

THE DIVORCE IS ABSOLUTE

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt Legally Separated.

WIFE'S CHARGES SUSTAINED

She is to Have the Custody of the Children and a Snug Allowance. The Work of the Referees. Sustained by Judge of the Supreme Court.

By Southern Associated Press.

New York, March 5.—Judge Barrett, of the Supreme Court, this afternoon granted a decree of absolute divorce in favor of Mrs. Alva E. Vanderbilt from her husband, Wm. K. Vanderbilt, the well known millionaire. As all the testimony and the report of the referee have been sealed, no facts can be ascertained as to the parties who are implicated with Mr. Vanderbilt. Although a liberal allowance has been granted Mrs. Vanderbilt, there is no record of the sum which her husband has agreed to give her. Mrs. Vanderbilt is to have the care and custody of her three children.

The decree is granted upon the report of Edmund Kelly, who was appointed to hear and determine all the issues involved. In the action the plaintiff in the suit was served on Mr. Vanderbilt on January 3 last, and within a short time the answer of Mr. Vanderbilt was served by his counsel, Anderson, Howland and Murray. The case was sent to the referee on January 18. Mrs. Vanderbilt was represented by Joseph H. Choate, Col. Wm. Jay and Wm. A. Duer, and Henry H. Anderson represented Mr. Vanderbilt. The referee made his report on February 5, in which he found all the allegations in the complaint to be true, and Mrs. Vanderbilt was entitled to her decree of divorce and that she should also have the custody of the three children. Mr. Vanderbilt raised the issue as to the allegations of the divorce in his answer by denying the charges made in the complaint, and upon the issue the case was sent to Mr. Kelly as referee. His report finds that the allegations of Mrs. Vanderbilt are true and that Mr. Vanderbilt has been guilty of the acts charged against him. The parties were married on April 20, 1875. The report of the referee was confirmed at once and approved by Judge Barrett, who decreed that the parties were divorced and the marriage annulled. The decree provides that it is lawful for Mrs. Vanderbilt to marry again, but declares that it will not be lawful for Mr. Vanderbilt to again wed. The order of Mr. Vanderbilt, making a liberal allowance, was accepted by Mrs. Vanderbilt through her counsel in lieu of any other allowance to be made by court.

THE S. A. L. BOYCOTT.

President Hoffman Thinks the Injunction Will Stand.

By Southern Associated Press.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 5.—President H. C. Hoffman, of the Seaboard Air Line, left this evening for Norfolk for the purpose of meeting Vice-President St. John and discussing with him the boycott which has been declared against the Seaboard by the Southern Railway and Steamship Association. The hearing of the application to make the injunction permanent, which the Seaboard has obtained against the Western and Atlantic and Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, restraining them from joining the boycott, is set for next Saturday at Atlanta.

Mr. Hoffman said to day that he felt confident that the Court would decide in favor of his line, in which event the boycott will be practically useless, as without the co-operation of those lines the Southern Railway and Steamship Association could not make it effective.

THE BOLD BAD BURGLARS.

Operating in the Suburbs. Several Houses Robbed.

It would appear that a gang of bold bad burglars are operating in the suburbs of Norfolk. So far the police have accomplished but little towards driving them out of the city.

HOUSES ROBBERED.

The residence of Mr. B. F. Watson, on Clay avenue, Bramblton, was entered by burglars Monday night by means of a stepladder to the roof of the kitchen and then through a rear window. A pocketbook containing $20 was taken from the room in which Mr. Watson was sleeping, as was also a tin box containing papers. Other things in the house were ransacked, but nothing else taken. After leaving the house they went to the woodhouse, where the tin box was broken and the papers scattered. The pocketbook was torn to pieces and also thrown on the floor. There was also a small robbery committed on the premises of Mr. T. G. Gordon, Brown and Reservoir avenues.

