

ALL TO PLAY GAMES

C. K. Turner, of the department of physical training at the Normal, has prepared specifications for rural school game contest. In the average rural school the number of students is too small to have organized athletic teams, and to supply the need of healthful play the game contest idea was stimulated. All the children, boys and girls alike, can enter into the sport of the playground games, and by following this schedule the recess and noon hours become periods of well-organized and helpful play. When the children have developed a considerable proficiency in the games, it is planned for the schools to hold contests under the direction of the county superintendent.

The rules to be followed are simple and are: Each game to be played in ten minutes. For every game won the winners are to be credited with five points. If no game has been completed, the side having the advantage at the end of playing time shall be credited with five points. If at the end of playing time the sides are at a tie neither side shall score. The rules govern the games of Snatch the Handkerchief, Leapfrog Race, Eraser Relay Race for Girls, Dodge Ball for Boys, Dodge Ball for Girls, Black and White, Seven Sticks and German Ball.

A description of field and equipment is fully given, with instructions to teachers in arranging the contests. A cut of a model playground is shown with full directions for marking out. This is but one of the agencies the Normal is using in its extension work for the schools of the state.

AND THE CAT CAME BACK

The lost is found—referring of course to the cat who plautive notes disturbed the occupants of the second floor of the city hall from Tuesday until Saturday evening when Chief McClane of the fire department detected the abused feline in the drawer of the city attorney's desk. The city sleuths had begun to tear up the rostrum on which the mayor's desk is placed but desisted when they finally recognized from whence came that mournful mew.

Drawing on the strength of its several lives the cat did not seem much the worse for its sojourn with city ordinances and started out in the world to report what it had learned of legal lore during its solitary confinement. The question now agitating the minds of the city hall denizens is the identity of the miscreant who locked up poor Grimalkin. Not one of them will enter a plea of guilty and they are inclined to fasten the guilt on some member of the council which was in session Monday evening.

Mrs. Jas. Locke of Walnut was in Chanute Monday on her way to attend the funeral of Rev. J. H. Price at Iola.

WHERE IS KANSAS?

Information just made public by the director of the office of public roads shows that Indiana leads all the states of the Union in mileage of improved roads. Most of the improved roads of Indiana and Ohio are composed of gravel and were, for the most part, built by the farmers in working out the taxes. In many cases the gravel is dumped on the road without proper spreading or rolling. Roads constructed in this way seldom give entire satisfaction. The eight leading good-roads states, as shown by the data compiled by the director, are: Indiana, Ohio, New York, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Illinois, California, and Massachusetts.

The gain in New York according to the director of the office of public roads, is due largely to the fact that the state has bonded itself for 50 million dollars, and that five millions a year or more is being expended by the state, in addition to an equal amount by the counties, in building state highways. New York is leading all the states in actual progress at present, and if the pace is maintained will take the lead over Indiana and Ohio in actual mileage in a few years. —The Kansas Industrialist.

WANTS CITIZENS TO STAND EXPENSE

Chanute should have a special clean-up day this spring but the citizens themselves and not the city should pay for having the refuse hauled off was the report given to the council Monday evening by Hayes chairman of the health committee to which the proposition had been referred. He urged that the ordinance concerning the disposal of garbage be rigidly enforced, but he opposed having the children drafted into service in cleaning up debris. Freeman suggested setting a special clean-up day after which arrests should be made if premises were not put in proper condition. Hayes was willing but said the responsibility should be upon the police department rather than his committee.

Among others matters disposed of was the allowing of Dr. L D Johnson's bill of $23 for attending Chas. Long in the city jail when his arm was injured by a shot from Chief of Police Swartz last December.

Freeman reported that the city had settled with Dr. M A Duncan as city physician up to January 1 except for bill of $14.50 for services several months ago when he was called upon by the Chief of Police in two cases. The latter bill was allowed upon Freeman's motion. The controversy concerning the quarantine charges is yet to be settled.

Sewell and Mrs. W. J. Shepler. The chief entertainment of the evening was a clothes hanging contest in which a gentleman and a lady together fastened dolls' clothes on a line as rapidly as possible. The best record was made by W. H. Powell and Mrs. H. H. McCall who completed the task in sixty-eight seconds.

P. W. Hodson left Tuesday on a trip to Ponca City and the Oklahoma oil fields.

MONEY PLEDGED FOR REBUILDING CHURCH

Nearly $20000 was Raised— Bishop Quayle Delivered Eloquent Address.

A total of $17,874 was pledged in forty minutes Tuesday night for the expense of the reconstruction of the First Methodist church building of Chanute which is to begin as soon as the weather will permit. The service was in charge of Bishop Quayle who had just concluded an eloquent address on the subject of "The Mission and Message of the Church." The pledges were made by the members and congregation of the Methodist church and included an appreciable amount from members of other churches who were among the large number who had gathered to hear Bishop Quayle and share in the inauguration of the financial work of enlarging the edifice. The committee was to bring the total up to $20,000 this afternoon.

The individual pledges ranged from that of R. N. Allen for ten shares at $100 each down to $2 from children in the Sunday school. Each amount as announced was greeted with a hearty "Thank You" from the enthusiastic Bishop on the platform who repeated to D. M. Kennedy, acting as clerk, the pledges as they were called out by Rev. J. R. McFadden and other members of the finance committee distributed through the audience. The Ladies Aid Society pledged $4,000 and the Sunday school and Epworth League were also represented as organizations in the giving. The announcement of a pledge from the Ladies Aid Society of the Presbyterian church was greeted with applause.

Bishop Quayle had closed his address with the statement that as the church is the custodian of the destinies of life that are immortal it should be given an adequate workshop. His theme had been that there is something radically wrong with the world but the cause is sin and not social conditions.

"No place in the world is there less to fuss about than in Kansas, and in no place do they fuss more," said the Bishop, "You ought to be happy but you are usually in a ferment of unrest. If Kansas has no sinner in its foot it will go out and buy one. But the unrest is every where. The ailment of city and country is the same.

"The only trouble of the world is sin. What are we going to do about it? Send the people to school? No, education won't do away with sin. We must slay sin. Give the world the religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. The only institution to clean up sin is the church. God will cure sin through the church."
