School supplies cheap at Smith's Hemlock writers for stamped linens at Mrs. Paisley's.
FOUND. A lady's kid mitten which can be had at the ADVANCE office.
The meetings at the Adventist Hall are in progress. Meetings being held every night.
D. Rohrer, Esq., was at St. James, last week, where he had a case in the courts in session there.
Gentlemen: You will find the Christmas present that will please her most at Mrs. Paisley Art Store.
Miss Mable Collie, of Minneapolis, sister of Elder Collie is visiting relatives here for a few weeks.
Give us a chance to figure on your lumber bills, we will use you right.
NEMAKAGON LUMBER CO.
Rev. C. Swartz, of Sioux Falls, attended the funeral of Mr. Leonard Eckland, at Indian Lake, on Sunday.
Candles! Candles! Candles!!! A fine assortment of fresh Christmas candles at McMANUS & BLY'S, 1717 See II, M. Palm's ad. this week.
Every body could "enjoy themselves" by purchasing what they need in that line of II, M. Palm.
Mr. Geo. H. Warner, of Watertown, S. D., has taken charge of the harness shop of Mr. C. P. Shepard. We welcome Mr. Warner to our place.
Ladies. A Christmas gift made by your own hands of those lovely materials at Mrs. Paisley's will be more acceptable than anything you can buy.
Commencing Sunday night and continuing until Wednesday night, the Sabbath question will be the subject under consideration at the Adventist Hall.
We regret to say that our townsman Mr. J. E. Hammerberg, who has been sick for some time is very low. All that sympathy and skill can do for him is being done.
Rev. William Brown pastor of the M. E. church, is in demand. He has more dates to lecture than he can spare from his church; he is a lecturer of good repute, drawing good audiences where he speaks.
Mr. G. H. Tobey requests us to announce that his auction sale will take place at 10 o'clock a. m. on Thursday, Dec. 18th, 1890, the hour having been inadvertently omitted in the copy of the sale bills printed here this week.
Our readers cannot fail to notice the new advertisement of C. W. Smith in this issue. Mr. Smith not only believes in having a first class stock of holiday goods but also in telling the people about it. Give him a call, as he is bound to please both in quality and price.
Mr. A. Gamber, who has been running a steam thrasher in this county, and has given good satisfaction, has gone to visit a brother in Nebraska, and will then go to his home at Port Byron, Ill. He leaves his machinery and will be back in time for next year's threshing.
Over twenty different styles of organs and sewing machines sold by Mrs. Brown, first door east of Western Hotel, near the mill. Stock of all kinds taken in exchange, also sell on time, as monthly payments. Come and get your organs and sewing machines before Christmas, 1890.
A pleasant surprise was given on Miss Etta Fish last week, Friday, by twenty of her young friends, at her home. The evening was spent in games and sports, and every one presented enjoyed themselves. Miss Fish made the pleasant company "at home" and it dispersed well pleased with the evening's amusement.
On Monday next, Dec. 15th, at 2 p.
m. the annual meeting of the Congregational church will be held in the church. This is for the election of officers and transaction of such other business as may legitimately come before the church. It is desired that all members be present.
M. P. MANN, Clerk.
Geo. W. Wilson, Esq., has been at the district court in Jackson, for a week past engaged in the defence of Frank O'Neil, indicted for the crime of rape, alleged to have been committed on the person of a school girl 15 years of age. A gentleman who heard part of the trial tells us that Judge Wilson was conducting the defence with great vigor and impressiveness. The defence was trying to prove an alibi for the accused.
In our columns this week appears a letter from a former citizen of Nobles county, Mr. David Smith, now of Meadow, Oregon, filled with valuable information concerning the country in which he lives. Accompanying his letter is a package of Oregon cedar, some peach leaves, and some leaves of the "casahuate" tree, the bark of which is in demand for medicinal purposes, and is an important article of commerce. We are also indebted to Mr. Smith for copies of Oregon papers.
The cedar plumes he sent us are beautiful enough to be made ornaments of for ladies' hats, rich in color and luxuriant in growth.
The readers of the ADVANCE will read with regret of the death of Mr.
Samuel Hackett, who had the contract of the work on our new school house.
Mr. Hackett died last Thursday morning, at 7:45, of inflammation of the bladder, at the age of 65 years. Mr.
Hackett moved on a farm near Sioux Falls last summer. The funeral took place at Sioux Falls. He leaves a family of seven children, one son, Mr.
Geo. Hackett, now with Mr. H. E.
Torrance, in Worthington. Mr. Hackett was a member of the G. A. R., having fought during the war as a Union soldier. He was a good mechanic, a very useful citizen, and was highly esteemed wherever his lot was cast. His family have our sincere sympathy in their bereavement.

