STATE OF VERMONT.

BY THE GOVERNOR.

PROCLAMATION!

FOR A DAY OF FASTING, HUMILIATION AND PRAYER.

Devoutly recognizing our dependence upon God, and in accordance with a venerated custom, I do hereby appoint

Thursday, the Eighth Day of April

next, as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer.

Let us, on that day, as a people, turn aside from our ordinary pursuits, and in humble contrition for our sins, seek the favor of Almighty God, that all our labors may be blessed with the pious fruits of His Providence.

Let us come unitedly into the Throne of Grace, seeking for the light, as revealed in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us invoke the Divine favor upon our beloved country, and upon all called to administer the Government thereof, that they may have the "spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge, and the fear of the Lord."

Given under my hand, and the Seal of the State, in the Executive Chamber at Rutland, this Sixteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand [L. S.] eight hundred and sixty-nine, and of the Independence of the United States the ninety-third.

JOHN B. PAGE.

By the Governor,
S. E. BURHAM,
Secretary of Civil and Military Affairs.

LAST evening, Darrow Hall was well filled with spectators who had assembled to witness some "fancy riding." The prize offered for competition was a plain silver goblet. The competitors were: Henry White, Wetherbee, F. Carpenter, C. Samson, and W. Davis. The riding was all very good, and the judges found it difficult to decide who had won the cup, but finally decided that it should be awarded to Willie Wetherbee, but mentioned that if Henry White had not got "thrown," the cup should have been his.

The judges on the occasion were: Dr. Gilman, E. P. Brainerd, and C. N. Bishop; the cup was presented by Dr. Gilman.

At the annual meeting of Chittenden County Agricultural Society, held on Saturday last, Lemuel S. Drew was elected President, J. D. Hatch, A. J. Crane Vice-Presidents; C. W. Woodhouse, Treasurer, and H. C. Tremont, Secretary with a board of managers of one from each town in the county.

THE THEATRE LAST EVENING.—The attendance last evening was not as large as on the previous evenings, but quite as large, we think, as the management had reason to expect, considering the attractions in other quarters. The company as a whole appeared to excellent advantage, and fully sustained their reputation. The interesting Drama of the "Lancashire Lass" was presented to the general satisfaction of all who were so fortunate as to be present. Mr. Johnston, as "a party by the name of Johnson," rendered his part most capitally, as also did Miss Gernon, as "Ruth Kirby," furnishing conclusive evidence that they are actors of uncommon merit. In thus speaking we do not wish to be understood as underrating the other members of the company. Mr. Middleton, as "Robert Redburn" fully sustained himself in his difficult part, and what was really good acting was apt to be lost sight of by an audience whose sympathies were very naturally with "Ned Clayton," (Mr. Collins,) in his trials which ended so pleasantly and happily. The parts assumed by Mr. Collins, by Mr. Henderson, as "Spotty," by Mr. Verney as "Mr. Jellick," by Miss La-Forrest, as "Kate Garston," by Smith as "Mr. Danville," as well as others, were well and faithfully presented.

This evening will be presented "Joerisse and Andy Blake," in which Miss Gernon will appear as "Julie," Daughter of the Juggler, and Mr. Johnston, as "Joerisse," the Juggler, assisted by the full strength of the company.

FROM THE CALIFORNIA BOYS.—Letters have been received from the St. Albans boys, who sailed from New York for California on the 24th ult. The letters are dated Aspinwall, at which point they arrived on Thursday morning, March 5th, at 6 o'clock, in good health and spirits. The boys experienced no very rough weather, and escaped with comparatively little sea sickness. Some of them complain of the fare on ship board for the first day or two, but after that say it was quite good.

BURLINGTON CITY FIRE DEPARTMENT.—The annual election of officers of the Burlington City Fire Department took place on the 16th inst., at the halls of the several fire companies. The engineers are as follow:

Robt. S. Styles, chief engineer.
Gen W W Henry, first assistant.
Heman R Wing, second asst.
Chas E Brooks, third asst.
Alonzo W Allen, fourth asst.

JAMES CLEMENT, the late Commissioner of Orleans Co., died last year. He received $30 for his services, and paid out $40 for necessary expenses.

VERMONT ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—The Vermont Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, will this year be held at Waterbury commencing on the 15th of April. The Freeman says that the Church and people of Waterbury are making arrangements to comfortably entertain all that shall attend, and the well-known liberality and large-heartedness of our Waterbury friends will be quite sure to make the session a pleasant one to those whom duty or inclination may call to Waterbury at that time.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—We find the following among the decisions of the Supreme Court at its recent session in Manchester. It will prove interesting to those who are in the habit of moving about the last of March to avoid taxes, as well as to listeners, who will now know how to deal with such migratory citizens:

Chase v. Haynes.—This was an action brought to recover the property detained for taxes. The plaintiff had moved out of town with all his property before the first day of April, but did not locate or domicile himself until after the first day of April. It was held that he was liable to pay taxes in the town he moved from, until he established himself and became liable, without interregnum, to pay taxes elsewhere. Sibley for plaintiff; Davenport for defendant.

