

CORRESPONDENCE.

way from Erie to greener pastures and more fertile fields at Chanute.

Died, last Wednesday morning, at her home about three miles north of Shaw, after a long and severe attack of lagrippe, Mrs. John Grady, aged about 75 years. Mr. Grady settled here in the early days upon the place of land he now occupies, taking it from nature's wild domain, and by frugality and industry has made it one of the best farms and most delightful homes in this vicinity. We learn also that Mr. Grady is very ill at the present writing.

Removals—John Evans, who had the "Ryan" farm rented last season, has moved to Mrs. Woods' farm near Rollin. Nathan Hunt has rented the house, barn and a truck patch on the "Ryan" farm, while Will Berger will farm the cultivated land. Lon Fanatia, from over near the Twin Mounds, will occupy the John Hays farm. Charley Ward will take what is known as the "Gallup" farm. Dolph Easburn and Dick Romine have rented the "Baughman" farm. O. M. Knetzer will move into the city of Shaw.

Spliced—On last Thursday Squire Eckley hied his way through muddy roads and bad weather to the residence of Abe Taylor, about three miles north of here, and made two beat on one of the hearts of John Hole and Miss Alice Overbay. A sumptuous dinner was prepared and the ceremony was witnessed by a number of invited guests.

In double harness they now will trot, May joy complete be their future lot, The roadway smooth, and the weather fair, No rocks of turmoil, no ruts of care.

Today, (Thursday) Providence permitting, and no other interference, Norman Prouhett will marry Miss May Berger. They intend making Erie their home in the future.

A nice young man and a handsome bride Will tackle the future side by side; With pluck and vigor they now begin— You bet your life they will make it win.

Urbana.

Urbana, Kans., Feb. 23.—Fine weather.

A dog was the cause of two young Americans "mixing up," the result of which was the calling of the doctor for both, and one is said to be in a serious condition. This occurred near Hazel Dell. For shame boys, no one respects you any more for this, and some less.

Thayer.

Thayer, Kans., Feb. 24.—C. A. Cox of Chanute, and J. W. Iden of Parsons were in town last week attending justice court.

Wonder why Marion Ogg did not go to the box social last Monday night?

Thos. McNulty is representing the Thayer workmen at their Grand Lodge in Salina this week.

H. G. Lowrance returned last Saturday, from attending the Grand Lodge of Masons' at Salina.

Wm. Palmer has been very sick for a week past, but we are glad to report at this writing he is some better, and hopes to be out again in a few days.

Harry Higgins has moved on to his father's farm in Wilson county. He has rented his place here to Albert Mathias, who will occupy it next week.

The family of W. B. Race, has been having quite a seige of sickness this winter, for the past two months, from one to three of them have been bedfast.

A. D. Lowrance has accepted a position with the firm of G. W. Lowrance & Son, and will move back to Thayer, from Independence, Kansas, about March 15th.

Several parties from Galesburg were attending the Masonic lodge here last Saturday night. Among them we noticed, Wm. Rodman, S. Rosa, C. C. Cross and Robt. Lytle.

The Rev. Bernard Kelley, presiding elder of this district will be in Thayer next Sunday and hold a quarterly meeting at the Methodist church. We wonder if he is still fighting Morrill?

Arthur Carter came down from Chanute Sunday, and did not go home until Tuesday morning; wonder why that was; if you Chanute people want to know, just drop into Freeman's and ask him about it.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church, gave a box social last Monday night, which was a grand success, both from a financial standpoint and the exceedingly fine time which everybody had who were in attendance.

Earlton.

Earlton, Kans., Feb. 24. 1897.—The protracted meeting at the M. E. church closed Sunday. The bad roads caused a poor attendance.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Bean, on Monday last, a son.

Mr. Coder moved from Earlton to J. Gaughan's farm west of town.

Winfield Kehrler began work for Mr. Triplett, south of Urbana, this week.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Twiss was buried last Friday.

County Commissioner Beach and E. L. Barnes, of Thayer, gave our city a call Monday.

Ira May has purchased the Hilton property and will soon be a permanent resident of the city.

