

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

THE BEST DAY OF ALL

The Attendance at the Fair Grounds Yesterday Equalled the Preceding Days.

THE WEATHER WAS FINE AND TRACK FAST

Racing Events Excited Intense Interest—A Fine Card for To-day—Senator Daniel Will Speak at Noon—Good News From Isle of Wight and Southampton.

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Auspicious conditions are aiding the managers of the Suffolk Fair this year. The weather has been ideal and the track fast. The crowd to-day was the largest yet, and would probably equal the combined attendance of yesterday and Tuesday. There were four racing events which furnished plenty of excitement to the devotees of the sport. There were no bookies, but a number of private wagers were made on results. The summaries:

2:30 CLASS, MILE HEAT, BEST 3 IN 5
Easter Lily 1 1 1
Lucenia 2 2 2
King Alley 3 3 3
B. B. 4 4 4
Times—2:39, 2:36½, 2:35½.

2:40 CLASS, MILE HEAT, BEST 3 IN 5

MIXED RACE, MILE HEATS, BEST TWO IN THREE.
High Noon (pacer) 1 2 1
Little Grille (trotter) 2 1 2
Times—2:27 and 2:22.

To-morrow bids fair to be the best day since the organization of the association. There will be oratory and racing of a high order. It is Democratic day and in honor of this event the services of Hon. John W. Daniel, the eloquent apostle of free silver and friend of reform, have been promised by State Chairman Ellyson. Senator Daniel will begin his speech at 12:30 o'clock. The admission fee will be cut in half—25 cents.

One of the most interesting races which has been announced yet has been

NEWPORT NEWS.

A GREAT RALLY.

Candidate Young and Hon. Rush Miller Speak.

Newport News, Va., Oct. 22.—In the Johnson's Opera House was well filled last night to hear Candidate W. A. Young and Mr. J. Rush Miller, of Pulaski, on the issues of the campaign. Mr. Young devoted the greater part of the time to the issues in general before the American people, while Mr. Miller made a specialty of the silver plank of the platform.

Mr. Young began by giving a history of the production of silver and gold of the world for 100 years, from 1792 to 1892, showing the product in round numbers to have been: Gold, $5,001,000; silver, $5,100,000, an excess in gold of over $500,000, and concluded that the fall in price of bullion could not have been due to overproduction, but in fact was due to under consumption.

He next referred to the custom of India of exchanging a bushel of wheat for an ounce of silver; made cheap produce for Western Europe, in which market we are competitors.

General issues were then taken up. At the conclusion of Candidate Young's speech, Chairman Curtis introduced Judge Barham, who spoke briefly on the financial question, and in turn introduced Colonel J. R. Miller.

Although Colonel Miller's address was confined chiefly to the money question which he considered philosophically, he did not forget to score the Hannacrats and the calumniators of W. J. Bryan.

This was the most enthusiastic meeting of the campaign in this city. The Opera-House was shaken to the foundation over and over by applause and cheers.

In the Hustings Court to-day the estate of Thomas Monaghan was appraised by S. S. Archibald, W. T. Fitzsimmons, J. J. O'Donnell, J. A. Hiersberg and Dr. C. Perkins.

Daniel Monaghan qualified as administrator of the effects of Thos. Monaghan, Kate Hughes becoming his surety. Lewis Proctor, a native of Scotland, took out naturalization papers.

POLICE COURT.

Joe Burns, drunk, fine $1 and costs, Geo. Harris, assault, fine $1 and costs, appeal noted.

Jack Gloyin, assault, fine $1 and costs, appeal noted.

Mary Connelly, larceny; dismissed at the costs of complainant.

There were also two cases of trespass on the property of the C. & O. during the afternoon session, which are not concluded at this writing.

A marriage license was issued to Jas. G. Webber and Vertie Phelps.

DISABLED VESSELS.

British steamship Ursa, laden with cargo of cotton, oil and cotton seed at Galveston for Hamburg, via Newport News for coal, arrived here Wednesday in a bad condition, resulting from the leaking of oil tanks. She was being taken out yesterday in order to inspect the tanks.

Schooner Mary E. Rickerson, with lumber from New York enroute to Haiti, put into this port on account of disabilities received during the recent gale along the coast. She is being repaired at this shipyard.

JOHN S. WISE.

