

"Good Timber and Threshing Machines BoneDry."
 "Fine Material, Well Made, Best Makes of all Kinds of Handmade Finish." Best Makes of all Kinds of Farm Machinery.

—FOR SALE BY—

J. D. & W. I. HUMISTON.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. W. Cowing of Jackson arrived Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson was reported better Wednesday morning.

Miss Bessie Stewart of Graham Lakes visited in town this week.

I. T. Branigan went to St. Paul Tuesday night to purchase goods.

H. P. Lewis has built a store house and barn in the rear of his store building.

Mrs. C. H. Scheeter is clerking in I. T. Branigan's store during his absence.

Marriage license were issued Wednesday to James F. Burdett and E. A. Tabor.

U. F. Hansberger and wife returned home Wednesday afternoon after an extended visit in Ohio.

William J. Mason and Savanna Cook were married Wednesday Nov. 8th by Justice F. A. Stevens.

A party was up in police court Wednesday morning for being drunk and disorderly, sentence being suspended on his leaving town.

He has received the highest endorsement wherever he has appeared. —Cleveland (O.) Leader. Chapin at Masonic Hall Monday night, November 13th.

Phil Glasgow has reached a very critical point in his illness. Tuesday night it was not expected he would live through, and Wednesday morning was no better.

Nathan Barnes left Wednesday morning in company with M. C. Nelson for Appleton, Minn., via St. Paul to look over some land in Swift county with a view of purchasing.

Bob Norman, tonsorial artist for M. E. Fish took a week's lay off the week and went to Sioux City. Developments since his departure have a tendency to indicate that he has gone for an extended stay.

At the next entertainment of the course Benjamin Chapin will present Cyrano de Bergerac, a heroic comedy, consisting of six principal characters, a piece of five acts. This piece has been produced before the most renowned critics who failed to find an opportunity for the use of their art. Go and see him and hear one of the plays of the age, at Masonic Hall, Monday night, Nov. 13th.

Mrs. Hyland is putting steam heat in her residence.

Miss Anna Johnson began school in Ransom, Monday.

The O. E. S. served refreshments at their meeting Monday evening.

Brilliant—San Francisco Chronicle. Chapin at Masonic Hall Monday evening.

Miss Bessie Stewart spent Saturday and Sunday at her home at Graham Lakes.

All were highly enthusiastic—Capital Des Moines, Iowa. At Masonic Hall Monday night.

Mr. Chapin's program was a series of happy surprises. —Review, Spokane Wash. Masonic Hall Monday night.

The Swedish Lutheran church will begin a session of two or three days mission conference, the first of next week.

Mrs. W. M. Evans and Mrs. W. J. Humiston united with the Episcopal church Tuesday evening, when Bishop Gilbert was here.

Mrs. I. Shannon, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Lyon for some time returned to her home at Charles City, Thursday.

Mrs. C. A. Forbes left Thursday for a couple of weeks visit with her sister in Custer, Mich., whom she has not seen for eighteen years.

Revs. J. M. Bull and Carl A. Anderson attended the Marshall District Conference held at Luverne, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

All the ladies intending buying or that have bought shoes at Swartz' can get their shoes, any color, shined free, at Schwartz' shoe store Saturday.

J. J. Kelley, formerly with Humiston's drug store at Ellsworth arrived in Worthington Wednesday forenoon enroute for his home in Minneapolis.

"If you find a defective skin in North Star fur coats, send the coat to Lanpher, Finch & Skinner or your dealer, and the coat will be made right, free of charge."

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will give a social at the residence of H. N. Douglass Friday evening. Musical program. Refreshments served 15 cents.

"If you want a North Star fur coat (which is the best made) and your clothier does not sell them, write Lanpher, Finch & Skinner. They will send you the name of a merchant in your neighborhood that will fill your order."

MARRIED—James Jack and Alice J. Middleton, of Scotland, in New York City, Monday, Oct. 23, Rev. James Steele, Reformed Presbyterian officiating at the residence of the pastor. The couple returned to Worthington last week Thursday and will reside on the farm of James Walker which Mr. Jack's rents.