BRANDON.—Brandon is one of the most thriving towns in Vermont. The business of the tradesmen is found to be unexpectedly large, in making out returns for income—showing some handsome gains for 1868—one man returning over $20,000 for tax.

MARSHFIELD.—The fellow factory of Calvin York, in Marshfield, was burned on Saturday last. Mr. York has been for years a very efficient Insurance Agent, in Marshfield and vicinity, but was, we understand, without insurance. Loss about $1000.

On Monday evening last, the barn and shed of Martin Chandler of Marshfield fell, owing to the mass of snow upon the roof. Mr. Chandler, who was at the time of the fall in the barn endeavoring to prop it up, was caught by the falling timbers and closely imprisoned under the roof. He was rescued from his perilous position, by cutting away the wreck from over him. Mr. Chandler was severely bruised, and it is feared will have to lose an arm.

If it be true that a man be known by the company he keeps, what a shocking "bad lot" of fellows our jailors must be.

A man near Montpelier, Vermont, recently attempted to get through a snow drift. After floundering a while, he stood erect, with head and shoulders above the surface "Do you touch bottom?" asked his companion. No; I am standing on the top rail of a fence." Eighteen inches of snow has fallen since that.

WELLS' ZOUAVES.—At a recent meeting of Capt. Tyler's company of the First regiment of Vermont militia, Burlington, it was voted that the organization be designated the "Wells' Zouaves," in honor of Gen. William Wells. On Saturday evening last, the company called upon him at his residence; presented him with a note informing him of the name. Gen. Wells made his appearance and acknowledged the compliment in a brief speech. After giving the General three rousing cheers the company paid General William W. Henry a visit and were welcomed in a cordial manner.

An exchange, describing a procession says: "The procession was very fine and a mile in length, as was also the prayer of Dr. Perry, the chaplain."

REMARKS.

FLOUR.—The market opened this week with little activity; cable despatches were unfavorable, and caused considerable depression. The export demand is light, though freights favor shippers.

GRAIN.—Wheat.—We notice rather more activity in the market, though prices are not steady. Export demand is good with more enquiry for Spring.

BUTTER.—Receipts last week, 12,351 pkgs. These large arrivals make buyers cautious about operating largely. Some concessions have been made, but prices have not materially changed. A few new tubs and pails have been received, but unless from Orange County, did not bring more than 55c.

CHEESE.—The stock is light, but high prices check consumption.

EGGS.—There is better demand, and prices are firm at our quotations. Dealers prefer to have eggs packed in cartons.

POULTRY.—Demand is good, and prices are firm.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

The unfavorable weather on Monday seriously affected the market. A few choice cattle out of the best lots brought 17c, but quotations are a fraction lower.

MILCH COWS.—Trade is very dull, with advancing tendency.

VEALS.—A large amount of dressed stock, in miserable condition, is in market.

SHEEP.—Prices, if changed at all, are a trifle stronger. Receipts are less than last week, and the market is firm.

SWINE.—Light arrivals have caused a better feeling, and figures have gone up.

BOSTON MARKET.—March 17.

FLOUR.—The market is dull and depressed, and prices have ruled in favor of buyers. The sales have been at 5 50 to 6 for western super; 6 25 to 6 75 for common extra; 8 75 to 9 for medium extra and bakers; 8 50 to 10 for white wheat Ohio, Indiana and Michigan.

GRAIN.—Corn has been quite dull the past week, and prices have eased off. Sales of Southern and Western Yellow at 98c to 1 00; western mixed, 95c to 97c, and white at 92c to 94c.

Oats dull; sales of southern and western at 75 to 83c.

MAY.—Demand moderate and supply small; sales of eastern and northern at 15 to 20 1/2 ton, as to quality.

PROVISIONS.—Pork dull, and prices lower; sales of prime at 20 to 27 50; mess, 31 50 to 32; clear, 34 to 37.

Beef is selling at 16 to 18 for mess; 18 to 20 for extra mess; 24 to 25 for family.

Lard is dull, and prices are easier; sales of steam lard rendered at 19 to 21.

Smoked Hams have been selling at 18 to 19c, and in moderate demand.

Hogs are quiet at 14 to 15c per lb.

White Beans are dull and in moderate demand; sales at 3 25 to 3 35 for medium, 3 75 for extra pea, and 4 to 4 25 for hand picked do.

Canada Peas have been sold at 1 50 to 2 per bush.

Potatoes have been unsettled, with sales at 60 to 85c per bush.

Dried Apples are firmer, at 13 to 16c per lb., as to quality.

Iggs have been in fair demand, at 25c to 29c per dozen.
