COUNTY ROADS.

That Cheboygan county is greatly deficient in roads through different portions of the same, must be known to most of our citizens. The opening up of highways has not kept pace with the settlement of the county, and the consequence is, that in some sections of the county the settlers are at a great inconvenience for the want of roads, and are compelled to travel roundabout ways in order to reach the village. The Supervisors of some of the towns where the settlers are put to the most inconvenience claim that all has been done that the funds raised for highway purpose in their towns will possibly admit of. Last Saturday, at the meeting of the Board of Supervisors, it was proposed that the county should aid in the opening up of highways, but upon investigation it was found that the power of the Board was limited, and that they could not furnish the requisite aid, they having no power to open up new roads, being confined to a limited amount on county roads already opened. It was suggested that application be made to the Legislature the coming winter for the passage of an act enabling the county to open and build new county roads. The localities of the same being as follows: One running west on the town line between towns 37 and 38, range 2 west, which has been referred to a number of times in the TRIBUNE, and for which there is great necessity; one running up between Black River and Cheboygan river, and the other to the east of Black River.

It is to be hoped that the application will be made, and that such an act may be passed. With the establishing and opening up of these three roads the question of highway facilities for our rapidly growing settlements in the county would be virtually settled, for the construction of roads in the different towns would be a small matter when compared with what it would cost if the several towns were compelled to build all the roads throughout their respective towns themselves. The interests of the county demand that roads should be opened up to the different settlements as speedily as possible. If a lack of interest in the welfare of those who locate in the county is manifested, and the settlers receive no encouragement they will likely become discouraged, and instead of their influence being felt for the good of the county, their representations of the situation to their friends abroad will have a tendency to discourage immigration and retard the growth and settlement of our county. The county will lose nothing by the opening up of roads as fast as the necessities of settlers demand. The increased value of property gained by having accessible highways will more than repay any expenditure in this line. The advantages of this section as a farming country are becoming more generally known, and if those who immigrate here with the intention of locating and improving farms for future homes receive the encouragement they should there is no reason why the county should not be settled up more rapidly than has been the case in the past. Everything that can be done should be done to foster and encourage the spirit of immigration, and, as the TRIBUNE has stated in previous issues, there is nothing more needed than good roads. It is well known that settlers in a new country have many obstacles to contend with in clearing up and improving a farm, and to these obstacles should not be added, when it can be avoided, the necessity of having to travel miles out of their way in order to reach a market; and if the several towns cannot keep pace with the demands of the settlements, by all means let the county aid them, for what benefits one portion of the county inures to a greater or less degree to the benefit of the whole county, and if this can only be done through an act of the Legislature, let it be seen that such an act is passed for the benefit of Cheboygan county, at the coming session of the Legislature. Let us have county roads.

THE BRIDGE QUESTION.

A call was issued and published in the papers last week for a meeting of the citizens to be held this evening to consider the question of the construction of a new bridge across Cheboygan river at Third street, where now stands that disgrace to the enterprise of this community. It is to be hoped that our citizens will take enough interest in the matter to be present, so that a full interchange of views on the important question may be had. That a new bridge is a necessity will not be denied. The main question on the part of our citizens is in regard to the locality it should be built and the manner of raising the means for building it. We think, however, that the majority of our citizens are in favor of constructing it where the old one now stands, holding that it is the most suitable place for it; but, doubtless, this will come before the meeting, where all can have a chance to express their sentiments on that phase of the question.

In regard to raising the means for its construction, whether or not it should devolve upon the village and town of Benton, or upon the whole county, to construct it, there is more of a diversity of opinion, and the meeting will be the proper place to discuss the matter. We certainly think that something should be done to insure the building of a bridge as soon as possible, and not allow the present concern to endanger the lives and property of our citizens and the traveling public any longer. As far as the cost of construction is concerned, this is probably as favorable a time as will ever occur. Materials necessary are lower than they have been for years, and probably as low as they ever will be again, and we think that more favorable bids for its construction could be had at the present time than at any other. Let there be a full attendance at the meeting at Todd's hall this evening.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

BECKNAP is acquitted—on technical ground. He retains his privileges as a citizen, but is still accountable to the law courts on the criminal charge.