Mrs. H. E. Torrance went to Mankato Thursday to visit her sister, Mrs. Salpaugh, who was recently injured.

W. B. Smythe, General Agent McCormick Harvester Co., Mankato, ran down for a days "spiel" at the broad-bills with Will Humiston. He brought down his Mullins "get there" duck boat and fifty canvas back decoys. He was accompanied by Mr. —

One reason why so many young people take up stenography in the Mankato Commercial College, is that Prof. Brandup of that institution is the author of the system taught. All realize that to be placed under his instruction means success. Write for 1900 catalog.

C. J. Smallwood put a telephone instrument on the stage in Masonic hall Monday night to experiment as to how the music would sound out on the line by the patrons of 'phones. So far the experiment proved very satisfactory and the music was very pleasing in this way.

C. H. Scheeter is having remarkable success as agent for the New York Life Insurance Company, which is demonstrated by the premiums he receives. Recently the company as an advertising medium gave every agent half a dozen lead pencils for a certain amount of insurance, and Mr. Scheeter's success entitles him to something over 1200 pencils. From this it can be seen that he is a hustler.

You will soon need to be on a felt footing

If you buy the Dolge Felt Shoes and Slippers

With this trade mark on every pair you will be sure of getting the very best; and the price not more than you have been paying for cheap shoddy felt goods.

All Felt Slippers felt sole

From 65c to $1.00
 Felt slippers belting leather sole from 75c to $1.00

Ladies' felt shoe, felt sole, extra heavy wool lining - $2.00
 Ladies' felt belting leather sole 1.50

Ladies' Romeo with fur top like out in Black, Red, Green, Blue, Tan and Brown from 75c up.

HARRINGTON, The Shoe Fitter.

Headquarters for Ladies' and Men's Felt Goods.

Joe Lowe is building an addition to his house on 4th ave and making other improvements, putting it in shape for occupancy.

Beautiful women everywhere owe their matchless loveliness to the use of Rocky Mountain Tea. Plain women made attractive.

Dr. J. M. Church arrived Thursday from Luverne to open his office over Baker's new store and hereafter will make his regular visits here.

Nora—You can't expect to do away with face blemishes in a week's time. Keep on taking Rocky Mountain Tea. You'll have a lovely complexion.

Misses Minnie Hammerstad and Mary Quervi, of Windom came down Monday afternoon to attend the concert and were the guests of Peter Heint.

Bates Bros. of Dewald have a collie shepherd dog that has reached the age of 22 years, an age rarely attained by a dog, they having raised it from a pup.

Misses Hattie and Maggie Rogers who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. John Harden for the past few weeks returned to their home at Wyoming, Ill., Monday.

Notice—Life insurance companies will reduce the rate 33 per cent to all who agree to use Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. 35 cents.

The required glass for completion of the front in H. P. Lewis new store have been received and put in place. He is now putting goods on the shelf and expects to open for business next week.

Wilson Ager shipped another of those famous O. I. C. thoroughbred hogs of his, Monday. They are becoming so popular among swine raisers that he is finding ready sale for them.

Wyckoff's

Cash Prices.

$1.00

For 3 pounds of good Tea.
 10c per lb.

Choice Evaporated Apples.
 13c per lb.

Choice Pitted Plums.
 15c per lb.

Choice Pitted Cherries.
 18c per lb.

Choice Raspberries.
 10c per lb.

Choice Evaporated Peaches.
 Mica for Stoves.

Rev. Carl A. Anderson organized a M. E. Church of sixteen members at Pratt's schoolhouse last Sunday afternoon, and received four into the town church in the evening.

Thursday J. D. Humiston and Ray Humiston drove to Ellsworth Thursday morning and returned in the evening. They took their shooting irons along and bagged steen quail.

Mrs. E. C. Hinkley, of Luverne, accompanied by Mrs. F. L. Hinkley, of Redding, California, on their way to Luverne from California, called on Rev. Bronson and family between trains Tuesday afternoon.