Mr. John H. Davis' store, on Colley and A avenues, was entered Monday night and robbed of several dollars' worth of goods. The fact that the door had been forced was discovered by Police Officers Wade and Taylor.

HELD UP.

Another attempt at "holding up" in Atlantic City Ward has been reported to the police. A citizen of Berkeley was driving in from Lambert's Point Monday night and says an attempt was made by four men to hold him up, but that he fired at them and frightened them off. The police instituted a search for the alleged highwaymen, but without success.

CHECK FLASHER.

A check flasher has reached Norfolk again and it appears he has no trouble in passing his bogus paper. A white man named Ernest A. Wiedtke was arrested yesterday, charged with passing a bogus check for $25 on W. A. Stewart, and one for the same amount on C. H. Henley.

THE GOV. AMES IN PORT.

The Big Storm-Tossed Schooner Arrives Safely.

After being tossed around the Atlantic ocean for four weeks the livestock schooner Gov. Ames, Capt. C. A. Davis, from Salem, Mass., arrived to port yesterday morning in good condition, but her captain reports having passed through the roughest weather he ever experienced. Her log showed that the vessel had, indeed, encountered rough weather, having been thrown around promiscuously by the waves and wind. While the gales were the heaviest ever encountered by the captain, the vessel's crew did not run into the cold weather experienced on land during the past month. The Gov. Ames was welcomed into port by all of the tugs and vessel in the harbor.

MORE PRECIOUS THAN GOLD.

Miss Williams Disposes of Her Beautiful Oil Painting.

Miss Mayme Williams, of Augusta, Ga., who has been in this city for two weeks endeavoring to dispose of a pretty oil painting, "Is It Gold?" executed by her sister, Miss Louisa Williams, has met with success, and returns heartily thanks to the people of Norfolk for the interest they have taken in her and her work. It will be remembered that Miss Williams and her sister are supporting their father, a disabled Confederate veteran, by the sale of their paintings, as stated in THE VIRGINIAN several days ago. Mr. J. N. Williams, of the firm of Walke & Williams, is now the possessor of "Is It Gold?" which, if it is not, is just as highly prized as the precious metal.

Enormous Reductions in Prices—Dry Goods, Fancy Goods and Notions.

Since the enforcement of the new tariff schedule has been enormous. The undersigned have been quick to realize that prices on all goods must change, and instead of waiting to reduce stock at the old prices, have placed the knife in deep, and cut prices on everything to meet the new values, realizing that the first loss is always the best. Ladies intending shopping for dress goods or dry goods of any grade, would certainly study their own interest by giving Levy Bros., 171 Main street, a call before making purchases. Prominent Citizens Arrested for Standing on the Corner.

OFFICER ATWOOD SAYS MOVE ON

Two Well Known Gentlemen Are Told Not to Stand on the Corner and Two Others Are Actually Arrested. An Indignant Man Vents His Feelings.

A gentleman walked up to reporter of THE VIRGINIAN yesterday and said: "There is a police officer on this beat" (referring to the West Main street beat) "who gives marked evidence of insanity. I really believe he is crazy." "What has he been doing?" asked the newspaper man.

"Two of the most prominent business men in the city and myself were standing at the corner of Main and Granby streets discussing a matter of business and this lunatic of a policeman came up and said, 'You will have to move on. I cannot allow you to stand on the street.' I replied that I was violating no law and would not move on. He then said, 'I will have to put all of you under arrest. I have orders to do so and I must obey my orders.' I told him I would not move and my friend, rather than have trouble, left."

"One of the gentlemen he was talking to is not a resident of Norfolk, but has recently invested more than $200,000 in a manufacturing plant here."

The Norfolk citizen while talking to the newspaper man was strong in his denunciation of the rules recently issued.

About noon two well known citizens were arrested on the corner of Main and Bank streets by Officer Atwood, the same policeman who drove the gentleman from the corner of Main and Granby. They were taken before Justice Burroughs, who decided that they had not blocked the street or been guilty of any other offense, and they were discharged. In deciding the case the Court held that the Police Department has a right to keep the streets from being blocked, but they cannot keep a person from standing on the street.

