TO RESCUE THE FALLEN

Mrs. Charlton Edholm Addresses a Large Audience on This Important Subject.

MANY LADIES TO GO A-SLUMMING.

Copious Figures Produced to Show the Extent of the Traffic—Mrs. Edholm Tells of Her Experience Among the Fallen Women and With the Liquor Traffic.

For more than an hour last night an audience which filled the lecture room of Centenary M. E. Church listened to a stirring address from Mrs. Charlton Edholm, known as the Purity Evangelist. Mrs. Edholm is laboring in the interest of the Florence Crittenden Mission work and has traveled all over the country, visiting hundreds of cities and rescuing thousands of fallen girls.

She was introduced by Mrs. R. H. Jones, of the local W. C. T. U., who referred to her as one who had stood before crowded houses all over the country in an effort to lift up fallen sisters.

Mrs. Edholm, in opening, said there were 230,000 erring girls in this land and every one of them were some father's and mother's daughter and possibly some brother's sister. She offered a fervant prayer for the haunts of vice which infest Norfolk as well as the larger cities, and asserted that the traffic in drink was the cause of the traffic in girls.

"I remember the time when Christ asked me to go to the slums and try to save these girls," said the speaker. "I pulled my skirts back and said I would work among children and respectable sinners, but could not go among these outcasts. When Mr. Crittenden told me I should go into this work I told him I valued my reputation too highly; that I was willing to part with anything for the sake of God's work, but I could not jeopardize my reputation. 'Give your reputation to God and he'll take care of it,' said Mr. Crittenden.

"I have since consecrated myself to this work and have never heard anything against my reputation—not a word of criticism."

She dwelt at some length upon her work among the slums of New York, mentioning one of the haunts of vice in which she found ten girls between the ages of 13 and 16 years. "I asked one of these girls if her mother knew she was there," said the speaker, "and the little thing burst into tears, said she was held a prisoner there and wanted to leave. We had to buy her liberty for $6 from the proprietress of the house, who refused to let her leave.

"At the Florence Crittenden Mission in New York there are girls who are the daughters of ministers, and Congressmen and there are some from Norfolk."

Mrs. Edholm claimed that there was an organized and systemized traffic in girls in this country and that the price of a girl slave was from $25 to $50—not as much as one would pay for a China pig or a horse.

There are 20,000,000 Christians in this land to rescue those 230,000 erring girls. She said the various traps to lure girls were mock marriages, starvation wages, wine rooms, round dances, drugs, liquors, fraud, deceit and even violence.

Forty-six thousand girls, she said, enter this abandoned life every year—more than one hundred every night.

Mrs. Edholm said she would be in the city eight days and in that time she wanted to wipt out a debt of $1,500 hanging over the Florence Crittenden Home in this city.

She spoke of the liquor traffic and denounced the clubs as even worse than the saloons, making a powerful appeal in behalf of prohibition of the liquor traffic. She told how her dead husband had been crazed by drink, which eventually led to his death, and many handkerchiefs wept away the tears which were gathered in the eyes of her auditors.

Mrs. Edholm yesterday spoke at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to the W. C. T. U. and Frances Barnes Y's, and outlined her work.

To-night she will speak at the Granby-Street M. E. Church and at the conclusion of the meeting, and in company with a number of ladies of this city and Chief of Police King, will visit the slums and talk to the girls in whose rescue she is interested.

On Sunday night she will speak at McKendree Church, in Brambleton.

The Carnival of Trade.

The attendance still keeps up at the Carnival of Trade at the Armory, and last night hundreds of pretty young ladies and gallant young men were present. A fish pond has been added, and many last night tempted fate. Their success at angling caused much amusement.

Last night was an evenig of music and humor—the former being furnished by Mr. James A. Casey, and the latter by Mr. F. J. Antelotti. The latter recited the Italian's description of a ball game and brought down the house. Both were encored several times.

To-night the special attraction will be the Persian Guards March and Drill. Two companies will appear—the first in command of Herbert Davis, and the second in command of Bernice Bowden. Captain A. Dusch will be in charge of all. The feucers will be Messrs. S. J. Anderson and W. E. Lankford.

Delegates Elected.

The First Baptist Church has appointed the following delegates and alternates to the General Association of Virginia, which convenes at Petersburg Friday of this week: Delegates—H. J. Williamson, John T. Williamson, D. C. Whitehurst; alternates—A. B. Rawlett, Robert Stephen, W. A. Walker.

