Thankful For Assistance Given.

Through the kindness of M. P. Shanahan we publish the following habit of going to the pond east of us to compromise with the enemy. letter from Miss Beatrice Johnson, eister of the young man who was drowned a week go, last Sunday, showing their appreciation to the friends who so willingly did all they could for the father while here. Cresco, Ia. Setp 25,

Mr. M. P. Shanahan, Worthington.

We are at last at home once more and have had time to collect our thoughts. Everything came so suddealy upon us that we were afraid father forgot to tell you all how he appreciated your kindness to him while he was there, so I take this liberty of letting you know how more than grateful we are. We still have the flowers that were sent and they have kept beautifully. We trust that in some way we will be able to repay you for all you have done for George and father.

With best wishes from the family I am sincerely, Beatrice Johnson.

Cow bells were rung and tin pans pounded. The threshing whistle was tied down for about an hour and a half making beautiful music to be heard for miles round, but better still an accordian gave forth its melodious sound long to be remembered. The noise did not hurt any one but shots were fired and window lights and curtains destroyed. When the threshers in the house who geatly enjoyed the music came out the poor fellows were so tired they could hardly had a narrow escape from being ery to protect his master's propshot, by a stray bullet. He was erty and could hardly be found the next morning. Besides this could with Mr. Doeden when he suddenly there was another crowd who did

Ben Gullick, the hustling real estate man from Edgerton, passed through this city Friday on his way to Sutherland. He got off the train long enough to greet a few friends.

Seldom do people in a community like this get a chance to see such an array of artists as will be in Sioux Falls for two performances on Saturday, Oct. 10th. At the head of the combination is the peerless Nordica who is well known to the music loving peope of the entire country. Then comes Mme. Fisk, the contralto, who has sung with all the big opera companies. Mr. Nathan Franko needs no words of praise from us as a violinist. He is in the front rank of violin artists of the Over postoffice. world. Then with these comes Prof. Duss at the head of the Metropolitan Opera house orchestra of New York City with sixty members. The company travels in a special train of four cars and Sioux Falls is the only city visited between Minneapolis and Denver. Through the efforts of Manager Bear he has secured this great combination after giving an extraordinary large guarantee, but he has faith in the public of Sioux Falls and surronding country to beleive that he will get out whole. Mr. Bear has made the price of season tickets, which include the matinee and evening performance, both $3.00. Tickets for the matinee performance $1.50. Tickets for the evening performance alone $2.50.
