of 1847, FRS. R. SHUNK, received a majority of votes for Governor of Pennsylvania...

Few returns have as yet been made, and in view of this melancholy fact, the time for making a return has been prolonged...

We know citizens, that you cherish his memory; we know, that you would not, unwillingly, forget his virtues...

John McReynolds, Esq., is the Agent for this County, and let our weeks see hundreds of dollars on his subscription list.

It was predicted to us a few days ago, that the coming winter, would be one of the open and splashy kind.

New York, has not done badly after all. From present indications, the popular vote shows a Democratic majority...

Boys, can you do a thing or two for honest Frank Shunk? Although Ritor's little boys were not Governors...

Court Proceedings.

Monday Morning, Nov. 19, 1849.

William Butler, vs Levi Loes, Robert Montgomery and Margaret his wife.—struck Jury in this case.

Commissions of PETER BILLMEYER, Esq., High Sheriff of Columbia county, read in open court.

And Deeds acknowledged by Benjamin Hayman, Esq., High Sheriff in Court.

The two causes upon which struck Jury had been called, not being ready for trial, court was adjourned till the ringing of the bell.

The Grand Jury came in and made the following

REPORT: To the Honorable Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Columbia.

port.—That they have viewed the public buildings and property, and find all in good condition—Except—the steps which go out of the jail into the yard, which need repairing...

All which is respectfully submitted. VENIAH REES, Foreman. Nov. Sessions, 1849.

Will not the Star of the North, which gave Fra. R. Shunk sixteen hundred and six of a majority, do something handsome, in the way of subscribing—a dollar each man—to building a monument over his remains?

A Very Palpable Hit.

We are somewhat like the Dutchman, who came out to his milkman one morning, with two vessels, instead of one, as usual.

We too, like every thing by itself, and then we can suit ourselves in its mixture. We intend to apply the anecdote to the universal Whig party...

The "News," which by the way, we like, as being a radical whig paper, and not milk and water; speaking upon the subject of Col. John W. Forney...

"Do you take, Zachary, do you take?" We wonder if it is not a sly cut at the cabinet? Well, the Whig party are certainly in a bad state of condition...

"Locofocos always act upon this principle, and if the Whig party had done the same, there would probably be no doubt now as to the Whig complexion of the next Congress."

Horrible Steamboat Disaster! Explosion on Board the Louisiana—The Boat Shivered to Atoms—Upwards of 150 Lives Lost!

Twelve Thousand Victims. It is stated officially, by a Whig correspondent of the Philadelphia North American...

The prescriptions of the cabinet are certainly without a parallel in the history of the government. The number of postmasters turned out, amounts to about 1,000...

The Louisiana sunk a few minutes after the disaster. It is unknown what led to the explosion. It is supposed that the engineers and firemen were killed, as they have not been seen since the accident.

Second Despatch. Captain Kennon, of the steamer Louisiana, has been arrested, and held to bail in the sum of $200.

Printed Wife.—The following advertisement lately appeared in the N. Y. Sun.—Dear John Riley and beloved landlady should this meet your eye...

Large Bank.—The bank mentioned in our last number as having been killed by F. P. Blair, Esq., says the Washington Globe, weighed fairly, after the entries were taken out, one hundred and ninety-two pounds...

The Bedford Democracy.

We have perused, with much satisfaction the spirited proceedings of a meeting held on the 12th inst., by the glorious democracy of Bedford county.

Resolved, That we have heard with pride and pleasure, that Col. JOHN W. FORNEY, the talented and accomplished editor of the Pennsylvania, a paper recognized not only as the organ of the Democracy of this State...

Resolved, That our confidence in the Hon. JAMES BUCHANAN is unabated. We recognize in him all the traits of the Statesman and Gentleman...

More Failures.—Walter Joy's Bank at Buffalo, New York, has failed, and the Pawtuxet Bank, Providence, is reported to have stopped payment.

The whole negro vote of New York city was cast for the whig ticket. No wonder the democrats were beat-en, if they had so much darkness arrayed against them.

