Our Presidential Campaign Offer.

The attention of our readers is called to the following astonishingly liberal campaign offer: It is proposed to send the WEEKLY PIONEER PRESS of St. Paul to any address in the United States or Canada, postage prepaid, for eight months, for Seventy-Five Cents. To those who are already subscribers to this excellent journal, it is unnecessary for us to extol its merits; but to those who are unfamiliar with its columns we would say that the WEEKLY PIONEER PRESS stands at the head and front of journalism in this country. For full and complete news and miscellany, interesting correspondence from all parts of the world, accurate and complete mar. ket reports, it is excelled by no weekly paper, East or West.

Those subscribing now will receive the paper during the entire presidential campaign and un-til after the assembling of congress, next fall.— We have made a clubbing arrangement which Mostern—worthington & Sloux Fgiss 2 b in Months are Saurda's 1.p in Mails carried by day trains close 30 minutes octore departure. Call on him for re- Fading Summer Waltz, (both instruamount sold in this place, they are | Home:" compositions of considerable merit. Prof. Russell is well known to our musical people having taught classes and given entertainments heretofore. The G. A. R. boys are back from Minneapolis apparently safe and sound. They give wonderful accounts of meetings with old comrades and of such a time as men have only once in a lifetime. Stoddard Post was first to report, first to start the subscription for comrade Johnson who lost a foot, and was the largest Post represented from this Department outside of Minneapolis and St. Paul. BRICK. The railroad company is putting down side-track this week leading to Mr. Simpson's brick yard and the new kiln of 50,000 will soon be ready to ship. We hear of many inquiries from towns along the various lines of road centreing here concerning Worthington brick. The brick are good quality, fully as hard or barder than the Mankato brick. We learn that with the shipping facilities from here, the brick can be shipped to Slayton and sold as cheaply as the brick which Mr. S. has been making at that point. In other words, Worthington brick can be laid down at points along the Black Hills branch at as low a figure as those made at Slayton or other points along the road. THE CREAMERY. The Worthington Creamery is now under fair headway for the season and is churning every other day. It is running three wagons and already secures cream from over 250 cows, as follows: Jackson Tharpe 23 cows, Oaks & Van Luven 11, S. S. Morton 10, Mitchell & Disbrow 42, F. Lyon 6, H. Brayton 19, J. We learn that the new Campbell press is to be set up in this building to print the proposed real estate paper for the new association of real estate dealers, and that Mr. Penn will move the Record office into the new building and take charge of the printing department.

The Alleghanians are booked for an entertainment here on Wednesday night next. If these are the originals, and they must be for we see that Mr. Bonlard, who was the organizer in 1846, is still with them, they will-give the most remarkable entertainment ever given in Worthington. They are first cless in every respect. We heard them as long ago as 1855 and it is wonderful that a troupe should continue so long under one name and one manager.

AN EXCURSION COMING. We are indebted to Wm. Findlay, of Oswego, Ill., for copies of the Frankfort Commercial Advertiser containing a two-column advertisement of Nobles County, Worthington, and the Rock Island Railroad. A good part of the matter is copied from the famous Hub Circular gotten up by the AD-VANCE for the Worthington Board of Trade, and the printer has constructed an elliptical diagram imitating the cut and showing Worthington as the hub or centre.

The two column advertisement is headed: "Land of Pagnise! Land of Plenty! Land Exploring Expursion, August 11th, to Worthington, Plian , via Great Rock Island Boute!"

At the foot of the columns we find: "For excursion tickets, list of farms for sale and other information, address Wm. Findlay, Tamarack, Will Co., Ill." Mr. Findlay owns several farms in this county and we are pleased to see that he is not idle.

We hope our people will be prepared to give the excursionists a hearty reception on their arrival.