At the Freemason-Street Baptist Church last night the following were elected as delegates to the same convention:

Rev. Dr. M. B. Wharton, Dr. L. Lankford, Burnleigh Lankford, W. A. James, L. Royster, L. P. Roberts, C. W. Kellinger and George W. Dey.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE LOVE CHASE.—It is doubtful if Marie Wainwright ever attempted a role more suited to her style of acting than that of Constance, in which she appeared at he Academy of Music last evening when Sheridan Knowles' comedy of "The Love Chase" was presented by the following cast:

Wildrake, a sportsman, Mr. Nathaniel Hartwig; Sir William Fondlove, Mr. Barton Hill; Waller, in love with Lydia, Mr. Joseph Zehner; Trueworth, a friend of Sir William, Mr. Geoffry Stein; Neville and Humphries, friends to Waller, Mr. Alfred Burnham and Mr. John Borden; Lash, servant to Wildrake, Mr. Cecil Magnus; Servant, Mr. Walter Crane; Widow Green, Miss Hattie Russell; Lydia, Miss Gertrude Elliott; Phoebe, Miss Jane Holly; Amelia, Miss Kate Bromley, and Constance daughter to Sir William, Miss Wainwright.

In face and form Miss Wainwright is passing fair, and withal a capital actress whom it is a pleasure to see. She was ably supported, as a glance at the cast would indicate, and especially so by Miss Hattie Russell as Widow Green, Mr. Barton Hill as Sir William and Mr. Nathaniel Hartwig as Wildrake the sportsman. To-night Tom Taylor's "Unequal Match" will be put on with Miss Wainwright as Hester Grazebrook.

"THE WHITE SQUADRON."—The attraction at the Academy of Music tomorrow (Friday) night is the elaborate production, "The White Squadron." The play is built on patriotic lines and a deeply interesting story is developed. The stage is continuously filled with thrilling episodes and beautiful stage pictures. In the third act the vessels of the magnificent "White Squadron," under full steam and sail, are shown. In scenery, stage appointments and company the production is strictly first-class.

Arrested on Suspicion.

For some time past Pendleton & Boyce have been missing harness from their stables on Union street and about 1 o'clock this morning an attache of the stable found in the loft two colored men who gave their names as Frank Gibson and Davy Mallett. Drawing a pistol he made them surrender, when Charles Wynne, also colored, appeared upon the scene and advised them not to submit to arrest. Mr. Cockrane bagged all three, and turned them over to Officer Hunter, who sent them to the police station, where they await a hearing by Justice Burroughs this morning.

The Husband Behind the Bars.

On Tuesday night Berlin Hedley, colored, caused the arrest of his wife, Alice Hedley, upon a charge of violating her marriage vows. He did not substatiate the charge yesterday morning, and the case was dismissed. Last night shortly after 12 o'clock he went to his wife's home in Fourth Ward and according to her statement broke in the door and threatened to annihilate her. She called Officer Wade, and the man is now behind the bars.

VIRGINIA METHODISTS

The Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, In Richmond.

THE CANNON-LAFFERTY CONTROVERSY.

The Rev. Dr. J. L. M. Curry Introduced to the Conference Over Which Bishop Galloway is Presiding With Becoming Grace and Dignity—Committees Appointed.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13.—(Special)—Long before the hour for the Methodist Conference to meet yesterday a crowd of people began to fill Centenary Church. Everything started off smoothly. Bishop Galloway presides well and disposes of business in a business-like manner. The newspaper men are well provided for, thanks to Rev. H. M. Hope, of Petersburg, himself an old newspaper man, and now one of the ablest ministers in the Conference.

Bishop Galloway, of Mississippi, called the Conference to order at 9:30 o'clock, and the Rev. Paul Whitehead took the place of secretary. The Bishop read with much expression from the scriptures, in the First Epistle of St. Peter, chapter 5. Then the Conference rose to its feet and sang Charles Wesley's noble hymn, No. 228, a very appropriate selection for such a gathering, for the first verse is this:

"And are we yet alive
And see each other's face?
Glory and praise to Jesus give
For His redeeming grace!

Then the Bishop offered a frevent prayer, which was punctuated with frequent and hearty "Amens" from the preachers and congregation.