The Rev. Cyrus T. Brady will tell in the November number of McClure's Magazine, the thrilling story of Deatur's exploit of cutting out the "Philadelphia," when she was held captive by the Tripolitans.

E. G. Chaffer sold his beautiful farm Tuesday to J. S. Ramage and Alfred Albinson. This is one of the nicest located farms in the county and a desirable one. Mr. Chaffer left Tuesday afternoon for Utah to secure a location there.

C. J. Smallwood has put a telephone instrument in at J. O. Larson's, Section 20, Indian Lake township for the benefit of the people in that thickly settled neighborhood. Mr. Larson was able to take in the Salisbury concert Monday evening at his home.

Joe Brazil, aged about thirteen years was struck in the eye Saturday afternoon by another boy about his age with a large sharp cornered stone, cutting a deep gash under and over the eye. The offender's name is not known. After he done the striking he ran away and was out of sight in a very short time.

J. H. Scott, of Ransom moved into town last week occupying a residence he purchased some time ago in the Clary addition. Mr. Scott moved to this county in 1871 living continuously on one farm for twenty-eight years, and by being frugal has acquired one of the best farms in the county with good substantial and commodious buildings. He has five boys, four of them working the farms, some of them owning farms of their own. Mr. Scott will become a permanent resident of this place and enjoy its privileges, the town ever welcoming such esteemed citizens within its limits.

...Buy a bottle of...
William's Varnish Renewer.
 For 50c.

And get a five-foot step ladder

FREE!

that retails at 7c anywhere, or a can of Fine Furniture Varnish and Brush.

PALM BROS.

HOME AGAIN!

And ready for business. Let us give you prices on—

Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines

will have a complete line of small goods in the music line that will make handsome Christmas presents.

I also have for sale as soon as I can get it ready about $2,000 worth of Men's and boy's clothing, some ladies' wraps and about 900 prs of boots and shoes. I will sell these goods at unheard of prices. Call and see them.

U. F. HANSBERGER
 Worthington, Minnesota.

H. P. Lewis received a car of apples Thursday.

Salisbury Orchestra played here Monday night to a crowded house, standing room being sold. Every number was appreciably enjoyed. Every member is an artist and the company never fail to please the entire audience. The receipts only were a few dollars less than on their visit two years ago, which was due to scarcity of chairs. After the concert about thirty-five couple participated in the dance, music being furnished by the Orchestra. This was also enjoyed. An oyster supper was served.

Julia Marlowe shoes at cost at Schwartz shoe store.

Mrs. T. Gillott returned home Thursday afternoon.

Lena Barron spent Sunday with her parents at Rushmore.

Dr. Dolon returned Wednesday night from a visit at Waterville.

Old iron, copper and rubbers bought at the New York Bargain Store. 8¢

E. A. Kline and wife of Bristol, Ia., came out here some time ago to look after their farm interests, Mrs. Kline returning home Tuesday.

A. ANDERSON

A. ANDERSON

ABSOLUTE SATISFACTION

WE anticipated the season's wants—contracted for our stock before any advance in prices and are selling the best of merchandise at the old price and less, right in the face of the biggest advances know in years. Come in and let us show you what the full measure of bargain giving means.

$1.00 FOR MEN SHOES
 Better ones up to $4.00.

We Say So!

Proper Fabrics at

Tumbling about Garments Say So!

Your mind's worth and your money's worth at Our Trading Place at all times

We Say So!

Pleasing Prices!

Doubled Sales Say so!

A. ANDERSON

A. ANDERSON

When You Move to Worthington,

WHERE WILL YOU LIVE?

Is it not wise to select a lot now and set out trees in the spring and get the lot ready to build whenever you need a house?

We have some large lots that are dry and lie well—YOU CAN BUY ONE!

Pay $25 down and balance when you choose.

Come in and talk it over.

OFFICE—Front room up stairs over Bank of Worthington.

GEO. D. DAYTON.