NORTHERN TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, JULY 22, 1882.

STATE NEWS.

At East Saginaw, July 7, at Patterson's mill yar's an ice-house and 20 ,000 feet of lumber were burned; loss $3,000.

A small boat capsized on Lake Michigan near Muskegon, July 8, and the five men who occupied it were drowned.

The salt product of the state for June was 363,377 barrels, being 21,172 in excess of last year's product for the same

Two little children named Lillie were burned to death at Coopersville, Ottawa county, by the fire which destroyed their home Sunday night.

The shingle mills of Manistee and Ludington, all of which have shut down for thirty days, comprise twenty-one, and are the principal mills of the country.

A Grand Rapids youth named Williamson is alleged to have eloped with the girl his widower father wanted to marry. She was young, buxom, and had $500 in eash.

James K. Lockwood, who has for many years been interested in lumbering in the Alpena district, where he was a prominent citizen, died at Put-in-Bay on Sunday last, aged 63 years.

"Doc" Leighton, a Coldwater resident. while adjusting the harness about a stallion's head Saturday, was so bitten and otherwise maimed by the animal that his removal to the hospital was necnecessary.

Frank Cobb, aged 23, residing in Tex. as township, Kalamazoo county. Monday morning at the breakfast table cut his little brother's throat from ear to ear with a razor. The fratricide seeks to palliate his crime by saying the murdered boy had told stories derogatory to his moral character.

The Clare county Republican convention, Monday, named Den. E. Alward, of the Clare Press, and John Quinn delegates to the state convention; E. Evens and Robert F. Johnson to the congressional convention. A resolution was adopted declaring a preference for H. M. Loud, of Iosco, for congress.

Geo. A. Newett, editor and proprietor of the Ishpeming Iron Agitator, has been arrested on complaint of A. P. Swineford, editor of the Marquette Mining Journal, who alleges that Newett, through his paper, has libeled the great and good Marquetter.

Grand Rapids Times: Oil Inspector Adams informed a reporter of the Times yesterday that he was preparing to bring a test suit against some of the users of gasoline and naphtha. He claims that the state law strictly forbids the use of gasoline, naphtha, benzine or any of the lighter products of petroleum as a fuel or for lighting purposes. The law says that the petroleum used must be of a certain quality, must be of a flash test of 120 degrees and water white. There are now about 300 gasoline stoves in operation in this city, and in accordance with Mr. Adams' ideas. they are being run in opposition to the state law. State Oil Inspector C. G. Luce agrees with Mr. Adams in regard to the illegality of using gasoline. Test cases will be commenced in a few days against some of the users of the fluid in this city and also at Detroit, Adrian and Jackson. Prosecuting Attorney Mayarad will have charge of the prosecution here.

True Friends.

Who are the true friend of the boys? We mean the true devoted friends. This is a question every boy as soon as he arrives at an age to see what is right and what is wrong, should be urged to see for himself, and settle it it for himself. Boys think; Is he who pats you on the back and tells you "that is right" when you have whipped some other boy for some trifling causes? is he your true friend? Supposing the other boy had whipped you! Would not this pretended friend be just as earnest in cheering him and shaming you? You have noticed that where there is a crowd of rough men and boys together they flatter the boy that does the most daring act, no matter how wrong that act may be. Are they the friends of that boy? Is he your true fried who gives you five cents to bribe you to swear? Do your true friends teach you to smoke, chew or loaf on the street? Do they ask you to go into saloons and drink? No, boys; no. True friends show you that it is sinful to swear; that chewing, smoking loafing and drinking are dangerous habits and pray you not to form those habits. Your true friends beg of you not to go to saloons. They beg of you not to loaf because Idleness is a crime that often leads some boys into gambling halls and from gambling halls into other dens of vice, and into saloons to wreck their lives.

Then, boys, think, remember that your true friends will lead you away from bad habits and help you to become honest and useful men. - Ezchange. for some trifling causes? is he your true
