They are so small that the most sensitive persons take them, they are so effective that the most obstinate cases of constipation, headache and torpid liver yield to them. That is the way DeWitt's Little Early Risers are known as the famous little pills.—Boschert & Williams.

Earlton.

Wednesday June 23.—Mrs. J. A. Allemen left Monday for a short visit with her sister at Ottawa.

William Ocker came down from Kansas City Monday.

Dr. Jones and Rev. N. L. Vezie were in Chanute Tuesday.

Thad Watt and family of Chanute spent Sunday with his parents.

John Clopline is getting aristocratic, as he now drives a fine top buggy.

Mr. Miller of Thayer is conducting a singing school at the U. B. Church.

Wm. Ames is building quite a large hay barn. Mr. Heilman is doing the carpenter work.

Through the enterprise of Col. Sagner, the merchants have been sufficiently aroused so as to erect a new hitch rack.

Rev. N. L. Vezie will sell all his household goods and kitchen furniture at public auction, Thursday July 1st, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the U. B. parsonage in Earlton.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and scalds are soothed at once and promptly healed by DeWitt's Wicli Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles.—Boschert & Williams.

Thayer.

Wednesday, June 23.—We learn that our friend George Collins, of Shiloh, twp., who has been attending school at Baldwin, is now in Montana and will spend the larger portion of his vacation there, representing a stereoscopic view company.

George Gelwix is still quite sick.

Dr. Hes, of Urbana, was in town for a short time Tuesday morning.

Miss Flossie Forest is attending the Chautauqua at Ottawa this week.

Major D. M. Commons was on the sick list for several days this week.

The dreadful hot weather of the past few days makes the heart of the ice man rejoice.

John Dye still makes his semi-weekly trips to Chanute with poultry, eggs and butter.

Ed Woodruff has been slightly indisposed this week, consequently McKay & Clute have been short of help.

Zella Abbott left Wednesday morning for the Territory, where he goes to assist Wm. Curry run his threshing machine.

The infant son of our townsman, Leeb Collings, died last Saturday evening and was buried in the Thayer cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Rev. McNary and family are away on a visit of ten day or such a matter. The pulpit at the M. E. Church will be filled next Sunday morning and evening by Willie Collins, of Dennis.

W. B. Race and family, Henry Shepherd and family and L. D. Lyman left last week, overland, for the hills of Arkansas, where they will camp out, hunt, fish, and have a good time generally for a month.

Frank Heiley who has been sojourning at Sulphur Springs, Ark., for two months past for his health, is home again looking much better. Dr. Huston, who went along is also back, and he too, is much improved in general health.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it.—Boschert & Williams.

Shaw.

Wednesday, June 23.—The Christian Church grounds are being fitted up for the county Sunday School Convention which meets here next Sunday and promises to be one of the largest demonstrations of that kind ever held in this section.

The Fourth of July bubble has about busted.

Rev. C. J. Saunders, of Erie, spent last Tuesday visiting friends in this vicinity.

Last Wednesday John Grady, of Big Creek twp. paid this burg his first visit since his severe illness a few months ago.

The base ball game on Rock Creek, South Center vs. Shaw, resulted in a victory to the Rock Creek boys by a score of 13 to 10.

Mrs. Sallie Waterhouse, after a few weeks visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Allen, returned to her home in Agricola last Tuesday.

Rev. Fohr, of Montana, one of the of the early pioneer preachers of this section, will hold a series of meetings in Shaw in about two weeks.

The yield of wheat as well as the quality is good in this section. The harvest is in full blast, and threshing "out of the shock" will commence the latter part of this week.

Pat Mitchell was in town last Saturday, and said that the pops in this neck of the woods are not half so boisterous as they used to be. He supposed the reason was that the prospects for the future were not consistent with their wallings and clamorings.

If there is anything in the signs of the times, there will be another war in this country in eighteen or twenty years. The latest acquisition to the anticipated forces, is a big boy baby at the home of Ed John. Ed says he is sure to be a republican for he don't howl or whine a particle.

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by One Minute Cough Cure. This prepared seems especially adapted to the cure of this disease. It acts quickly, thus preventing serious complications and bad effects in which this disease often leaves the patient.—Boschert & Williams.

Leanna.

Tuesday, June 22.—S. B. Edwards and family of Lansing, Kans., are visiting relatives here this week.

Thena Alford is slowly improving.

Mrs. McCracken is very sick at present.

Willie Alford went to Moran Monday on business.

Ed Brachler and Louisa Burghart, and Ed Burghart and Mattie Lee were among those who attended the commencement exercises at Big Creek Chapple Monday night.

Rural.

Tuesday, June 22.—Saturday night and Sunday's rain was of vast benefit to all crops, especially the berry crops which are abundant.

Mrs. McAtee who has been visiting relatives in Illinois, came home last week.

The new gas line will run on the twp line south and east of the Cross farm.

The house on the Cross farm, now occupied by F. Clark, is being given a new coat of paint.

Isaac Malcolm, living on the Howell farm above Austin, has the banner field of rye in this section.

Now we are truly gratified by the city officials prohibiting the firing of fire crackers until such time as is proper for such celebration.

We would suggest the idea of prohibiting the flying of kites on or near the public drives, streets or highways as already some horses have become frightened by the sudden dipping and darting motion of the kite.
