In soliciting the patronage of the public fo the proposed publication, it is due to that public to give an outline of the views and principles by which we shall be governed, and this duty we proceed to discharge. While we shall endeavor to make our sheet the channel tor communicating to our readers, the intelligence usually since the channel in the communicating to our readers, the intelligence usually since the channel in the communication of the c zence usually given in a public journal, its character will be essentially political; and so cording to the original sense of the term, as applicable to this government; strictly demo-cratic. We have lived sufficiently long, how-ever, to learn, that names are but too often illusory and deceptive, and that the arts of impostors are seidom put in practice, except under cover of some specious and i mposing appellation. We shall not therefore rest our claims upon a name, but invite ine severest which our professions as an editor are mainained and practised.

As the only legitimate object of a republican or democratic government is the equal protection of the rights, and promotion of the welfare and happiness of all; it follows as an tresistable conclusion, that that administra. onducive to these ends, is best entitled to the appellation of democratic- And as the only true test, of the merit of measures or adminison the interests and moral character of sociery, it is by this standard alone that we small aim to be governed in passing judgment upon

We believe the doctrines or rather the dog nas of party as inculented by the leaders that school laying exclusive claims to democ racy, to be the most dangerous, because the most insiduous enemy to the interests and in stitutions of the country—that it demands of ts votaries passive obedience to the order of leaders, regardless of the claims of patriotism, of count-y, or the constitution. Our endeas or shall therefore be, to expose and counteract the dangerous and enslaving tendency of this doctrine, and enforce as far as in our power lies the higher obligations of duty to ourselves and to our country, believing that where the requirements of party are thus urged by its leaders, the proceeding carries on its face the most conclusive evidence, that it is their own merests and not those of the country they are aboring to promote.

We believe that the wealth, happiness and independence of our country, depend on the encouragement and protection of the labor and moustry of our own citizens, and the cultiva. tion of our own resources in all practibable cases for the supply of our wants, in prefer. ence to a reliance upon a precarious supply to be drawn from abroad, subject to the caprice of the world and the contingences of fe

The Publishers of the New York Tribune, having been urged from several quarters to issue a cheaper paper devoted to the impor-tant work of diffusing to every dwelling cor-rect and convincing information with regard to the character, principles, objects and measures of the two great parties, have hesitated to issue a smaller sheet devoted specially to this purpose, since it would subject its patrons to the same postage that is charged on our present ample sheet, and must necessarily exclude those portions of the Literature, General News of the Day, and accurate and extensive reports of the transactions in the Money and Produce markets, which the Tribune has the ample means of presenting, and which every family should in some form possess.— They have concluded, therefore to publish an extra edition of the Weekly Tribune as it is, containing the same matter that is transmitted to our regular subscribes. The character of the Tribune is by this time generally known. It aims to reconcile the largest freedom of Thought and Action with a profound reverence for Law and obc-dience to rightful Authority—to be the stern foe of all discord, anarchy and turbulence, but the champion of every generous idea, how-ever novel or unpopular, which has for its end the upraising of the oppressed and the lowly. While it proffers no claim to the abused name of Democracy, so long the cloak of political Phraisees, the cant of designing demagogues, it will be, as it has been, in the legitimate sense of the word, truly Democratic-the adversary of every wrong, the exposer of hollow profession and scheming knavery, and the advocate of every movement tending to the diffusion of true Freedom and upward Progress of the Human race.

The Weekly Tribune is published in city every Saturday morning, but despatched by the Mails of Thursday and Friday. ### GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.

FOR 1843. EDITED BY MRS. S. J. HALE AND OTHERS.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK having been, for so long a series of years, universally recognized as the indisputable guide to the air sex, in matters of taste, fashion and literature, -the only work conducted by distinguished female authors, who have won for themselves a high place among the guiding spirits of the age—the only work which in point of fact has been EXCLUSIVELY DEVOTED TO THE LADIES, its favor with its tair patrons has not been less remarkable than its perfect adaption to their feelings and tastes and their require. meats. In entering upon a new year the pub-lisher without diminishing in the least that STERLING AND USEFUL LITERATURE which has long resulted from laying under contribution the native good sense and elagant a ney of our AMERICAN FEMALE WRIpears, present in the several departments of LITERATURE, FASHION, AND PICTO RIAL EMBELLISHMENT, a constant and ever varying succession of New and STRIKING PEATURES. Nor does he promise without ament, the best efforts of the most distingui artists in the country-and to crown as well as adorn the whole, the most perfect arrange. ments for the reception of the American, London and Peris FASHIONS, far in advance of any other publication in this country, enable him to assure the patrons of the Lady's Book that the forthcoming volume will more than justify us well carned title of the MAGAZINE OF MAGAzines, for the ladies of our country. It has passed into custom to assert that dress is a matter of trifling importance, but this every lady knows to be false. Taste in dress is universally felt to be the index of a thousand desirable qualities in woman, while a deficiency in this respect always injures one in the estimation of strangers, and even of her intimate friends—he beaty of Helen and the wit of Aspasia, would hardly commend to general favor an acknowledged powpy in dress.— Hence the importance of an accredited guide o the rasmons. This useful office, already filled for fourteen years with universal accept wember Election. The Whip county committees are respectively requested to take the necessary measures, to insure a full attendance at the Convention of the whigs of their espective counties. Let the convention be worthy of the cause and the man.

The Committee avail themselves of this occasion, to congratulate the whigs of the state upon the bright prospects, and glorious triumphs that every day attend the Whig cause. Harmonious in feeling, cordial and united in action, with purposes well understood, and with principles well settled, the Whigs under the banner of their favorite cheaftain, march anbe by the Lady s Book, the publisher pledges the banner of their favorite cheaftain, march to the rescue of the country.