The many friends of Mrs. W. H.
Fagna will learn with regret that she is very sick at her home in this city.
Mr. J. T. Fisher, of the Worthington Hotel, left last week for California for a few weeks business and pleasure trip.
Rev. William Brown preached an excellent sermon last Sunday evening from the subject "The Future Home of the Saved."
E. F. Buchan was engaged last week in taking pictures of the man Franklin, who assaulted and robbed Geo.
Slade at Adrian last Tuesday night.
Dr. Kenyon reports the arrival of a little girl last Saturday morning at the house of Mr. C. C. Irwin, who have moved into the house of C. S. Bond.
Miss Grambs, one of the teachers in our schools, was received as a member of the M. E. church a few weeks ago, and is now a valued member of the choir of that church.
There will be a Basket Social at Mr.
G. H. Leonard's, in Dewald, on Friday evening, Dec. 19th, for the benefit of the Dewald Sunday School. All are invited. A collection will be taken.
Dr. Kenyon reports that Hannah Ellifson, living four miles south of Worthington, is sick of typhoid fever, and that the twin girls of Mr. Frank Lyon are also sick with the same disease.
The Worthington Orchestra holds a high place in the social attractions of our town. It renders valuable service at all our entertainments; helps many a good cause with great generosity, and brightens every such occasion with excellent music.
The young people of the Presbyterian Church had a delightful social at the residence of James Ramage on Friday evening of last week. The various societies of the Westminster church are determined that the contemplated parsonage shall be built at an early date.
Thousands have been relieved of indigestion and loss of appetite by a single bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The use of this medicine, by giving tone and strength to the assimilative organs, has made innumerable cures of chronic dyspepsia. Price $1. Worth $3 a bottle.
Warren W. Want was arrested by Sheriff Anderson on Dec. 5, for stealing grain from J. H. James, of Grand Prairie. He had his preliminary hearing before Esq. Bear, on the 9th, and was put under bonds of $500, in default of which he will be held to await the action of the grand jury.
Mr. John People who has been night telegraph operator at this place for two years, received word to go to St. Paul.
Mr. J. E. Pugh has been sent to take Mr. People's place at the depot. He left on the two o'clock train for St.
Paul last night. Mr. Frank Straka, the day operator speaks in the highest terms of John and wishes him all possible success.
The "Scott's Emulsion" for the benefit of the Presbyterian church, was a splendid success in every way. The hall was filled with an interested audience, and the receipts were over $60.
The costumes were quaint and "Scotty"—the music and recitations good, and the supper superb. We go to press to soon after to take time for an extended notice, only saying that the violin performances of Messrs.
Mackay and Ramage were enthusiastically applauded.
It is a satisfaction to be able to announce the capture of Henry Franklin the man arrested at Adrian for the robbery of Geo. Slade's Hotel, who made his escape from the hands of the constable who had him in charge. In response to postal cards sent out by Sheriff Anderson word came from the Marshal, Dora Herod, of Chanute, Kansas, of the arrest of a man answering his description. By direction of County Attorney Dailey the Marshal brought on his prisoner, arriving here at 2 o'clock this morning. The county officers deserve credit for their successful effort to bring this man to answer to the charge laid against him. The Marshal had Franklin loaded down with quite a weight of Kansas State jewelry, in shape of a ball and chain, etc.
FARMERS ALLIANCE.
A meeting of the Alliance will take place Saturday the 20th inst., at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a delegate to the annual meeting of the State Alliance the 30th inst.
Let all the old members be present without fail as important announcements will be made.

Up she goes! She sat in the chair rather suddenly and as it was bought of H. M. PALM, the springs were equal to the occasion. She is having as much fun as a girl on a swing. When you buy furniture from this house you can be sure of an article which will stand the wear and tear of a frolicsome domestic, and you can get it at a price so low that the financial wear and tear will be no strain upon your pocket-book, and that is an item not to be overlooked nowadays.
I am showing so large a line of fine chairs, rockers and other articles, suitable for Christmas presents, that I can suit all tastes and all purses.

Always on Time.
There is no line so hand-somely equipped as the Chicago & North Western Line, which carries the finest sleeping cars and coaches ever built, and also all classes of passengers, without extra fares. On the Lake Superior portion of the line, between Minneapolis, St. Paul & Duluth, and St. Paul & Ashland, Pullman sleepers run on night trains, and parlor cars on day trains.