A Fair Exchange.—The female teacher of a country school once said to one of her visitors: "It's but little they pay me, and it's but little I teach 'em."

Editors in the Field.—We observe in the list of candidates for election to the Legislature of Massachusetts, the names of five Editors.

The total number of deaths in New York city and county, for the week ending on the 13th inst., were 245.

Hon Robert C. Whitthrop, ex-Speaker of Congress, was married in Boston, on the 6th, to Mrs Wells, a wealthy and fashionable lady of that city.

A recent Paris journal says it is the intention of the French Government to appoint Mr. Poussin to a diplomatic post near one of the South American Governments.

John B. Leperance died at the almshouse of St. Louis last week. He was wealthy and fashionable, but intemperance broke down his fortune, his health, and, at last, his intellect...

The imprisoned Gen. Pava, in Venezuela, has had his youngest son separated from him, being extirpated from his eight years.

New York ships forty head of cattle about every three weeks to Bermuda, for the supply of the English Naval station there.

A number of German politico-military refugees in Switzerland enrolled themselves in the Swiss regiments levied for the King of Naples.

It is said that three hundred of the late garrison of Cornwall, with their leader Klappa, are about to depart for America.

Tennessee has, at this time, within her limits, forty-seven furnaces, and ninety-two bloomeries, forges and rolling mills.

Resolutions in favor of the annexation of Cuba to the United States, have been introduced into both houses of the Vermont Legislature.

The Austrian papers, notwithstanding the risk incurred in doing so, are denouncing the barbarities on Hungarians as unnecessary and cruel, and demand their cessation.

G. J. F. Fehrm, whose arrest for stealing $2,400 from the mail at Troy, Ohio, has been heretofore published, has been convicted at Columbus, and sentenced to the penitentiary for ten years.

East India sugar growing, on the West India plan, has been given up as a failure, after experiments conducted under the most favorable circumstances, and regardless of expense.

Rights of Gold Diggers.—A letter from California says:—A person digging for gold dust has eighteen feet allowed on the river, and may run back as far as he chooses. No one will infringe upon him so long as his tools are left on the spot.

Cincinnati contains a population of one hundred and ten thousand persons, estimated on a recent enumeration.

Editorial Compend.

Hon THOMAS H. BEXTON, arrived in Washington, on Monday evening last.

The Printers of Washington City are about to contribute towards the National Monument—They are the right sort of men, as a waggish correspondent of the News remarks, "to set up a column!"

Hon. HENRY CLAY is the guest of Alderman Benson, 55 Warren street, New York.

The girl who deceives the eye by wearing false curls is apt to deceive the heart with false professions of love.

The Obsequies of Worth, Gates, and Duncan, cost the city of New York, $3000.

The New York Canals will be closed on the 1st of December.

Look out for Counterfeits.—Look out for counterfeit $2 bills on the Fall River Bank.

The Capital of California has been fixed at the Pueblo of San Jose, by the Constitutional convention.

Mrs. T. P. S. John who was Cashier of the Susquehanna Bank, has been bailed out of prison at Monroe.

More Failures.—Walter Joy's Bank at Buffalo, New York, has failed, and the Pawtuxet Bank, Providence, is reported to have stopped payment.

A man by the name of CLAY has received with a young man of the name of P. P. Townsend and name to get up a Sarsaparilla, which they call Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, deprecating the GENUINE ORIGINAL, etc.

OLD DR. JACOB TOWNSEND.

THE ORIGINAL DISCOVERER OF THE GENUINE TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA.

Old Dr. Townsend is now about 70 years of age, and has long been known as the discoverer and improver of the GENUINE ORIGINAL TOWNSEND SARSAPARILLA.

Knowing, many years ago, that he had by his skill, science and experience, devised an article which would be of medicinal advantage to mankind...

Any person can hold or view the real bill they get a dark-colored liquid, which is more from the coloring matter in the real than from any thing else...

It is so prepared, that all the best properties of the Sarsaparilla are first removed, every thing capable of becoming acid or of fermenting is taken out...
