Judge Roosevelt, of the Supreme Court of New York, has decided that where a wife contracts debts, even with the knowledge of her husband, provided that the wife contracted the debts for trading in her own name, the husband is not liable therefor.

The Law School in this city is prospering; seventy-five students are in attendance from various parts of the West, and more are coming in.

Our Wholesale Trade.

One of the strong points of the stability of Cincinnati wholesale trade is the trustworthiness of the wholesale merchants. Business, though depressed to a system, is not short of its honesty. For years and years men have been in the same firms, and furnished the same class of customers with reliable goods, on fair terms, without misrepresentation, and hence a character has been formed which brought wealth with it, but which is intrinsically above wealth.

These remarks have been induced by a casual observation of the stock and store of our friends Chas. Wolff & Co., successors of Thos. Sharp & Co., dry goods jobbers, on Walnut-street, a few doors below Fourth-street.

EMERGENCY IN ILLINOIS.—Edward Knook, an individual whom the good citizens of the town of Adeline had elevated to the dignified and honorable position of "Squire, last week eloped with a milliner and mantuamaker, who had been boarding for some time at his Knook's house.

THE HOUSE OF THE BISHOP OF PITTSBURGH BURNED.—The telegraph has already mentioned the burning of Bishop O'Connor's house, but the Dispatch gives these particulars:

THE PALMER'S BALM OF ROSE.—Is a preparation that will be duly appreciated by all that desire to restore by art the bloom of youth. Its application is quite easy, its effects perfectly natural, and its use is entirely harmless.
