AUTO DELIVERY SER- VICE

Being conscious for some time of the fact that our delivery facilities have not kept pace with the development of our business and in keeping with our policy of giving our customers a little better service than they can secure elsewhere. We have installed an auto delivery service, and henceforth all orders will be delivered promptly upon receipt of same. Yours for service,

Mrs. H. Llewelyn Jones has returned from Lawrence, where she attended the funeral of her father.

Ernest Oleson, better known as "Ole" who at one time led the Meade band, is now a partner in an exclusive shoe store in Dodge City.

The fourth number of the Lyceum course appeared at the school auditorium last Saturday evening. Dr. D. L. Herbert entertained.

R. F. Tanquary is now permanently located in the upper rooms of the Schuhmacher building where he is prepared to do cleaning and pressing of all kinds

The weather has been quite pleasant for the past several days, in fact, too nice for this season of the year. Some rain

Boosting The Farm

Land increases in value only as it receives the magic touch of the hand of industry. The producer who lives near a good town has a pronounced advantage over the producer who lives near a dead town. A good town is a town that gets the business. A dead town is a town that doesn't get it. Land around Chicago is very valuable, because—Chicago is getting the business, but business that Chicago gets doesn't make Hickville, Kansas, a better town. The Hickville farmer doesn't give a free barbecue to his neighbors to celebrate a 50 per cent increase in farm values in Cook County, Illinois. The Hickville farmer isn't in on it.
 The Hickville farmer profits only when Hickville gets the business. If Chicago gets business that Hickville should get, then farm owners around Chicago profit at the expense of the Hickville farmer, and instead of being a gainer, the Hickville farmer is a loser. Chicago is entitled to a certain amount of business; so is Hickville, but Hickville isn't going to get any business from Chicago neighborhood.
 If Hickville gets any business it must come from Hickville neighborhood. Hickville will be just what Hickville folk make it. The stranger who comes into Hickville neighborhood to buy a farm will hear one of two things. He will hear that Hickville is a dandy little berg, and that farm land near town is worth a pretty good figure—or, he'll hear that things have been pretty quiet around Hickville for some time and that farm land is moving a little slow just now. He'll find good roads —or bad roads. He'll find busy stores—or vacant stores. He'll find hustlers—or drifters, boosters—or knockers, and he'll make up his mind accordingly. He'll decide that he wants to live near Hickville or that he doesn't.

Severe Cold Quickly Cured

"On December 1st I had a very severe cold or attack of the grip as it may be, and was nearly down sick in bed," writes O. J. Metcalf, of Weatherby Mo. "I bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it was only a few days until I was completely restored to health. I firmly believe that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is one of the very best medicines and will know what to do when I have another cold." Obtainable everywhere.

The Hickville Weekly Simlet

Alas! Poor Hickville

The hitch-rack's empty—sad, but true—and folk are feeling mighty blue. The town pump has a rusty spout and strangers say we're down and out. The merchants havn't any trade—the loafers whittle in the shade —the busy man is not here now —the street is pasture for the cow. The hotel here is closed today, because the boarders couldn't pay. The drummer never comes to town, with yards of stories rich and brown, to tell the keepers of the stores and entertain the chronic bores. There isn't any business here and hasnt been for quite a year. It's all because a catalogue came in one day our wits to clog. We ran the pictures through and through as many bargain hunters do, and then we ripped and tore our hair and swore by heck it wasn't fair the way the merchants skinned us here and charged us prices awful dear.
 We started up an awful scrap and ordered from the city chap.
 Now our town has gone to grass —the trains don't whistle as they pass—they drop the mail as through they speed—and all the folks have gone to seed.

Something Good

Those who hate nasty medicine should try Chamberlain's Tablets for constipation. They are pleasant to take and their effect is so natural that you will not realize that it has been produced by a medicine. Obainable everywhere.
