

We Sell—

Gasoline - - - Kerosene
 Alcohol - - - Greases
 Lubricating Oils
 Tires
 Auto Supplies Storage Batteries
 Oil Burners.
 Grease Cars Vulcanize Tires

We are square as we know how to be and satisfy our customers
 Your business is appreciated

PEOPLES OIL & SUPPLY COMPANY

Between Hotels

Drive your car up on our grease rack now while you think of it and let us give it a good greasing. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

J. E. Lewis of Salina, was a visitor in the city this week.

S. G. Hatfield of Pratt, visited in city the latter part of the week.

Jas. E. Ritz of Burlington, was an out-of-town visitor here Saturday.

H. E. Roach of Salina, was visiting in the city over the week-end.

Miss Lottie Edwards was down from Meade Monday shopping.

H. C. Dunham of Copeland, was in the city Tuesday, attending to business matters.

Newell Beam of McPherson, was transacting business in the city this week.

E. O. Bennett of Beaver, Oklahoma, was a business visitor in the city the latter part of the week.

I. F. Briggs of Brockett, Mass., was a business visitor in the city last Saturday.

C. R. Ruttenburg of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was among the out-of-town visitors in Liberal Saturday.

Nabisco Items

Everyone is invited to attend the all-day services at Nabisco church Thanksgiving Day. In the forenoon there will be preaching, then a basket dinner, after which a program will be rendered by the children.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Deems attended the Rawson sale in the Appleton neighborhood last Thursday.

Mr. Sellers is visiting at the home of his son, Robert, near Moscow, this week. Ed went up there Saturday, and returned Sunday evening.

Several in this vicinity are hauling and stacking their feed.

Mrs. T. L. Brown is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Dotson and Mrs. Gregory in Liberal this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Shaw spent last Monday night at the home of Mrs. Plunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Southern and family visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Southern near Tyrone last Sunday.

James Lewis and family visited with Luther Shaw and family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis and children took dinner at the H. V. Archer home in Liberal Saturday.

Miss Maxine Lowry, who has been working for Mrs. Charlie Sellers, is home again now and has re-entered school.

Mr. and Mrs. Nix entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Mitts, Mrs. Leiser, Mr. and Mrs. A.

I. Williams and two children, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lewis and two younger children.

Last Thursday John Mitts and wife, Luther Shaw and family, Joe Lewis and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Gywinn and Henry Brown spent the day at Mrs. Plunk's. The men-put in the day working on the windmill.

We think from the crowds that attended the big airplane "doings" at Liberal last Saturday and Sunday, that almost everybody and their relation must have been there. Anyway, we think that it was an interesting sight to a greater part of the large crowd, and much enjoyed by all.

Rev. Strickland of Tyrone, filled his appointment at the church Sunday afternoon.

T. L. Brown ate Sunday dinner at E. R. Sherrill's.

Lee Leverton has sold his interest in the barber shop at Tyrone, and he and his wife left Saturday night for California. We hope they will like their new home and also wish them prosperity. We regretted very much to lose them from our midst.

Let us see more out to Sunday school next Sunday. We believe the interest is growing and would appreciate the presence of everyone in this neighborhood. Let everybody feel that it is their Sunday school.

Mrs. Chas. Lorenze went to Tyrone Tuesday for a short visit with friends.

T. L. Huddleston and H. Murray of Forgan were up the first of the week visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fechtler were up from Hooker Friday and Saturday. They called at the Molthrop home while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Riney and children returned last week from a visit at Protection Kansas.

Mrs. George Chittenden and Grace and Clarence left Wednesday for Chicago for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. H. W. Lamaster returned Wednesday from Texhoma where she funeral of Mr. Yates.

Mrs. C. C. Scates of Garden City visited at the home of her brother Frank G. Boles this week.

L. S. Miller of Kansas City was a business visitor this week.

P. E. Hatfield of Pratt was here visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Emma Jaquins visited at the home of her mother, Mrs. Orr, near near Forgan a few days this week.

Mrs. L. A. Etsold left Wednesday for Fowler where she will visit Mrs. Geo. Hall for a few days.

Mrs. Barbee who has been in Wichita for some time visting with her parents arrived Wednesday night and visited a few days with relatives here a few days before returning to her home in Rolla.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Latimer and children returned Wednesday from an extended visit in South Carolina.

Mrs. Thomas McGuire and daughters Elizabeth, Teresa, Thelma, and Margaret returned to their home in Tyrone Wednesday afternoon after attending the wedding of Miss Gertrude Lane and Mr. LaGue.

W. H. Feather, Judge Campbell and Abe K. Stoufer left Tuesday for Topeka where they will attend a County Officers Convention.

SUGGESTIVE READING

You will hear it said that such and such a magazine prints suggestive stories, meaning that they present corrupting ideas in attractive dress. But there is a suggestive reading also of quite a different sort—the suggestiveness that quickens the reader's sense of duty, stimulates ambition, gives the reader courage to face adversity, fortifies against yielding easily to temptation. It is this better kind of suggestiveness that you will find on almost every page of the Youth's Companion. Which of these two kinds of suggestiveness would you wish to have exert an influence in your family life?

The 52 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive:

1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922.
2. All the remaining issues of 1921.
3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1922.

All for $2.50
 4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION
 Commonwealth Ave. & St. Paul St., Boston, Massachusetts.
 New subscriptions receive at this office.

FOR SALE AT COST

at Garden City, Kansas
 New 4-room Stucco Bungalow and 2 acres of ground just outside of the city limits, near paved road. Pumping plant and electric lights. Immediate possession and terms on part Dierks-Peters Lumber Co.
 Garden City, Kansas

Dress Up For Thanksgiving

We will come and get your Suit and clean and press it all ready for Thanksgiving Day, and bring it back to you looking like new. You'll feel better as you sit at the dinner table on Thanksgiving Day if

KLEAN KLOTHES KLEAN

Does Your Work Fone 2

Pianos
 String Instruments
 Sheet Music

Molthrop Studio
 630 North Kansas

The Only Merchant

Who Does Not Need to Advertise
 Is the One Whose Wife is a Widow

See the Democrat Man

He Will Tell

3000 People About You

Any Week or
 Every Week of the Year

Mrs. H. M. Forbes of Arkalon, and sister, Mrs. Brecktel, were shopping in the city Monday.

O. L. Sharp arrived Tuesday from Texhoma, Oklahoma, where he has been on a short business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Roberts returned to Kansas City Tuesday, after a short business visit here.

Judge J. W. Campbell left Tuesday for Topeka, on a short business and pleasure trip.

Lattie Green of Alva, Oklahoma, spent Sunday in the city visiting with friends and watching the airplanes frolic around.

R. C. Lewis of Logan, Oklahoma, was an out-of-town visitor taking in the celebration here Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Welch and family of Wilburton, Oklahoma, visited at the home of Mr. Welch's mother, Mrs. M. V. Welch, over the weekend.

Misses Margaret Demmit of Texhoma, Oklahoma, Nollie Smith of Dalhart, Texas, and Irene Jones visited a few days at the Craig home.

Rev. D. P. Montgomery and son, Floyd, arrived Tuesday from South Carolina. They will have charge of the evangelistic meetings being held at the Baptist church.