Arrested for Embezzling.

National Associated Press to the Star.

HUDSON, N. Y., Nov. 6.—George E.

Hudson, wanted for embezzling $5,500 in money belonging to the Illinois Central Railroad Company, of Chicago, was arrested here yesterday. He had in his possession nearly $4,000 of the stolen money. He will be returned on a requisition.

In the Senate.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Senate met at 12 o'clock. Prayer was offered by the Chaplain. The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Postmaster General, calling attention to the deficiency of $631,000 in the salaries of the postmasters. Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The President sent in the following nominations: John Q. Smith, of Ohio, to be Consul General at Montreal; Dr.

Cooley, of Iowa, to be Consul at Spezia;

W. J. Lee, to be Assistant

Treasurer of the United States at Cincinnati; W. J. Lee, to be Postmaster at Pennsauken.

Vice Consul of Denmark.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The President has recognized Soren Jorgensen as Vice Consul of Denmark, in Nebraska.

Special to the Star.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—A signal triumph for the people was achieved in the success of Mr. Bland's motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill restoring the old silver dollar of 412½ grains, making it a legal tender for all debt, public and private, and allowing all persons to have silver bullion coined at the mints on the same terms that gold is coined. Began very injudiciously tried to ring in an amendment which, if accepted by Bland, might have endangered the bill, but this amendment was refused. Filibustering tactics were then employed by the orateurs of Wall street, but to no avail, and a square vote was had on the bill.

The first few responses on the roll-call showed how the tide was running, and ere the call was half over, success for the cause of the people was fully asured. The South and West stood nearly solid for the bill, and they were re-enforced by California, Texas and part of Pennsylvania. The days were only 84, and so the bill was passed.

REPEAL OF RESUMPTION.

On the subject of the bill to repeal the third section of the Resumption Act, which had apparently got into a hopeless tangle, a happy deliverance was effected, and a resolution adopted which insured the early consideration of the measure by the House, and a vote for it probably in a week.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The action of the Committee on the Pacific Railroad is delayed by Mr. Randall's chairman, Clarkson N. Potter, who has resigned his position, but asked that the acceptance of it be deferred.

Meanwhile Governor Throckmorton can not call the Committee together, and nothing can be done towards reporting a bill. The ingenious device of appointing a chairman to hold back and stifle the sentiments of a majority of the Committee is working as it was intended to work by the gentlemen who set up the job.

Prospect of the Silver Bill.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—It is generally believed here that the very large vote by which the silver bill was passed in the House insures its prompt passage in the Senate. The President, it is believed, will sign the bill.

The Trade Dollar.

The Director of the Mint says that there is really no basis for the spiteful criticisms on the order of the Secretary Sherman suspending the coinage of trade dollars. He says that there is over four millions on hand in excess of the demand—sufficient to meet all present demands.

Carpenter's Arrest.

The arrest recently in New Jersey of L. O. Carpenter, Ex-Collector of Internal Revenue for the District of South Carolina, was not inspired from here, though he is short at least $1,000 in his accounts at the time of his arrest. The Commissioner had given him thirty days in which to make settlement.

NEW YORK CITY.

A Legal Holiday.

National Associated Press to the Star.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—To-day, election day, being a legal holiday, the Gold,

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS

Progress of the Fall Fight in the Different States.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—The closing rallies of the campaign were held last night in this city, and in the various cities and towns throughout the State.

At Lowell Judge Crosby, a prominent temperance man, addressed the Republicans, announcing his intention to vote for Rice, and appealing to all Prohibitionists to do the same, in view of the necessity of Massachusetts indorsing the President in his attempt to pacify the country and reform Civil Service.

In this city General Joseph R. Hawley, of Hartford, made a ringing Republican speech. Ex-Senator Boutwell spoke at Lowell, and numerous other speakers of national reputation addressed other audiences. The prospects are that the election to-day will be the clearest one that has taken place for some years. A storm commenced last night and is still in progress with prospects of continuing all day. Democrats consider this favorable, and say they will gain and Republicans lose votes by it.

PENNSYLVANIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—Election progresses with spirit. Republicans are more hopeful than a week ago. A. K.

McClure, of the Times, estimates that the Democrats will carry the State by 10,000.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Voting goes on with spirit and earnestness. Conkling's majority in the State ticket is 10,000.

Democrats, but say they will carry the Legislature. The Democrats claim to have information from all parts of the State, giving assurance of a majority of 25,000 on the State ticket and Legislature.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 6.—Weather this morning is clear and cold with snow covering most of the State. Great interest in the election is manifested. The Democrats are carrying up of the State ticket, but say they will carry the

25,000 on the State ticket and Legisla-

A BALAKLAVA HERO IN SIBERIA.

A hero has been dug up in Siberia. It is Viscount Fitz Gibbon, the gallant Irish cavalry officer, who was supposed to have fallen in the celebrated charge of the S. X Hundred at Balaklava. It was never ascertained whether the hero was really killed or not. When last seen he was leaning, faint and wounded, on his horse; and now the story goes that he was taken prisoner by the Russians, and, for some insult to an officer, quietly transported to Siberia.

After having been hopelessly emboded there all these years, he is now said to be on his way to Ireland and Britain, to look at the statue which has been erected to his honor at Wallerley Bridge, to shake hands with Mr. Tennyson for writing such nice verses about the boys, and, last of all, to claim the estate. Aylthere's the rub! The claimant may be the hero's real son, but the tale has an entirely unheroic smell.—(New York Trib-
