AN INSULT!

I was up in the mountains this winter in a hunter's camp. In his shack was a can of Folger's Golden Gate Coffee. I said to him in fun, "Why don't you buy good coffee?" He said, "Partner, you might just as well kick my dog as to kick about my Golden Gate Coffee, and it certainly makes me fighting mad for anyone to abuse my dog. The Golden Gate Coffee is the best coffee that ever passed your or any other man's lips." I laughed and told him I used it all the time. He said, "All right then, you are a friend of mine." (Signed) R. L. Wilhelm, Rupert, Idaho

Mrs. B. R. Murphy returned Saturday from Sterling, where she has been for the past two weeks on account of the illness of her mother.

W. W. Pressly received a message Monday, advising him of the death of his sister, at Erie, Pennsylvania, and of the serious illness of his mother. He left immediately.

The Meade band accompanied a large number of Meade citizens to the Henry J. Allen address last Tuesday evening at Dodge City, and occupied a place on the rostrum of the Beeson Theatre.
 They rendered some very pretty music before one of the largest audiences audiences ever assembled in the theatre.—Fowler News.

Many items of news are not published each week, simply because no one takes the trouble to give the particulars in for publication. It often happens that we do not hear of an event until a few hours before going to press and we are frequently compelled to call at least half dozen parties before we get the desired information. Then too, it sometimes happens that we do not hear of an event until after the paper is printed—just because none concerned took the trouble to tell us. We want all items of interest and appreciate most of all having the facts—that's all we need—given us in time for publication. If you have an item of news don't hesitate to tell us about it. Don't take it for granted that we know it, or that some one else will tell us—we may fail to hear it and they may forget—you tell us.

"My son, there's nothing so mysteriously funny as an advertisement. The prime, first, last and all the time object of an advertisement is to draw custom.
 It is not, was not, and never will be designed for any other human purpose. So the merchant waits till the busy season comes and his store is so full of customers that he can't get his hat off, and then he rushes to his printer and goes in for advertising. When the dull season gets along and there is no trade, and he wants to sell his goods so bad he can't pay his rent, he stops his advertising. That is, some of them do; but occasionally a level headed merchant does more of it and scoops in all the business while his neighbors are making mortgages to pay the gas bill. There are times when you could not stop the people from buying everything in the store if you planted a cannon behind the door, and that's the time the advertisement is sent out on its holy mission."—Kansas Industrialist.

An Old Man's Stomach

As we grow older and less active less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 30 or 35, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enables it to perform its functions naturally.
 They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.