An able political speech from a Republican stand point was delivered evening by Hon. John S. Wise Wednesday evening. Mr. Wise's speech was interspersed with a number of good anecdotes, while brilliant flashes of wit preserved an even current of merriment among Democratic auditors. Of course the speaker tried to belittle Mr. Bryan and the Democratic party while he spoke of President Cleveland in the most respectful manner and accorded him the highest praise for the course he pursued during the Chicago strike. Referring to the factional fight in this district Mr. Wise said that instead of cracking chinsches they should be loading cannons. Continuing, the speaker said that when the time of receiving patronage comes I will be there and I will see that dagger users in these petty party destroying fights shall be barred. At a late hour Dr. Richard Wise was introduced. He had but little time to touch briefly upon the factional fight, which has been in progress for some months. The Doctor said that Mr. Dyer withdrew in the interest of the Republican party and McKinley and Hobart, and that he (Wise) was the only Republican candidate in the race, and that nothing short of Almighty God could make him retire. In conclusion the candidate charged the county with not using the money received for campaign purposes in the interest of the campaign.

WILL BECOME A ROYAL BRIDE.

An enthusiastic reception to Princess Helene of Montenegro.

Rome, Oct. 22.—Princess Helene of Montenegro, the affianced bride of the Prince of Naples, whose marriage to the Crown Prince of Italy takes place Saturday, arrived this morning, accompanied by members of her family to be present at her wedding. She was met at the station by King Humbert, Queen Margherita, the Duke and Duchess of Aosta, and the Count of Turin. When the train stopped the Prince of Naples, who was escorting his fiancée, assisted her to alight. Queen Margherita was the first to greet her, kissing her four times. The progress of the Princess Helene through the streets from the station to the Quirinal was a veritable ovation. Fully 300,000 cheering people lined the route, and the troops in front of them at times found great difficulty in restraining their enthusiasm sufficiently to keep them within bounds. The Princess became greatly excited at the grandeur of her reception and several times shed tears. The party reached the Quirinal at noon.

DETECTIVES AT WORK

It is Learned that Many Are Already Engaged on the Southside.

REPUBLICANS ADMIT HAVING THEM

Lamb Says His Election is Certain and Fraud is Not Needed—Republicans Worried by Bohem and Mitchell—Young Man Dies From Injuries Received at Football.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Some of the Republican leaders to-day admitted that they had engaged detectives for use in Virginia on election day. Some of them will reach Richmond next week and will be assigned to work. The purpose in having these men here is stated to be to secure evidence of fraud if there is any fraud committed.

Mr. Wilson, in charge of the Democratic speakers, said to-day that he had heard upon pretty good authority that already a great many detectives are at work in the southside counties.

CAPTAIN LAMB IS CERTAIN.

I had a talk to-day with Captain John Lamb, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district. He said he believed the election in this district would be conducted just as fairly as possible. "I have told all of my friends," said he, "to do nothing the honesty of which can be questioned. My election is absolutely certain, and it is my earnest desire that no act shall be committed that will give my opponent any ground upon which to base a contest. I have been all over the district and a large majority of the voters are for me."

REPUBLICAN METHODS.

It is not likely that the Republicans will get up any more big meetings here during the canvass. They are holding several small ones every night. The attitude of the Bohem-Mitchell following is causing the Republican leaders considerable uneasiness. Bohem and Mitchell are holding meetings every night in Jackson Ward, and are "roasting" Allan, Waddill, and Brady. The trouble is that the Jackson Ward politicians have been ignored entirely by those in charge of the canvass, and they do not like the idea at all. Their discontent is having its effect upon the negro voters.

REPUBLICANS BETTING.

The Republicans or some of them, believe that Lewis will carry Richmond, and they are betting money on the result. In most cases they demand odds of two to one.

TWO DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.

The Democrats had two meetings here to-night. Mr. Stilson Hutchins addressed a large crowd in Old Market Hall, and Messrs. Charles M. Wallace, Jr., and D. C. Richardson spoke in Sanger Hall. To-morrow night W. R. Alexander, of Winchester, O'Ferrall's old enemy, will speak in Fulton.

KILLED AT FOOTBALL.

Charles Blaylock, a youth of nineteen years of age, died here Monday and was buried yesterday. Death was occasioned by injuries received in a football game last Thursday. His back was hurt, but he went about a day or two before he felt very much pain. When he finally had to take to his bed he did not live long.

AN HISTORIC FLAG.

There was an interesting ceremony at the Confederate Museum to-day when a flag that used to belong to General Gustavus W. Smith's command, was presented by Pickett Camp to the Museum. Captain R. F. Morris made the presentation, and Rev. Dr. Landon R. Mason accepted the flag on the part of the ladies.

RAN OVER A LIVE WIRE.

After a fashion Mr. Abner Goode ate a live electric wire yesterday afternoon and lived. Mr. Goode, who is a young man employed at the Chesapeake and Ohio offices on Broad street, rode down that thoroughfare at 2:25 o'clock. At Eighteenth street he came in contact with a live electric wire. He knew not of it for at least ten minutes later when he came to an Italian fruit stand near by. Then he found gathered around him among others Mr. Frank Cunningham, Jr., who took him home.