Adam Chickadonz has a late arrival at his house, but whether a boy or girl we have not learned.

Mr. Baughman, the section foreman, moved from Thayer Tuesday into the Cunningham property.

Mr. Lerch moved into Earlton last week. Earlton school gains, while Abbott loses a good pupil, as Emma will attend here.

D. F. Fackles died at his residence south west of Earlton on Monday of pneumonia, after a brief illness. Deceased was favorably known in this section. Funeral services were held at the home today.

An oyster supper was given by the Summit school last Saturday night to obtain funds for a school library. We did not learn the exact results, but sufficient was obtained to aid considerably in the cause of education.

Vilas.

Feb. 23, 1897.—Some of our farmers in the Valley are plowing.

A car load of implements arrived at Vilas last week.

The singing school at Grand View closed last night.

A. T. Peden, formerly an agent at our station, but of Jefferson City, Mo., now, is spending this week at Henry Simmons'.

Attention, Farmers!

If you are going to buy a riding plow don't fail to see
The Success.
We carry a full and complete line of Implements.
H. B. BELL.

Ed Lenard, of Chanute, spent Saturday with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dutch. Grandma Dutch is very low, and it is not expected that she can live throughout the week.

J. C. Richmond closes his term of school in this district today. Mr. R. has taught one of the best schools we have ever had, and we can recommend him as one of the best teachers that Wilson county has at present.

Vick Hengstler is expected to arrive here from Goodland, Kans., this week. He will bring back one of Goodland's fair sex. We welcome him and his choice to our community. They will move onto the John Tharp farm next week.

Last week and this week a number of small boys, ranging from 8 to 14 years of age, have been bumping the cars through here. They are all Chanute boys, and some of them are sure to meet with an accident if they are permitted to keep up this practice.

There is some talk of a hall being built in our city, and we would suggest that it would be a good thing, for there would at least be two or three secret orders meet in it once a week, and entertainments would also be held, and, in our judgment, would pay a fair interest on the money expended for its erection; talk it up, boys, and let's have a hall.

Neosho Valley.

Feb. 23, 1897.—School closes today until Monday next, and Miss Horr went home this evening to spend a short vacation.

Jas. Krous and family were visiting at J. B. Johnson's today.

Charley Long has moved from the Coultlet farm to Chanute.

Mr. and Mrs. George were visiting in Allen county Saturday and Sunday last.

A good attendance and everything sold well at Mr. Olson's sale today. As an auctioneer Herbert Johnson is all right.

Fred Mosier, Jr., has invested in a restaurant in Chanute and will give up farming for this season at least. Success to you, Fred.

M. Dupuy is building a new house on his farm on Village Creek on the site of the old home of 25 years ago, and which they had to abandon years ago on account of the frequent overflows. Mr. D. evidently has faith in the levees.

Union Valley.

Union Valley, Kans., Feb. 22, 1897.—Local news is a little like hen's teeth—very scarce.

Married—Feb. 17, '97, Mr. John Osborne and Miss Emma Johns. Their many friends join in wishing them a long and happy journey through life.

Miss Emma Meyer gave a surprise party Monday night, in honor of her brother August's birthday. There were about 30 present; the evening was spent in playing various games, and at a late hour refreshments were served, and the guests departed wishing August many more happy birthdays.

The North Valley school had their exercises for Washington's birthday Friday afternoon instead of Monday. There were a number of visitors present. The program consisted of declamations, songs, dialogues, and a flag drill. The scholars did credit to both themselves and teacher.

Farmers wanting flax seed can call on my agents as follows: C. P. Swank, Vilas, Kan.; R. V. Myers, Earlton, Kan.; Will Flinn, Urbana, Kan.; C. R. Fanatia, Shaw, Kan., for terms and prices and see sample of flax, as we have the choicest seed that can be had in any market. 4-16 S. A. WICKARD.

Fits Cured

From U.S. Journal of Medicine Prof. W. H. Feeke, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferers who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise any one wishing a cure to address Prof. W. H. Feeke, F. D., 4 Cedar St., New York.