The roll of delegates was next called by Dr. Paul Whitehead, secretary of the last conference, and the delegates answered to their names as they were called.

Revs. S. S. Lambeth and Ernest Stevens were chosen as assistant secretaries by a unanimous vote.

The first business transacted was the selection of the hour of 9:30 o'clock a. m. for daily meeting.

The presiding Bishop announced that the Grace Street Presbyterian Church had kindly tendered the use of the study of that church to the conference for any use that it might find for it.

THE COMMITTEES.

The committees on publishing interests were then appointed, and are as follows, by districts:

Norfolk—Rev. George H. Wray, Mr. C. W. Grandy.

Eastern Shore—Mr. P. E. Hines, Rev. T. N. Potts.

Danville—Rev. James O. Moses, Mr. E. G. Moseley.

Farmville—Rev. F. M. Edwards, Mr. R. A. Blackford.

Petersburg—Rev. H. M. Hope, Mr. J. W. Bradbury.

Portsmouth—Rev. W. H. Edwards, Rev. J. H. Barker.

The Committee to Examine the District Conferences was then appointed as follows:

Rev. Charles E. Hobday, Rev. R. B. Scott, Rev. W. H. Gregory, Rev. R. H. Younger, Rev. W. A. Tompkins, Rev. C. S. Walmsley, Rev. R. F. Gayle, Rev. R. W. Nicholson, Rev. J. T. Bogman, Rev. W. W. Royall, Rev. J. R. Griffith.

The Committee on Introduction was appointed, and is made up of Rev. W. J. Young and Rev. J. T. Whitley.

DR. CURRY THERE.

At this point the Rev. Dr. J. L. M. Curry, of Washington, entered and was invited to a seat upon the platform by the presiding bishop. Doctor Curry was formally introduced to the Conference, and the delegates and congregation rose to their feet to welcome him. Dr. Curry expressed in his usual eloquent way, the honor and pleasure he felt in being with the Conference, and said he was particularly pleased at being introduced by Bishop Galloway, who was his associate on the Board of Trustees of the John F. Slater Educational Fund. Dr. Curry wished the Conference a pleasant and harmonious session, and felt sure that the gathering would be a blessing, under God, to all of them.

Rev. G. Hansford Spooner was appointed the postmaster of the Conference.

A Committee to Nominate a Committee on Conference Relations was appointed, composed of the Rev. Messrs. W. F. Tillett, J. S. Hunter, and W. H. Christian.

IN MEMORIAM.

The memoirs of members of the Conference who have died during the year just closed was the next subject, and for this sad duty a committee appointed, one member of the Conference for each one who has died, and they are: For the late Rev. D. P. Wills, Rev. Paul Whitehead; for the late Rev. E. P. Wilson, Rev. J. H. Amiss; for Rev. J. H. Hilldrup, Rev. J. S. Hunter; for Rev. W. E. Payne, Rev. W. F. Bain; for the late Rev. S. M. Eason, Rev. J. R. Sturgis; for the late Rev. J. C. Martin, Rev. J. Powell Garland; for the late Rev. W. F. Robins, Rev. W. E. Edwards.

The Rev. Dr. Brown called a meeting of the Joint Board of Finance to assemble in the steward's room of the Centenary Church at 7:30 this evening.

The Chair then appointed the following committees:

On Temperance—Revs. F. M. Edwards and L. B. Betty and Richard Irby.

On Bible Cours—Revs. W. V. Tudor, and W. G. Starr and Carter Glass.

A communication was read from the Richmond Young Men's Christian Association tendering the privileges of the association to members of the Conference.

Reports from the general officers were then submitted on missions, church extension, Sunday Schools, and publishing interests.

THE CANNON AND LAFFERTY CONTROVERSY.

Just as the Bishop asked the disciplinary question, "Are the preachers blameless in life and official administration," and was about to begin the examination of character, Rev. R. H. Bennett arose, and, as the body expected that there would be some reference to the controversy between himself, his brother-in-law, Mr. Cannon, and Dr. Lafferty, which has agitated the Church in this State during the past year, all conversation was suspended and close attention was given to what he had to say. He presented the following paper:

"Whereas, during the past year certain questions have arisen between the editor of the Richmond Christian Advocate and the undersigned, we hereby respectfully request of the Conference the apointment of a committe which shall thoroughly investigate all matters involved. R. H. BENNETT,
JAMES CANNON.