A reporter found Mr. Goode at his home, 2907 East Marshall street, in charge of Dr. Garcin. He was lying in bed and it was with difficulty that the reporter made him understand what the latter wanted to know. Said Mr. Goode: "I left my home at ten minutes of time to return to work. I was going at a lively clip. I remember riding along until I reached the hill. I recall seeing several men at work on a wire at Eighteenth and Broad streets. I rode down the hill. All I remember until I reached Eighteenth street. There they tell me that I tumbled off my wheel as if dead."

Regarding Mr. Goode's deafness the doctor is able to express no opinion. He may or may not recover his hearing. There is great hope among his friends that he will suffer no ill effects of the accident.

STILL VERY ILL.

There is no change in the condition of Mr. Isaac Davenport, Jr., who is quite ill at his residence, No. 508 East Grace street. Mr. Davenport has been in failing health for some years, but was taken ill Monday evening.

IF Troubled With Rheumatism Read This.

Annapolis, Md., April 16, 1894—I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism and found it to be all that is claimed for it. I believe it to be the best preparation for rheumatism and deep seated muscular pains on the market, and the fully recommending it to the public. JNO. G. NOTES FROM PETERSBURG.

A Swagger German—Democratic Rally—Sunday Liquor Selling.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—Mr. L. Spalding, agent of the Southern Express Company in this city, received to-day a letter from the Secretary of the American Star Homing Club, of York, Pa., stating that a coop of carrier pigeons would be sent him this week. The birds will arrive here about Saturday morning, and will be liberated on Monday.

A SWAGGER GERMAN.

A grand german is to be given at Library Hall on next Tuesday night under the management of Mr. Samuel A. Reinach, for the benefit of the organ fund of the Synagogue here.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Major Mann Page, Mr. John J. Cooke, Commonwealth's Attorney of Prince George county, and Mr. Charles Trotter Lassiter, of this city, spoke at Newcastles, Prince George county, to-day in the interest of Bryan, Sewall and Epes. About 250 people are said to have been present.

SUNDAY LIQUOR SELLING.

James Hennessy, a merchant doing business on Halifax street, was before the Hustings Court this morning to answer the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. Judge Mullen took the case under advisement until to-morrow, when he will render his decision. Hennessy was fined $50 and costs by the Mayor from whose decision he took an appeal to the higher court.

JOINT DEBATE.

There will be a political debate at Winfree's Store, Chesterfield county, next Saturday night. General C. A. Battle will speak for Bryan, Lamb and free coinage. The Republicans will be represented by General Boiling or Judge Lewis.

DANIEL FRIDAY NIGHT.

Major John W. Daniel will speak at the Academy of Music on Friday night, October 30th.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Epworth League, of Washington Street M. E. Church, has been reorganized, with Rev. Dr. W. E. Edwards as President.

The colored Young Men's Christian Association of this city, is preparing to celebrate its sixth anniversary, which will be observed by holding a public meeting at the Harrison street Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, November 1st.

MARRIAGE.

Miss Lottie L. Faison and Mr. Lucius W. Andrews were married to-night. The bride is a very attractive young lady. The groom is a popular young plumber who resides at Ettrick, Chesterfield county.

RESIGNATION.

Dr. W. C. Barker, second assistant physician at the Central State Hospital, to-day tendered his resignation of that office to Mr. Robert Gilliam, president of the Board of Directors of the institution, to take effect at the next meeting of the Board, which will be held on the first of January next.

Dr. Barker has been the second assistant physician at the hospital for the past ten years, and has made a most excellent and efficient officer.

CANAVA.

Canava is an iridescent dream in dress goods. There are those who are tired of rough stuffs—Canava is made for them. It is not a hopsack, a diagonal or a cloth—it is a new weave that takes the place of them. New shades, 45 inches wide, 87½c. and sold in Norfolk only here by arrangement with the maker.

About a hundred pieces of All-Wool Fancy Dress Goods at 25c. a yard. Never was such a gathering at such a price.

Twenty-five pieces of All-Wool and Silk and Wool Fancies; regular 50c. ones are here at 37½c.

Two hundred pieces or so of High Class Fancies in All-Wool and Silk and Silk and Wool. Homespun, Honey Comb, Basket, Diagonal and Bourette are 50c. here. This is 12½c. to 25c. a yard below the general run of stores.

Then, at 75c., is a long line of Foreign Fancies Bourette and other Silk and Wool Mixtures. Likely 25c. and in some cases certainly 50c. a yard is saved.

Dress Goods, like Cloaks here, are marked, as staples are, at the start, not high with an eye to reduction as the season advances or when forced to do so by competition, but on the store's small-profit system.

WATT, RETTEW & CLAY.