THE President's message to the Senate concerning the Hamburg massacre in South Carolina, and similar outrages in Mississippi and Louisiana, is a document deserving of public attention everywhere. The President characterizes "murders and massacres of innocent men for opinion's sake, or on account of color," as "of too frequent occurrence."

A PRIVATE dispatch announces Speaker Blaine's return to his home at Augusta, Maine, in greatly improved health. He expects to take an active part in directing the canvass in his own state, and later in the season he will probably go west and make a few speeches in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois in favor of Hayes and Wheeler.

SENATOR BOUTWELL last week reported a bill from select committee on civil service providing that on or after date, which is left blank, existing pension agencies shall be discontinued, and all duties imposed by law or regulations on the several pension agencies, shall thereafter be performed by the treasurer of the United States at Washington.

SENATOR MORTON, Tuesday of last week, came near being killed by a singular accident. He was in a committee room, sitting in a heavy chair, tilted against the wall. The chair-back suddenly broke, letting him fall in such a way that the back of his head struck the edge of the broken chair-back. The blow was a violent one, injuring him so much that he was unable to sit up for some time.

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN will issue a warrant for the arrest of the white-league ruffians who murdered those unarmed colored militiamen at Hamburg; and if any of them reside in Georgia, he will make a requisition on the governor of that state to have them surrendered to the South Carolina authorities for trial. He believes the law can be enforced and the murderers punished without aid from United States troops. At all events he will try it on.

THE silver bills now pending in the House are unfavorable interpreted abroad. The treasury department has information that foreign buyers already indicate an unwillingness to make large purchases of our bonds, because the bonds only redeemable in coin, and do not say in gold coin. The discussion of the bill has disclosed the fact that, while all gold bonds of state and railway corporations contain the word gold, the United States bonds simply use the word coin. But the chances of the passage of the bill are very dubious.

THE House committee on banking and currency last week, in addition to agreeing to recommend the passage of a bill for the repeal of the resumption day clause of the act of 1873, also agreed to report a joint resolution, providing for the appointment of a commission of three members of the House, three of the Senate and three experts, to investigate the silver question, and the best means of facilitating a resumption of specie payments; the result of their inquiries to be reported to Congress on or before Jan. 15th next.

It is believed by many of the more intelligent people of Brazil that the course of the present Emperor of that country is so democratic in its tendencies that the inevitable result on the people will be the establishment of a republic at no distant day. An observant Centennial correspondent, writing of the visit of Dom Pedro to Philadelphia, says that the Brazilian colony at the exhibition have a great affection and admiration for their sovereign; but they appear to be nearly unanimous in the opinion that the imperial form of government in Brazil will not outlive him.

THE Democratic—"Reform"—Tilden-Soft-Money-and-Anti-Monopoly-Green-back nominee for Governor of Illinois has been exposed to a fire in the rear from his own household. He has two brothers who are sensible men; and they both declare that he is unfit for the office, and they shall vote against him, and vote the straight Republican ticket. They know him.

THE President in accordance with the provision of an act of Congress, approved March 25th, issued a proclamation declaring the fact that the fundamental provisions imposed by Congress on the state of Colorado to entitle that state to admission to the union being ratified and accepted, that the admission of said state into the union is now complete. By courtesy Colorado was allowed the full state representation in the national Republican convention.

Pianos

Have Now in Use More than 14,000.

Bradbury Piano Fortes,
ESTABLISHED 1854.