Chief of Police Robman was seen at his office by a VIRGINIAN reporter yesterday afternoon and asked by what authority the order to arrest persons for standing on the street was issued.

"No such order has been issued," said the Chief.

"Well, the officer arrested two citizens on his own authority, then?" asked the reporter.

"No," said the Chief, "this matter has been misunderstood. No arrests were made. Come in here," he continued, as he led the way into the captain's room, where both Capt. King and Ladd were seated.

Capt. Ladd said he issued the order to the men to break up corner loafing, as many complaints had come in.

Capt. King said that the officer in question had made no arrests; that he approached the gentlemen and asked them to move on; that they doubted his authority to order them to move and came to the station to find out about it; that he sent them to Justice Burroughs.

"But they were not under arrest and their names were not entered on the slate," he said.

"But," asked the reporter, "shouldn't a man on the police force be well enough acquainted on the 'beat' he is covering to distinguish well known business men from the common corner loafers?"

"Yes, he should," said the Chief, and the two Captains agreed with him.

AMUSEMENTS.

Opera.—Marie Tavy and her magnificent company gave three excellent performances at the Academy of Music yesterday afternoon and evening, and never were audiences better pleased.

At the Matinee "Carmen" was presented, and at night, "Cavalleria Rusticana," and "Pagliacci" closed the engagement. Madame Tavy assuming the leading roles in the two former productions, and it is needless to say that she fully met all their requirements.

In the last named performance Nini Bertini Humphreys sang and acted the leading role with marked effect and was ably seconded by Payne Clarke and Wm. Mertens. The Tavy Opera Company has made an impression here which will long linger with our people. The applause last evening was not only frequently bestowed, but was eminent in just.

SCATCH THIEVES ARRESTED.—Newport News snatch thieves have made their appearance in Suffolk, and yesterday attempted a little game on Frank Larkins, who keeps a second hand clothing store on East Washington street. Three boys ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, went in the store with the ostensible purpose of making a purchase. When the proprietor's back was turned one of them grabbed a pair of pants and ran. Sergeant Ames was notified and arrested the three, whom he put in the lockup. They gave names as Frank Moore, Henry Watson and Charlie Whitehurst, and claimed that they were from Newport News. They will have a hearing in the Police Court this morning.

BENEFIT ENTERTAINMENT.—The elocution and musical classes of Nansemond Seminary will, on next Friday evening, in the Seminary music hall, give an entertainment for the benefit of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Suffolk. The admission will be small.

A. CATZEN'S INSURANCE.—The Georgia Home, Caledonian and Niagara Fire Insurance Companies yesterday paid A. Catzen the pro rata portion of the fire risk carried by them on his stock, which was injured last autumn. These companies, with the Lion, which settled last week, have paid the assured $1,770, that amount being a compromise, mutually satisfactory. The sum named by the appraisers who examined the stock, was $2,150.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.—John Folk, colored, was yesterday before Mayor Brewer, charged with forgery. It seemed that he had signed the name of his brother, Alexander Folk, to an order for $1 on P. S. Chapman & Co. After short argument by counsel, W. H. Arrington, the warrant was dismissed.

PROPERTY TRANSFERRED.—William B. Causey, administrator of Peter B. Prentiss, deceased, trustee, to Benjamin M. Bruce, twenty seven acres of land in Cypress District, Nansemond county; consideration, $82.

MOSES McDONALD SHOT.—Moses McDonald, an old offender, was shot in the back yesterday morning about 1 o'clock by Officer Jeff Matthews. He was detected by the officer in the act of stealing coal near the Norfolk and Western depot and ran at full speed when observing that he was watched. The officer commanded him to halt, but he paid no attention to the order and was shot down. Dr. W. W. Murray probed for the ball later in the day, but without success. The wound is of a very serious character. Dr. Murray said last night that McDonald was quite ill, suffering from intense fever. He was implicated in a train robbery on the Seaboard Air Line last year and during February of this year he paid $10 in the Mayor's Court for coal stealing on the Norfolk and Western.