"November 13th, 1895."

Dr. Paul Whitehead said that inasmuch as the differences referred to had been between Rev. J. J. Lafferty and the parties signing the paper the name of Dr. Lafferty should appear in place of the name of the Richmond Christian Advocate. This was agreed to, and the paper, as amended, was received, and, on motion of Dr. Whitehead, was referred to a committee of nine to be apointed by the chair.

EXAMINATION OF CHARACTER.

The investigation of the personal and official character of the ministers was then begun, and the names first called were those of the presiding elders, who made a report of the work in their respective districts, and passed in examination of character.

Question 17 was called, "Who are supernumerary?" and the following ministers passed in examination of character, and their names were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations for the Supernumerary Relation: H. C. Bowles, W. H. Camper, Thomas H. Early, and W. E. Grant.

"Who are superannuated?" was called, and the following ministers passed in examination of character and their names were referred to the same committee for superannuated relations: Alexander M. Hall, James A. Riddick, J. J. Edwards, R. N. Crooks, John McClelland, W. A. Robinson, H. T. Bacon, J. B. Dey, J. R. Waggoner, T. P. Wise, T. J. Bayton, E. M. Jordan, J. F. Brannin, D. M. Wallace, Jacob Manning, L. S. Reed, J. L. Clark, J. E. Gates, J. W. Crider, and W. F. Bain.

The Board of Church Extension was constituted as follows: W. W. Lear, T. F. Cocke, Walter G. Bates, J. W. Bledsoe, T. G. Pullen, Dr. J. M. Williams, G. W. Wray, W. H. Kabler, C. C. Wertenbaker, J. T. Mastin and T. R. Crowder.

"WHO ARE READMITTED?"

In answer to this question Rev. O. Littleton presented the application of Clark W. Leftwich, from the Lynchburg district, a young man, who located several years ago on account of ill health. He was readmitted.

"Who are contined on trial?" E. J. Potts, W. C. Pace, S. C. Colonna, J. W. Parrish, Lloyd T. Williams, Charles T. Gibbs, D. W. Reed, W. T. A. Haynes, R. L. Wingfield, G. W. Jones, Thomas E. Johnson, and F. W. Davis, made their reports, passed approved examinations on the cause of study, and in character, and were continued on trial.

"What local preachers are elected deacons?" The following ministers, having the necessary qualifications, were elected to local deacon's orders: O. W. Reed, L. C. Shearer and John P. Finch.

Just before the Conference adjourned, which it did at 1:30 p. m. until to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, Captain Richard Irby invited the members to visit the Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, Va.

Then the Conference sang, "Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow," and the Bishop blessed them before they left the church.

Rev. Dr. A. Coke Smith, of Norfolk, preached the annual Conference sermon to-night.

PURELY PETERSBURG POINTERS

The Baptist Ministers Conference and Many Other Entertaining Facts.

Petersburg, Va., Nov. 13.—(Special.)—Rev. W. E. Evans, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, in Columbia, S. C., has accepted the call extended him some days ago by the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in this city, to succeed Rev. C. R. Hains, D. D., who tendered his resignation as rector of the church about a month ago, to take effect on the 1st of January next. Mr. Evans is a native of Maryland. He is married, and has two children. About six years ago he was pastor of Washington-Street M. E. Church, in this city, and remained as such for two years. He was transferred from here by the Virginia Conference to the charge of Granby-Street Church, in Norfolk. He subsequently left the Methodist Church and joined the Episcopal ministry. Mr. Evans is a very able preacher and is widely known in the State. Dr. Hains has almost lost his voice, and this was one of the reasons why he resigned his charge. He is much beloved by his congregation, who will part with him with great reluctance.

Rev. J. M. Pilcher, D. D., chairman of the joint missionary committees of the Portsmouth Baptist Association, has invited the committees to dine with him on Friday next, and hold their annual meeting at is residence. The committee of the Upper district consists of Rev. J. M. Pilcher, D. D., Rev. H. W. Battle, D. D., Rev. J. A. Barker, of Petersburg; Rev. J. G. Bradley, of Emporia; and Mr. J. M. Corbett, of Boykin's. The committee of the Middle District is composed of Rev. J. F. Deans, of Windsor; Rev. T. B. Shepherd, of Smithfield, Rev. J. L. McCutcheon, of Franklin, and Messrs. M. Lankford, of Southampton county, and C. C. Channell, of Isle of Wight county. The committee of the Lower District is composed of Messrs. L. B. Allen, of Berkley, James T. Borum, of Portsmouth, — Mears, of Princess Anne county, J. F. Griffin, of Churchland, and Rev. P. S. C. Davis, of Norfolk county.

