

THE DAILY STAR

MINOR LOCAL MENTIONS.

Smells that man with lordly gait: Why does he hold his head so straight? 'Tis not for pride of wealth or fame, Nor glory of ancestral name, Nor yet that gems his garments deck— He's got a boil upon his neck.

Albert Shentz, a laborer on the Southern Railroad, had his leg run over by a hand-car at the West-street crossing yesterday. He was taken to the Hospital.

The teachers in the Public Schools today presented Mr. W. J. O'Neil with an elegant gold watch and chain for his services in the Board of Education in their behalf.

Mr. Charles Perlie, one of the Post-office clerks, while driving out in Cumminsville, last evening, was thrown from his buggy, and had his left shoulder blade broken.

The store of the Danbury Hat Company on Main street, near Fifth, was broken last into night by burglars, who pried open a rear window. Several hats and $13 in money were taken.

A colored Grant Club has been organized with the following officers: President, E. Polk; Vice President, Alford Frederick; Secretary, John Shelton; Assistant Secretary, C. M. Watkins; Treasurer, Thomas Tolbert.

The Independents of the Literary Society have elected the following officers: President, John G. O'Connell; Vice President, Howard Johnston; Secretary, J. H. Martin; Critic, S. D. Oliver; Treasurer, Miss Emma Merrill; Librarian, Miles Deamer.

Shadows of Coming Events.

The Forty Hours' Devotion commences to-morrow morning at St. Mary's Catholic Church, corner of Clay and Thirteenth streets.

The Republican members of the School Board will endeavor to hold a caucus to-night, for the purpose of naming a President of the Board.

The St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church people, of Mt. Lookout, will give a chamber concert in the lecture room of that church on Wednesday evening next. Miss Lulu Hughes, Howard Adae, Albert Main, Mrs. Chas. H. Hall, Messrs. Chas. H. Hall, Wm. Lester, and W. E. Orr, well-known vocalists; Prof. J. A. Broshoven, Mr. A. H. Paine, Mr. C. A. Scott, Prof. C. J. Coleman, Mr. Chas. F. Seybold, instrumentalists; Miss Florence Hughes, Prof. Otto Palm and Prof. C. G. Rott, accompanists, have all kindly consented to assist.

Local Personal.