Give the S. M. II. A. a chance to do what it can, but don't forget it has lost its identity as a popular movement. It has gone into the hands of a corporation, and every dollar they spend in advertising their lands will be of advan tage somewhere, but whether the money spent by the corporation in publishing a distinctive paper devoted to the land business, will have an effect equal to the cost, may well be questioned, unless it is the intention of the corporation to swallow the Record, as apparent, and send it East to the friends of the people in Nobles county, using it in the way the Reporter has several times sug-In this way it may become a useful agent for the settlement of No-bles county. The Reporter does not look for much benefit to accrue to Cot-tonwood county from the association as now manipulated in either line of advertising it may pursue. The Slayton Gazette "sizes them up" over at Slayton just about as we have done a thousand times about Worthington. There is no doubt whatever that the class referred to are the greatest curse to any community. They are worse than the much-abused "whisky" element because they do their mischief under the cloak of religion. The Gazette says:

People who profess religion should certainly not in accordance with the teachings of the scripture to back-bite, dead beat and belittle those who honestly differ with them on a question which the great minds have failed to solve. Two things we despise. One is the narrow-minded bigot and hypocrite, who thinks he has secured a mortgage on heaven, but who in fact is working hard, consciously or unconsciously, to take up his abode in those regions to which he would have all go who are not as narrow minded as he. The other is the meddlesome, tack-biting creature of the feminine gender, who so far for-gets herself as to "wear the breeches," who is only happy when she is in her element, that is prying into affairs of others, meddling and back-biting. Such a creature cannot expect the consideration and respect due a lady. Those who consider these remarks as intended for them will of course criticise us. If they do we shall feel that we have not ment.-Sioux Falls Press. used our pencil in vain, and if showing up the folly and meanness of their ways can induce them to-reform for the good

A BLESSING TO ALL MANKIND. In these times when our newspapers are flooded with patent medicine advertisements, it is gratifying to know what to procure that will certainly cure you. If you are bilious, blood out of order, liver inactive, or generally debiltated, there is nothing in the world that will cure you so quickly as Electric Bitters. They are a blessing to all mankind, and can be had for only fifty cents a bottle at Smith's Drug Store. 2

THE TEMPERANCE CANDIDATE. Gen. Neal Dow has belted the nomi-nation of his prohibition party and will support Blaine. He says: "The tem perance men of Maine, Kansas and Iowa occupy an exceptional position in relation to prohibition. In these States the Republican party has adopted pro-hibition as an important part of its platform, and is in favor of such legisation as may be recessary to carry out that policy. I think the temperance men and women of these States will stand by the Republican nominee."

The main point insisted upon by the ADVANCE for weeks in favor of Blaine, vas that he would be the President of the whole nation, of all the elements, and not of any one interest, class or elique. The Bismarck Tribine in a clique. The Bismarck Tribune in a late issue says:

James G. Blaine knows the wants of the American people better than any other man within her borders, and with his honest, bold, aggressive character will deal out the purest justice to all.

Col. Russell H. Conwell's admirable 'life" of James G. Blaine is now ready; it is handsomely bound and printed, and contains upwards of 500 pages; it is illustrated by first-class artists; it is from the press of Messrs. E. C. Allen & Co., of Augusta, Maine. As a rapid biographer, Col. Conwell doubtless stands without a rival in America, and the volume has the impress of the roadest information and most careful tention on every page. This is the ography that received the inestimable enent of the active co-operation and assistance of Mr. Blaine, his relatives and friends; this is the volume that is ecommended by the family and private se retary of the distinguished candi-date; it is a true picture, drawn by a master hand, of the life of the Statesman from the humble cradle to the subscribe only for the authentic Augusta edition—the largest, cheapest, handsomest and best. The steel plate portraits of Blaine and Logan were en-graved for the volume. We understand that this Authentic Standard Augusta edition is outselling all others more than ten to one, and that its agents are meeting with most phenomenal success A few more agents are wanted by the publishers; the most liberal terms are offered. It is a splendid chance for beginners, as with this grand book no one can fail to do a great business. The volume also contains a biography of John A. Legan.

At the request of several old Nobles county settlers we shall publish a history of the early settlement of that county, which we propose to commence in about two weeks.