14 East Fourteenth Street, NEW YORK. Factory corner Raymond and Willoughby Streets, BROOKLYN.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS

The Bradbury Pianos

Are now Called the most Reliable, the Best, the Standard Pianos the Press

The manufacturer believes that the American public are ever ready and willing to Pay a Fair Price for a SUPERIOR ARTICLE.

He is, therefore, not afraid to add real improvements, even if they raise the cost of the instrument to the purchaser, because

His Patrons are Willing to Reimburse Him.

Purchasers ought never to lose sight of the fact, that when a maker constantly aims to cheapen his manufacture, the buyer loses double in quality what he gains in cheapness. The manufacturer has therefore proceeded upon the principle that the very

Best Instrument is really the Cheapest

And the result has been an increase in the sale of pianos of 210 per cent. in the past two years, as per Internal Revenue Returns, and this in the face of general business depression, unparalleled in the records of piano forte manufacture in this country. It is easily accounted for when the above facts are taken into consideration, together with the fact that the

BRADBURY PIANO

Has become the favorite instrument of all our great artists and is used in public by them.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31, 1874.

Dear Sir:—I have the Bradbury Piano, for which I sent my Square Grand Chickering in part pay and now enclose you my check for the balance, giving entire satisfaction. Mrs. Grant wishes me also to say that the Square Grand Bradbury Piano which she exchanged in part pay five years ago for her new Piano, still gives the greatest satisfaction to her and her many friends who perform upon it in the Parlor of the Executive Mansion, and has turned upon and tested by some of the First Musicians of Washington, their opinion is a qualified approval of the Bradbury Piano; she has therefore requested me to order another of your celebrated "Bradbury" Pianos for the President's Cottage in Washington. I am very truly yours, O. E. BRADBURY, Secretary to the President, and in charge of Public Works.

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, January 23d, 1874.

Dear Sir:—Enclosed please find my check for the Bradbury Square Grand Piano, so promptly sent us on my order. Mrs. Belknap and myself are both very much delighted with it. Mrs. Belknap wishes me to thank you kindly, and to say it is the sweetest toned piano she ever heard, and all her friends are equally enthusiastic in their opinion of its beauty of finish, and music tone; it cannot be excelled. The young ladies who are with us are all very much pleased with it, and say it is the finest instrument they have played on in Washington. Very truly yours, W. M. BELKNAP, Secretary of War.

HOWARD UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 31, 1874.

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Howard and myself cannot speak too highly or recommend too strongly the beautiful Bradbury Piano just received from your justly celebrated Bradbury Piano Factory; in tone and touch and finish, and all that combines to make in every sense a splendid first-class Piano, are certainly in this. I cordially wish you success, as successor to Mr. Bradbury, whose name and music is a household word, and a Bradbury Piano should be in every home, and say it is the finest instrument they have played on in Washington. Very truly yours, O. E. BRADBURY, Secretary to the President, and in charge of Public Works.

Dr. T. DeWitt Talmage: "Friend Smith is a Methodist, but his pianos are all orthodox; you ought to hear him talk and sing."

Bishop Ames says: "My Bradbury Piano is found, after a severe test and trial, to be equal to all you promised, and is in all respects, in its lines of tone and singing qualities, as perfect as could be desired. I own it." Dr. E. O. Haven says: "My Bradbury Piano, continues to grow better every day, and myself and family more and more in love with it." Dr. J. H. Vincent: "For family worship, social gatherings, the Sabbath School, and all kinds of musical entertainments, give me, in preference to any other piano, the sweet-toned Bradbury Piano. It excels in singing qualities. Mine is excellent."

ITS ADAPTATION TO THE HUMAN VOICE as an accompaniment, owing to its peculiar sympathetic, mellow, yet rich and powerful tone. From personal acquaintance with the firm, we can say that it is as worthy of the fullest confidence of the public. We are using the BRADBURY PIANO in our families, and they give entire satisfaction. For no one at a distance need feel no hesitation in sending for their Illustrated Price List and ordering from it. They are reliable.
