Attorney Phil P. Campbell of Pittsburg, was in the city Saturday attending court and shaking hands with old Neosho county friends.

Dr. A. L. Ford of Galesburg was adjudged insane by the probate court Saturday. Sheriff Prange will take him to Ossawatimie this week.

The German Volunteer will be given in this city on the 6, 7 and 8th of May, under the leadership of W. D. Saphar for the benefit of the G. A. R's.

Street Commissioner Pitzer has a force of about twenty men working on the streets this week, while Marshall Hardman is "bossing" the "Wandering Willies" at the rock pile.

The County Teachers Examination was held at the school house in this city Saturday, and although the weather was the best we have seen in Kansas, quite a number of applicants were absent. [Kindly explain.—Ed.]

Married: At the residence of the brides mother in this city Monday night April 26th, Geo. A. Mefford and Rosa Bodenhammer, The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Jone Bodenhammer, and the groom is a young farmer living south of this city.

The St. Paul correspondent of the Erie Sentinel seems to be making the sentinel quite popular in his city. There seems to be a demand for the Friday Sun, as they call it down there. They say it is the grandest thing out since the abandonment of the "Sunday Sun."

Sheriff C. F. Prange and Deputy W. P. Oliver left Monday for the state penitentiary with S. P. Pullum and Mr. Davis and Mr. Daniels, all of whom have been committed to that place for burglary and grand larceny. W. P. Oliver will visit his brother at the soldiers home at Leavenworth, before returning.

The St. Paul public schools closed last Friday. An entertainment was given in the afternoon at the Methodist church. The entertainment was good and well attended.

J. M. Boyle, C. P. Hentzen, J. A. Hutchings, Wm. Brainard, I. J. Davis, E. H. Minard, C. W. Ballaine, and others attended the G. A. R. Encampment at Chanute last week.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it.—Boschert & Williams.

Thayer.

Wednesday, April 28.—Joe Stall is building a new fence in front of his property now occupied by Frank Hancock and family. A decided improvement.

Thos. McNulty and H. G. Lowrance paid Erie a visit last Friday.

We noticed Mrs. Clark, of Chanute on our streets the first of the week.

Clay Dryden from near Urbana, was in Thayer a short time last Monday.

A. L. Palmer, editor of the News, paid Chanute a visit Monday of this week.

Barnhart says if McNulty don't put up 5 gallons of good kraut, he is going to boycott the new postoffice department.

Thos. Hartshorn and two little sons came up from Oklahoma the first of the week for a short stay among friends.

Harry Commons sold four two-year-old steers last Monday to Riley Newe for $200. That's the way to farm and make money.

Miss Jennie Harbaugh, of Erie, came in last Friday afternoon and spent a few days with her uncle, Dr. J. W. Ferguson and family.

An Uncle Tom's Cabin show was in town Monday night. They gave their show in a tent north of town. The attendance was rather light.

Had it not been for the deluge of rain Tuesday night, the most of the farmers in our vicinity would have finished planting corn this week.

The cop is all right, but then he don't know his age just the same. Just ask him whether he is 41 or 42 years old and see what he tells you.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Campbell attended the funeral of Mrs. Campbell's nephew Eddie Holcomb, at Neodesha last Sunday. He died of consumption which was brought on by over-work.

The elegant big barn of Wm. McDonald, was entirely destroyed by fire, caused by a stroke of lightning one night last week. Nine head of horses were burned up, besides a large quantity of corn and all his harness. This was one of the finest barns in this part of the country. The entire loss amounts to 2500 or $3000, while the insurance was only $1600.

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by One Minute Cough Cure. This prepared seems especially adapted to the cure of this disease. It acts quickly, thus preventing serious complications and bad effects in which this disease often leaves the patient.—Boschert & Williams.

Shaw.

Wednesday, April 28.—Miss Carlie Colaw, after a brief visit to friends and relatives in Erie, returned to her home last Sunday.

The population of Shaw is steadily on the increase. Bill Hamm is the proud daddy of a fine boy baby.

Levi Jones and wife and two daughters Mattie and Laura attended the Encampment at Chanute last Thursday.

Last Friday night a very pleasant time was indulged in by all who participated in the dance at Dave Hoffman's.

Mr. Kimball has his property enclosed with a bran new picket fence which adds greatly to its appearance and convenience.

Ava Road, after sojourning here and there for the past year in search of better conditions was in Shaw last week and a part of this with a view of returning somewhere in this locality.

With the advent of spring weather, and a glorious old fashioned rain, the farmers are kicking up their heels in high glee in the joyful anticipation of the bountiful crops so general in this section.

Art Allen stumbled across a den of ten young wolves last Sunday. He took them to Erie on Monday and received the ten dollars bounty as provided by law. It wasn't a very good day for wolves either.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Knetzer returned from Colorado last Thursday, whither they had gone on a wedding, prospecting, pleasure and business tour. They returned to Kansas, this part of it especially, better satisfied than ever before to remain in the land where the sunflower bloometh, the cocklebur growth and the gallinipper biteth.

What's the matter with Shaw? Nothing; she is the best town of her size in the state. The grumbling and growling about hard times, stringency of the money market, per capita, concentration of capital, and etc., has about ceased and our goods box politicians have joined the crowd who put their shoulders do the wheel and push things along.

Veterinary Surgeon John Hudson was called to Erie to perform a surgical operation on a valuable colt last Friday. The same day his services were in demand about three miles east of here to attend a valuable horse which had been cut by barbed wire, but as the jugular vein was severed, nothing could be done and the horse bled to death in a few hours.

E. E. Turner of Compton, Mo., writes us that after suffering from piles for seventeen years, he completely cured them by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures eczema and severe skin diseases.—Boschert & Williams.