AN AFTERNOON TEA.

Matters relating to art were freely discussed by those present and a pleasant afternoon was spent.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of disease in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edison. "It is such a simple thing and so common that few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edison does not tell you how to cure a cold, but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists.

HAS REACHED WASHINGTON.

A Beautiful Tale of Three Women Who Bared Their Heads at the Theater.

Three ladies walked down the center aisle in the National theater Monday night. They wore hats—hats of a florid style of architecture and covered with luxuriant vegetation. Strong men shuddered and grew pale with anxiety as to where those hats would eventually locate themselves, and as the ladies slowly moved to the front the feelings of the audience verged upon the stormy and tumultuous. At last they were seated well down toward the orchestra, and at least 100 persons—those directly in the line of sight—turned wan and ghastly with despair. In a moment, however, nimble fingers were at work, and before the watchers could gulp down their first wild anguish the hats disappeared, and three sleek, shapely and inoffensive heads appeared in place of them.

So the fashion has reached Washington. We have among us, then, the pioneers of the propaganda of mercy, consideration and gentleness. A new standard of morality has been erected. Women are showing their thoughtless sisters how to be kind as well as beautiful, gentle as well as fair, how to bless as well as to adorn the world. Here is a fashion which recognizes humanity, a manifestation of female loveliness that makes allowance for the comfort of others. It is a new philosophy, a gospel of sweetness and light, a dispensation of true ecstacy.

Why cannot the superior set make common cause in this? Why, if they must have their hats wherewith to paralyze the vestibule and fill the aisles with pagentry as they come and go—why can they not at least follow the divine example we have chronicled and uncover when they take their seats?—Washington Post.

THE NEW WOMAN IN GEORGIA.

She Cycled Through the Streets of Atlanta and Horrified the Natives.

A few days ago, before the snow came, there was an amusing little happening on one of the principal streets of the city which bears relating. Two men from away up in North Georgia who chanced to be down here attending the United States court as witnesses in some moonshine case were walking along talking enthusiastically about a proposition to go in and get an oyster stew for dinner. The matter of dispute seemed to be as to who should pay for the stew. They were somewhat excited and paying little attention to the rest of the world when all of a sudden a woman on a bicycle swept up behind them very close to their backs and gave the bell of her wheel a sharp whirl of a ring.

"Whoop! Don't do that again!" screamed one of them, and they both shot away up in the air and landed many feet away.

Turning around, they saw the lady dashing off down the street, unconcernedly bobbing up squarely over the Belgian block.

"Gee darn my buttons," said one of the visitors to the other, "hit's one uv dem votin women dat's come down here fum de north. Dey'll be doin uv ev'y-thing fust thing you know."—Atlanta Constitution.

THE QUEEN'S HEALTH.

Differing Opinions on This and Other Subjects Connected With Her Highness.

Queen Victoria has been in London recently, according to The Court Circular, but if it had not been for the official chroniclers the inhabitants of the metropolis would probably not have been aware of their sovereign's presence among them, for, save for her drives to and from the railway stations, her majesty has only shown herself in public once, and then muffled up to the eyes against the cold weather. On the strength of that solitary peep courtly but mendacious reporters have ventured to descend upon the queen's good health and lively spirits.

The fact is that she never looked so aged and wan and worn as at present. She is less able than ever to walk even the shortest distance without assistance, and she is bent almost double. Nevertheless the renewed talk of her abdicating in favor of the Prince of Wales may be dismissed as pure invention, for, if physically feeble, Queen Victoria is mentally a thoroughly sound woman, and she is said to retain to the fullest degree her marvelously clear perception of the most intricate affairs of state. She will start for the south of France in about a week.—London Letter.
