FRIDAY, April 30.

The case of State vs. Wm. Ryan and others—indictment, assault and battery on James Carroll, Jr., came to a conclusion this evening, the jury bringing in a verdict against three of the defendants, Wm. Ryan, James Ryan, and Joseph Wallace, dismissing the other defendant, Patrick Ryan. They will each be fined.

The next case was, State vs. same parties.

TWELVE car loads of Canadians will pass through here to-night being the largest number since the exodus commenced.

CLEANING up yards, making gardens and burning old rubbish, seems, agriculturally speaking, the order of the day through our streets.

CAMILIA URSO, the renowned violinist connected with Hall's Boston Concerts, played at the Rutland Opera House Rutland, May 4th. Are there not inducements enough to get this classical lady to give an entertainment at Academy Hall.

ACADEMY HALL.—This evening, Alice Raymond's Combination, Operatic Troupe, appear for the first time at Academy Hall. The opening play is Dion Bourcicault's great masterpiece, the Irish drama, of the "Colleen Bawn" or "The Brides of Garryowen," in which thirteen talented artists act each a separate part. We notice J. W. Delano, Alice Raymond and Carrie Jamison take a prominent place in the principal acts. The company seems to be well organized, having a full corps of actors and actresses. The evening's entertainment closes with the side-splitting farce, entitled the "Rough Diamond." The merits of the company bespeak for them a full house.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—On the seven o'clock train, last evening, sixteen hard-working mechanics took their departure for California, buoyed up with the prospect of more remunerative employment, yet with sinking hearts at leaving their wives, children and friends, so dear, at home. Of the number that left, all were men of families except one. They leave New York harbor to-morrow, at 12 o'clock.

AWNINGS.—Our merchants are putting up, pretty extensively, Mr. James Lynch's French awnings. Seven having "adopted" them to-day. They are millow proof, and give buildings a nice appearance.

HEAVY BONDS.—The Post Office Department requires Patrick H. Jones, recently appointed Postmaster at New York, to give bonds in the sum of $75,000.

MRS. CALVIN BROWN, of Morgan, recently having occasion to disturb one of her beds which had not been occupied for a night or two, found encoined beneath the feather bed, a nice, well-grown skunk.

PLINY H. WHITE.—The death of this noble champion of right, one of Vermont's most gifted sons, is deeply felt by the Press of the State. The able pen of Henry Clark, thus tersely finishes a long and elaborate obituary of his old colleague, in the columns of the Rutland Herald: "Vermont has the honor of his birth, the benefit of his labors; her hills were his home, her history and interests his study, her progress his delight, her honor his glory, and her soil his grave. Farewell, faithful friend and associate, and may a kind Providence grant to our beloved State another son like Pliny H. White."

OBITUARY.—Isaac Cushman Brown, an esteemed citizen of Waterbury, died at that place Wednesday afternoon. He was widely known in the State as a business man. He had held various important offices and at the time of his death was Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for the 2d District, which office he has held for several years.

On the 14th of July next there is to be a grand convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and the Canadian Dominion, to be held at Portland, Maine.

BURLINGTON STEAMBOAT COMPANY.—At the Annual meeting of the Burlington Steamboat Company, held at Burlington April 27th, 1869, the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the year ensuing: John B. Page, Rutland; Lawrence Barnes, Burlington; J. B. Harris, Rutland; Levi Underwood, Burlington; Peter Butler, George B. Chase, Boston; E. A. Birehard, Brandon; S. W. Foster, Knowlton P. Q.; George A. Merrill, Rutland.

The Directors subsequently organized by electing John B. Page, President; George A. Merrill, General Superintendent, and J. M. Haven, Treasurer.

POSTAL APPOINTMENTS.—The following Vermont postal appointments have been made: James H. Whipple, at Newport Centre, vice G. L. Sleeper, resigned; Orwell D. Town, at South Woodstock, vice J. W. Cilley, resigned.

LARGE PURCHASE.—Mr. O'Neal of Highgate, has purchased a farm of 394 acres, of Mr. J. L. Scott, of Bristol, for which he pays thirty thousand dollars.

RUTLAND has a Ladies Temperance Association, which is doing a good work.

AN ENERGETIC SUPERINTENDENT.—A correspondent of the Boston Journal, writing from St. Johnsbury speaks thus of the promptness of Superintendent Perry, of the Passumpsic Railroad in forwarding mails during the recent freshet:

"I would like to mention that when the mail train on the Passumpsic Railroad was stopped at Barton, Vt., by the high water, Mr. A. H. Perry, the energetic Superintendent, took the mail bags on a hand car and with a few men proceeded on the track, which was then covered by water, until the depth of water rendered it impossible to go farther; then shouldering a mail bag himself and directing his men do the same, he started by land, and after a weary tramp over hill and dale, passed the flooded district and delivered the mails where they could be forwarded by train."

Personal.

The Alta California has "positive and authentic" information that President Grant will "certainly" visit California during the coming summer. It says that his advent will be an "occasion for the greatest enthusiasm ever witnessed in the State."

The oldest merchant in Boston is Mr. Timothy Dodd, fur dealer, who has been continuously in business for seventy-four years. He is now eighty-nine years of age, and may daily be found at his store in Milk street actively engaged.

Horatio Seymour, according to a Western paper, has been buying extensive tracts of land in Iowa.

FOR SALE.

BAILEY'S BUTTER TUB.

Boston, Dec. 18, 1868.

A. R. BAILEY, DEAR SIR:

The time has come when the advantages of your tub are apparent; nearly all that we are receiving (unless late fall or winter make) is strong on top which would not be the case if put up in your tub. If there are any nice dairies in your vicinity put up in your tub you may pay 5 cents per lb. more for them than for Summer dairies put up in the old style tub. In fact we don't want any Summer dairies at any price in the old tubs. We can buy common butter here lower than you can get it. We think Fairbury is dull this week, can't tell how it may be at Christmas.