The Baptist ministers of the State will hold a conference in this city beginning to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. The committee consisting of Revs. James B. Taylor, L. G. Broughton, W. W. Hamilton, and E. B. Pollard, appointed at Alexandria to arrange a programme for the conference, has prepared a most interesting one. The conference will continue in session for two days.

Messrs. C. W. Nibley and O. S. Taylor, the former of Baker City, Ore., and the latter hailing from Ogden, Utah, are in the city in the interest of what they term "truth" as far as it relates to mormanism.

Capt. T. F. Heath, of the Petersburg Greys, received this morning the following telegram:

Richmond, Va., Nov. 13th, 1895.

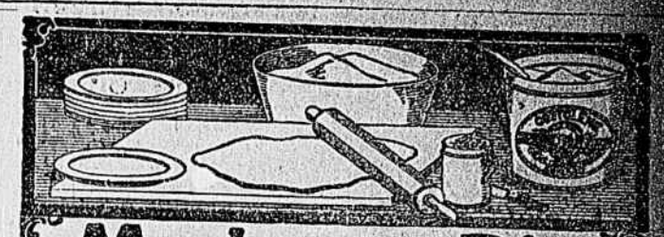
Capt. T. F. Heath:

Hold your company ready for call. Not necessary to assemble them until further orders. By command of Brigadier-General Phillips.

(Signed) WILLIAM M. EVANS,
Major and A. A. G.

On receipt of the telegram Capt. Heath sent a special messager to notify the members of the Petersburg Grays to hold themselves in readiness and not to leave the city.

It is presumed from the foregoing telegram that the Grays will be sent to Lunenburg Courthouse as guard to the Lunenburg murderers, should they be taken there.



Make a Pie

Shorten it with Cottolene instead of lard and see what a crisp crust it will have; how delicious and wholesome it will be. Pie made with Cottolene will do a dyspeptic good. Do everybody good because it is good. There is only one secret in cooking with Cottolene—use but two-thirds as much as you would naturally use of lard. Follow this rule and Cottolene will do the rest. Genuine is sold everywhere in tins with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, ST. LOUIS and CHICAGO.

CHILDREN BUT NOT HEIRS.

An Alleged Former Wife Springs a Sensation on the Family of a Millionaire.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 13.—The friends of the late Curtis E. Robinson, formerly a prominent real estate dealer of this city, and who died in 1892, were amazed to learn to-day that he is charged with having deserted a wife in Massachusetts in the early sixties, when he came to Chicago, and his three children are probably surprised to find their right to inheritance challenged by their Massachusetts relatives.

At the time of his death Robinson lived with his three children, Mrs. Martha J. Ruprecht, Curtis E. Robinson and Bessie D. Robinson. After his death his daughter, Mrs. Ruprecht, was made the administratratrix of the estate, which is represented to be worth about $1,000,000.

To-day a bill was filed in the United States Circuit Court by Robinson's brother, David; his sister, Betsy Eames, and four nieces, children of his dead sister and brother, all residing in Massachusetts, and who set up the claim that Curtis E. Robinson left a wife behind him in Massachusetts and was never married to his Chicago wife, and the three children having been born out of wedlock are not heirs to the estate of Curtis E. Robinson, but that the same belongs to his Massachusetts relatives.

An Alabama Enterprise.

An Alabama paper says that an enterprising Yankee book agent is making a barrel of money in Alabama. He came from Connecticut, and has been selling books chiefly to negroes. He soon came to appreciate the enthusiasm of the negro in matters of religion. He found that in all the illustrated Bibles the pictures of the angles were in white, and he conceived the idea of having a bible made for the colored race filled to overflowing with pictures of negro angles. The books cost him about $1.10, but he placed the first large shipment at $8 each, payable $2.50 cash, the balance in monthly payments. He is selling the Bibles as fast as he can get them delivered.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
